✓

In Line of Battle near Atlanta

July 26 1863

My Dear Sister

I again take Seat to write to you living and for this will find you and Sister written to you not long I I have not receive a answer as yet but knowing that the communication was stoped for it on that way nor do I know whether you will get it in due time or not but I thought I would write and try it. On the 20th of this month we had a considerable Engagement with the Enemy at this place captured a good many. I suppose to be and three thousand prisoners twenty three pieces of artilery. The Enemy loss killed and wounded is not much changed their by but few of any of our boys corps do the most of the fighting takes the Enemy on Division was Engaged on A proman of the fight I was on picket My whole entire Reg was on picket When My Regt was not with he Bregade on were deployed at and drove The Enemy Shermerhead right it we on only got line for wire wounded of the old Capt promoted to Major plaased to be Dead he was wounded Thuigh found fell into the enemy position the last that was seen of him he was Spiritly I regret it very much if we only tend of been with him and one of us would have brought him of of the field but he was with the remainder of the Bregade that was not on Picket as I doubt you getting that I will not say any more about the fight Since I wrote to you asking Nerde to send Taylor with my shoes and clothes by at atlanta them I would not for I heard from Pa on the 12th He was at Carpouk also in the hospital