[C. 2/6/63]

Dear Brother

Mr Jacksons note never has been renewed and I sent it up yesterday to get him to renew and he wrote me word when the money for some corn Mr Hall had bought was collected he would renew or pay it can he collect it by law or must I let it be deducted I send the note to you to see it and see the one he wrote back please write me word what to do and how much interest is due I dont think Mr Jackson has treated me right about it he tried to get Mr Hale to take corn from John Cotton before Christmas and let him settle it and I objected and now he has brought in an other account, when did you hear from Lon and how is she and how are you all when are you coming over to see us

Yours Affectionately
M B Hale
