March 1918

Tuesday afternoon.

Dearest old gal:

Sure was glad to hear from you. On Broadway! That sure listens good to me honey. If I ever get out of this dump it's new York for mine! - Tho I'll have to come to it gradually - I am afraid even the excitement of Washington will be too much for me after leaving this place. Even Jasper has it beat! I knew you were playing in "The Squab Farm" - read it in the Birmingham Age Herald - accompanied by your picture - the picture I want - (be you going to send it, huh? - Everybody said "She's very good-looking" - but, honey, I want the original so they'll say - "She's the darndest, best looking girl I ever saw" - so please send it, hon!) Tell me about the play - who is in it?

Saw you with Edna Goodrich last week - very good - only I wish you'd had a better part. Her photograph's very good, don't you think? What is she doing now?

I'll bet you are having a regular "gosh darn it" time - aren't you, sugar? I pity aunt Louise if she has to keep tabs on you. - But before I go any further - here's wishing you the very best of success - may you take Broadway by storm!

Have Mary + Doug gotten their divorces yet? Tell me all the news, anything you have found out in the last six months 'cause what is old to you now I'll just swallow whole. Is Mae married yet?

Heard today that the camp ~~was~~ is going to move by the 5th of April. Dob is trying to get a transfer up to Washington. Hope he can get it before they move away ~~from~~ here 'cause they'll probably go right over to France.

He stayed in all night Saturday night - and I slept - a little - had a wonderful time?

- You with your "bedroom" eyes - why don't you get married? - how is Irving anyway? Nora in the movies! - That's great! - Hope she does "dramatics" - When is she going to marry Lord "Pootsey" - of the Royal Flying Corps? Is she still with "Cohans Review"?

Have you seen Pauline lately? Does she still "fall on your neck" - or have you given her the cold shoulder? I remember when you used to say if you ever saw her you'd be speechless - (I always did say that would be impossible - unless maybe you bit your tongue! - no offense meant Tally, - you talk so dum cute!) But circumstances do alter things, don't they? Yes, I believe you are getting blasé - but your letter sounded as if you were the same old enthusiastic Tally that you always were. Pauline is here in "Madame Jealousy" - also Norma in "The moth" - oh, yes we have all the latest pictures - if we wait long enough for them. Went to see D. D. in "The Tiny of Diamonds" - all the exciting part cut out! Suream crazy about her. Read that Norma's in Palm Beach vaudevating - guess you'll see her soon - There's a fellow here theatrical critic - says she is rather dissapated looking but oh, boy! He knows Schenk too - and a bunch of theatrical people.

Gee, Tally. I can see you on the stage now! - You sure are a lucky devil! Think of me tonight when you go on - I wish I was there to see you.

Oodles of love

Eunice
