THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 6, 1958

Dear Frank:

Homer Gruenther duly delivered to me the pecans and -- best of all -- the blackstrap molasses that you so thoughtfully sent me. I am indebted to you for another bit of evidence of your constant thoughtfulness and kindness.

With many thanks and warm regard,

Sincerely,

DE

The Honorable Frank W. Boykin
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.