My dear Mr Harris

since I closed my sad note I have thought it better to say to you that Harriet would undertake the situation of Governess in a kind family with such a remuneration as would help us, or we would go any where, if the Pupils could be procured sufficient for us to live by it. Harriet is fully competent to the task, her music is far above what is usually heard and now she helps me by that and French and German — excuse me troubling you but the destitute look far and near for aid
