Mr. Brice K. McCullough

Well Old Boy how are you getting along these days all right I hope, I just thought I would drop you a few lines as Mama was writing

Well the War is still grinding. I dont know what the Germans are going to decide on. they would like to do us like they did Rusia. but they will have a time handing U.S. that kind of stuff. they had better come clean. they will do something now in a few days, if they were to surrender, the most of our army would remain in that Country for about a year, to see that everything was carried out according to agreement, but it would perhaps release some of the Boys in the Camps. that's my Idea about it.

No news. your Dad
