New York July 11. 1866

Dear Sir

Your favor dated June 2nd with enclosure came duly to hand and was immediately acknowledged by mail under cover to Mess.rs John K. Gillat & Co. Your original letter of May 30th has since come to hand.

I am now favored with yours of June 27th. and its contents being second of the former. You say that you have not heard from me. I can only regret this; for I replied promptly and to the address which you furnished me.

Every thing is being done which time and opportunity admit and the judgment of those engaged can suggest. The resolution has no moral force. The manner of its introduction and passage forbids. It has no legal force; for it is the act of half a legal entity, the action of the whole being requisite for such a purpose.

It cannot be necessary to say more. Nothing is neglected and though harassed and irritated by uncertainty and procrastination we are not at all desponding

I am Dear Sir
Yours truly

C. O'Conor
