Dear sister

I sat myself this morning to write you a few lines this leaves me well hoping it may reach you injoying the same good blessing I have no news of much importance I recived your letter yesterday that was the 17 Mr Denry came safely through yesterday he looks fine and says that he injoyed him self finely. tell Cousin Lizzie that he is very much smitten with her tell Cousin that I saw her little Jonas sweetpea a few days a go he looks fine and is truly a handsome little fellow: tell Clifford that I recived her ~~letter~~ letter also and was much pleased to hear from her and that she had got well of the Chills. I would like very much to be at home and go to some of your interesting parties. why is it that the girls are marrying all of the stray lers is it because they love them best or have dispared of the war ever closing or do they

be killed if so god help them. I would like to have beulah to read oplease send it by Stanford if you can get it. there are some talk of our going to Mobile but I hope not for I think there will be some hard fighting there before long. what is the matter with Colonel Thornton the reason why you were not invited to the dining. tell Miss Massaline that I heard a young man in the seaventh Teneas regt say that he had written her a letter but had not received a reply. tell Mr Cobb that would be pleased to hear from him that I have written him a letter and have not received a reply tell Cousin Ellen that I would like to hear from her and Louisa I have written several letters to them. the celebrated Mr Hamlin from Tuskegee preached a sermon for us last sunday I like him very much I think that he is a nice and good man I will close hoping to meet soon with the blessing of peace smiling over country. give my respects to all of the family inquiring friends reserve a potion for your self. your affectionate brother J. K. Weaver
