Camp Near Winchester va Oct
the 1st 1862

Dear wife I Rec'd yours of the 9th of Sept on last night but not until I had closed my letter that I was going to send to Richmond By Colonel Wood & as joe was going to send this to Jarrod I thought I would write you a few lines I was sorry to hear that you were all sick But I hope you have all got well Before this time this leaves me in good health I believe that I am in as good health at this time as I have Been since you saw me I want you to be the judge about buying your meat & selling your corn you said you wanted to send my winter clothes send pants shirts socks Drawers if you have a good chance But dont send any without you have a good chance

Betsy I have writen all the news of importance in other letters before this which I hope you have Recieved Before this time so I will close By saying I Remain your affectionate husband untill Death so fare you well for the Present
