Letter from John S. Jones to his daw in law Mary Frances (Parker) Jones

Fancy a few lines to you to let you no that wee havant forgoten you I can so to you that wee received your most kind letter some time back which give us greate sattisfaction to hear from you and to hear that you and wiley J.W.R. Jones was well I havat had the cheance of riten before now this letter will doe for you all the same as if I was to rite seperate letters if wee was with you all wee could tell you ten times more then I can rite when I goe to rite a letter I cant think of eny thing hardley but wee waunt you all to rite to us and give us all the newes that you can think of the children scendes howda to you all and tha waunt to see you all . tell the children that thear gran paw and gran maw wauntes to see them so I must quit by requestin of you to excues bad spelinge and ritin for my hand cromps so bad that I cant hardley hold my pen . so give our love and respectes to all inquirens frendes and receive a poshion your selves

J. S and Nancy Jones