My Dear Mother

Your letter of the 23rd. is at hand and enclosed I send you a letter which is a suitable answer to the several letters of Messrs James Magee & Co as also to Mellers, On the 5th of May you will please copy the letter accurately and send it by Mail to Messrs Magee & Co make no alteration in it—

I have sent you the key of Mails & the White wash & paint brushes with a can of Putty— I have sent these things at this time for fear that Elizabeth may not go down as soon as you expect Mr Boykin will go into the country about the Middle of May when I expect that Elizabeth will come down to see you, It depends entirely upon circumstances whether I will come down or not—

I received a letter yesterday from Malcom from Milledgeville Bessy had been very unwell but was much better, Malcom was to leave Milledgeville yesterday I expect him here about friday next— All are well
