April 29, 1933.

To the Governor,
Montgomery, Alabama.

Dear Sir:-

The following letter has been sent to the prosecuting attorney, in the Scottsboro case, the mayors of Scottsboro and Decatur, and now we appeal to you.

"This organization stands firmly upon the basis of social, political, and economic justice for all, without regard for race, sex, class or creed.

We therefore wish to register our everlasting disapproval of the procedure and findings in the case of the Scottsboro negro boys, convicted of a crime upon the most questionable evidence, and the most flagrant display of prejudice and hatred, that some people wonder if we are still in the dark ages.

Alabama ranks among the foremost in its care of juvenile dependents and delinquents. You can command the admiration of the whole world, if you include these poor neglected negro children in your program of social welfare, and thereby align yourself with the enlightened element of our country."

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. George G. Bray, Cor. Secy.
