Preface

The Tuscaloosa County Circuit Court Loose Records index is a project by the Tuscaloosa Genealogical Society (TGS) with support from the Tuscaloosa County governmental officials, the Alabama Department of Archives and History and the Genealogical Society of Utah. The objectives were to locate, index and microfilm the circuit court loose records. This index includes divorce cases, ex parte cases for the removal of non-age and estate cases transferred from Probate to Circuit Court. From 2004-2007, volunteers donated more than 2350 hours to the project producing this index.

At the beginning of the project, the volunteers expected to work with cases from 1923-1950. Cases from earlier years were later discovered in the courthouse attic. Many of these are incomplete and some have duplicate case numbers. These are included in the index, identified by the letter "A" (years 1889-1900) or "B" (years 1897-1916) preceding the case number. The Tuscaloosa County loose records that were transferred to the Alabama Department of Archives and History prior to 2004 are not included in this index.

For this index, volunteers read each case and listed names of complainant and respondent, case number, type case, date and any other names and how they related to the case.

The Genealogical Society of Utah microfilmed the cases included in this index. The microfilm is available at the Tuscaloosa Public Library (TPL), Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH) and may be ordered from any LDS Family History Center.

Any copy or reproduction of this work is expressly forbidden without written permission from the Tuscaloosa Genealogical Society.

NOTE: Film numbers at TPL and ADAH pertain only to their collections and are not the same as the FamilySearch Catalog (formerly FHL) film numbers. An electronic index giving both the TPL and FHL numbers can be found on the Tuscaloosa Genealogical Society webpage. www.tuscaloosagenealogy.com

In some instances the case could not be found on any film suggesting it was not filmed and the film number is left blank.
