Exchange Hotel
11. Feb. 1861.

My dear Sir,

I do not feel myself at liberty to depart for Montgomery without leaving behind me a written acknowledgment of the grateful sense I entertain of numerous acts of courtesy and kindness extended to me during my brief sojourn. With the assurance, that it will always afford me pleasure to avail myself of a similar opportunity to reciprocate favors,

I remain,

Very truly Yours,

D. L. Swain
