May 8, 1944

Arrived.

Laden with St. Christopher, rabbit feet, and sore feet.

Tafi driver wouldn't charge me a fare when he realized where I was going & why. Told me the merits of A.R.C.

Quartered in an old house with 11 other females, miles from everywhere, my roommate rustic but pleasant

(1) Send me Cap's address, quick
Ask Anita for Hoyt's
Shall call everybody I know - who can you think of? My time my own after 5, till class at 9 the next morning, from Sat. at 1 til Mon. A.M.

(2) Send me
dress with amber buttons
Best's camel hair coat
red polka dot dress
white spectators
to ~~[illegible] Macomb St. [illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~.

Do I have any packable summer hats?

a.P.O. 340
21. 1/.

MONTGOMERY, ALA. AUG 27 1945 PARCEL

Girdle required. I shall buy a cheap one and throw it overboard when I sail.

Sailing indefinite may be in one week, may be longer - I stroke my rabbit foot.

a bunch of domineering women running this show, all of whom I despise; all gym teachers. But I shall be as meek as a little lamb to them and their bossiness - even to wearing a girdle to uniform fitting. Given a little authority, women certainly know it all in no time at all.

Ask Mother Hubbard if Robert is up here yet.

Train ride horrible - 3 little children like Dagwood's puppies - I dared 'em to come one at a time.

mail to National Hdqrs., A.R.C.
Personnel Training Unit, SAF
Washington 13, D.C.

H.

Receipt number 9241
Railway Express Agency
2nd + H. Streets, N.E.
Washington 2. D.C.

Engelhardt
ARC Clubmobile 4
APO 340 New York
UNITED STATES POSTAGE
CENTS 6
UNITED STATES
CENTS 6
VIA AIR MAIL
AIR ROUTE BOND
Engelhardt
Box 34
Montgomery, Ala