Mother Precious,

Got to publish my daily bulletin before going to sleep.

Continued improvement.

Feeling fine in fact, and already anxious to fly. The big white clouds floating over a clear blue sky were very alluring today.

Sleeping comfortably all night and a nap a two during the day together with rather good food will soon put me in normal condition.

Who should I find upon arriving at this hospital and in the same ward but my old friend Burgo Purcell of Lindebergs office. He also has a bullet through his right shoulder, a flesh wound. It is a great joy to see him, ~~and~~ swap experiencies and talk over things back home.

We are both able to walk about the ward and call on one another – I am also finding quite a few fellows I knew at Plattsburg.

Sorry I am too far for Jack to visit me I shall miss him lots –

This year I understand that the A.R.C. is going to handle all Xmas presents & will furnish ~~uniform~~ boxes of uniform size to the families to be packed. Don't know whether this box will be sent to you or Cousin Frank. But this is what I am writing Santa Claus for:

1 hand prophylactic (?) tooth brush.
1 box delicately scented glycerine soap.
6 film rolls for Vest Pocket Kodak –
1 Pkg. bullion cubes.
1 Small pkg. good tea.
1 Billy goat and red wagon –

Good night precious, Pennie.
