EXPERIMENT FOR THE MONTGOMERY ADVERTISER. Mobile, April 30. Official information has been received that the Yankee sloop-of-war Preble was burnt on the 28th of Panama. The ship and her armament was a total loss.

JACKSON, April 29. A dispatch from General Sherman's headquarters returned towards Corinth from Palo Alto yesterday. Grierson is known to be below Jackson.

A scout from Anstis yesterday reports the Mississippi river twelve feet below low water mark, and will fall six inches daily. It will be impossible for the enemy to get into Moon Lake until the river rises.

Two transports pass up and down daily. A few transports, one transport, towing two barges, passed down on the 26th.

The Jackson and Grand Gulf and the Vicksburg and Grand Gulf lines have been broken.

Eight boats loaded with troops from the front of Vicksburg are now passing up the Yazoo. The display made shows a desire to attract our attention.

A dispatch from Jackson reached Hurlburt at 10 o'clock today. Col. Adams is heard on the Yankee trail. Firing was heard this morning in the direction of Union Church.

The latest information is that the Yankees are moving towards Natchez. A private dispatch to the Montgomery Advertiser says the enemy entered Natchez yesterday.

The enemy entered Natchez yesterday, burned the depot, injured the track and captured several soldiers and one officer. Their course was towards the Yazoo.

A skirmish occurred at Pasterson, Mo., yesterday. The Yankees lost 11 killed, 100 wounded and 200 captured.

McNeill, of Palmyra, Missouri, yesterday reported that the Yankees had been re-established. After six hours and a half continued firing the gunboats retired.

They fired about three thousand shot and shells, temporarily disabled one gun. Our loss was three killed and one wounded.

Two boats were apparently injured, but the damage is unknown. The men behaved like veterans.

and are now working hard preparing for another attack. One disabled gunboat, after trying unsuccessfully to get up, now lies about three miles below on the Louisiana shore.

The enemy were engaged Tuesday in passing a large body at Hard Times, on the Louisiana shore, five miles above Grand Gulf.

A special dispatch to the Appeal says the Chicago Times of the 22d has a dispatch from Washington stating that Lincoln has proclaimed Western Virginia a State.

Gen. Grant has telegraphed the Yankee President that Vicksburg was being evacuated.

Important news had just been received at St. Louis from Iron Mountain, but it was only known that the rebels had approached unexpectedly and after an engagement had been fought in the place. The Yankee force there was 20,000.

The Polish revolution is gaining strength. A Cincinnati dispatch says a combined attack on Vicksburg by the gunboats above and Grant in front was the program for Monday. It was firmly believed in military circles that Grant had captured Vicksburg and that its defenders have gone Orleansward and Tennesseeward.

JACKSON, April 29. The enemy's gunboats and transports loaded with troops, moved on Grand Gulf at 10 o'clock today. The gunboats passed about seven o'clock, and took a terrific fire for several hours. Our batteries replied briskly, disabling one gunboat, which floated past our works.

The enemy finally withdrew after firing 3,000 and shell. Col. Wade, our Chief of Artillery, was killed.

Several transports loaded with troops went up the Yazoo today.

JACKSON, April 30. Six gunboats with two transports loaded on them passed Grand Gulf at 9 o'clock last night. The transports were captured and are now below.

The Senate has passed, with amendments, a bill authorizing Surgeons of hospitals to grant furloughs. The House bill increasing the pay of soldiers was discussed, postponed until to-morrow.

The House agreed to the Senate amendments prescribing a motto and seal for the Confederate States; also passed the House bill to provide for the holding of an election for members of Congress in Tennessee and Louisiana; also passed a bill abolishing all duties on the importation of iron and steel.

The Senate bill amending the act authorizing the Louisiana and Louisiana courts, the House receded from its disagreement to the Senate amendment in regard to the appropriation bill. The bill was then concurred in.

JACKSON, April 30. Six gunboats, fired at the bluff on the Yazoo, finally after this morning. The firing ceased about four o'clock this afternoon. The works are uninjured. Two men were injured on our side.

REMOND, April 30. The following official dispatch has been received in the city: JACKSON, April 29, 1863. To Gen. S. Cooper: Six gunboats averaging ten guns each, opened a terrific fire upon our batteries at Grand Gulf at 7 A. M., and continued without intermission for six hours, and half, when they withdrew, several boats being damaged. One was disabled, and now lies on the Louisiana shore below.

Our loss was three killed, including Col. Wade, Gen. Down, our chief of artillery, and one private.

Repairs are being made, as we are expecting a renewal of the attack to-morrow. Transports, loaded with troops, are in sight but inactive.

H. G. PEMBERTON, Lieut. Gen. Commanding.

REMOND, May 1. The enemy has crossed the Kappalanoonk at several points, fifteen or twenty miles above Fredericksburg, and commenced an advance down the river by the plank road from Chancellorsville, 10 miles above Fredericksburg. At this point they were attacked by Malone's brigade, and after a brief fight, were repulsed, with considerable loss. Our loss was small. The Yankees who crossed below Fredericksburg, and batteries below town opened fire on our position near Hamilton's Crossing, the present railroad terminus. Our batteries replied, and a duel continued incessantly until dusk.

The reports of the fighting were heard in the vicinity of Richmond. A letter dated at 13 M., near Fredericksburg, says no fighting or skirmishing has taken place to-day, but both sides are preparing for a great battle. No demonstration has been made by the enemy in front of Fredericksburg. The town will probably escape a shelling. The inhabitants have again evacuated the place.

The Senate has passed the House bill placing in military service, after the first of July next, all citizens of the United States, including Marylanders, residing orjourning in the Confederate States. The bill is now in the hands of the President, and is expected to be approved. A message was received from the President, returning with his disapproval, the act to authorize the transmission of newspapers to soldiers free of postage.

In the House nothing of interest transpired except the amendment to the Senate bill for the relief of the soldiers. The motion was upon by both houses, the battle being for the union, with a white field without bars. The House took a recess until 8 o'clock.

JACKSON, May 1. Grierson's Yankees were at Summit last night. The circuit rider, Rio, was one of his Captains. The Yankees burned a wood shed, but destroyed no cotton or private property. They have 200 negroes mounted on mules.

The fighting just below Grand Gulf commenced at 10 o'clock last night. Gen. Tracy, of Alabama, is reported killed. Particulars of the engagement are given.
