Dear Sir

I send you 52 lb. sugar and 34 of coffee.

I looked for the petitions & last week: but they did not come to hand. Mr Stringer, — Mr F. M'Grew, — Mr Dupree, — Mr Morgan, — Mr Jordan Morgan, — have never returned those they have

I pray you to hurt up what you can and send them by a messenger whom Mr G. S. Gaines is so send down on Friday. Why do we slumber? If we fail now, it will be more difficult to succeed another session, — as the opposition from the Miss^r will then be organized.

I [illegible] what petitions I had, by the last mail [illegible] between three & four hundred signatures, and wrote numerous letters.

I am dear Sir

Yours very sincerely

H. Toulmin
