Mobile, May 20th, 1844.

DEAR SIR:

We have this day entered into copartnership for the purpose of transacting a FACTORAGE AND COMMISSION BUSINESS, in this City, under the name and style of DONALD & MARSHALL, and would be pleased to serve you in the sale of your Cotton. We shall confine ourselves to a legitimate Factorage business—the sale of Cotton and the supplying of our friends with their Bagging and Rope and family necessaries.

Both of us having been raised in Alabama, and having a long experience in business and the sale of Cotton, we feel assured that we shall be able to transact any business you may confide to us, to your satisfaction.

We respectfully tender you our services, and remain respectfully

Your Ob't Servts,

JNO. T. DONALD,
BENJ. F. MARSHALL.

The undersigned, in retiring from the Commission Business, takes this opportunity of returning his grateful acknowledgments to his friends and customers who have so long favored him with their patronage and support. He also takes great pleasure in recommending to his old friends his successors in business, Donald & Marshall.
