Review of the Mobile Market.

COTTON—Since Friday evening week the receipts at this port have been 3,690 bales; the exports 3,367 bales—leaving a stock on hand, including all on ship-board not cleared of 16,305 bales, against 15,664 same time last season, and 20,005 in 1842.

In our weekly review of the 9th instant, the market was reported stiff at the close, with a very light supply; holders however, were generally willing sellers, except where limited by instructions from planters. On Saturday the market exhibited about the same aspect, transactions being very limited, buyers only taking for immediate wants in the prosecution of freight engagements. Monday being principally devoted to the election, but little was done—prices showing no marked change from previous quotations. On Tuesday it rained nearly all day, and scarce anything transpired deserving of report. Since Tuesday the general expectation of an immediate improvement in our rivers, and the consequent free influx of cotton, combined with the unfavorable tenor of the foreign accounts ex-Hibernia, has had a depressing influence upon our market—prices being quoted ¼c. lower in middling and below, and ¼c. in qualities above. This decline has been more marked on the last two days, accompanied with an increased desire to sell, buyers at the same time being disposed to keep aloof until a larger stock has accumulated. In this state of feeling the market closed yesterday dull.

We report the week's business at 1700 bales, prices being reduced as above noted an eighth in the better grades, and a quarter of a cent in the middling and lower descriptions. Daily sales: Saturday 200; Monday 300; Tuesday 100; Wednesday and Thursday each 400, and yesterday 300 bales. Transactions chiefly on foreign account. The finer sorts, or those above middling fair, continue scarce, and have been in some request for eastern orders. The stock on sale, including last arrivals estimated at between 2500 and 3000 bales.

Dates from Liverpool received since our last of the 18th, and Havre of the 16th Oct. The cotton market in the former city was somewhat depressed, owing to the heavy stock and large estimates for the coming crop. Mobile fair 4⅝d. The Havre market was pretty steady, but at lower prices. Stock in Liverpool 889,000 bales. Stock in Havre 80,000 bales.

EXCHANGE—The exchange market has been tolerable steady since our last, with a moderate business and but trifling variation in rates—sterling a little stiffer. The supply and demand are about in fair proportion. Specie is rather better, and Alabama Bank notes worse; Planters and Merchants Bank notes remain without change.—The Bank buys and sells New York 60 days 1¾, and sight ½ per cent dis. At the same time last year sterling quoted 5½@6 premium; New York 60 days 2@2¼ discount, and checks ½@1 discount. For quotations this week see table.

RECEIPTS OF SPECIE.

Since 1st September, 1844	$ 26,200
Same time last year	$508,000

FREIGHTS—There has been very little done in either foreign or coastwise freights during the week—only one foreign engagement reported, a ship for Liverpool at ½d. per lb. Coastwise rates have ruled at former quotations, with light offerings. Since the reported rise in our rivers masters and consignees have stiffened up; previous rates to northern and eastern ports are now refused—$2 asked for New York. The enquiry is yet too limited in foreign to hazard any opinion as to whether an immediate advance will be realized or not; masters, however, anticipate an improvement with a good deal of confidence. Several square rigged vessels have arrived since this day week, and five have cleared. A large number of vessels are now on their way, or up for this port at the north and east. At the corresponding period of last year, freights were quoted ½d. to Liverpool, 1c. to Havre and $1½ to New York; in the succeeding week they advanced to 9-16d., 1⅜c. and $2. In 1842, same time, rates ½d., 1c. and $1½. We quote agreeable to last transactions:

Liverpool, cotton per pound	½d.
Havre " "	1c.

Grocery, Produce and Provision Market.

GENERAL REMARKS.—The amount of business transactions from the date of our last has been very limited, no change being noted from the dull state of trade reported on this day week until yesterday, when rather more activity was perceptible, induced by the gratifying intelligence of a rise in the rivers, received by arrivals the night previous. As far as heard from, the rains which fell here on Monday and Tuesday had extended, and all the water courses were rising. This news has raised the expectation of all who are connected with, or depending upon the movements of our chief staple, and several of our largest class boats leave this evening for the interior. The interest taken by all classes in the late election, has militated to some extent against business; but as the excitement is now nearly over, and people are once more turning their attention to their respective avocations, we anticipate with the improvement in our river navigation, a more encouraging and satisfactory state of things during the incoming week. Imports of merchandize from the west continue light, but our merchants and grocers are generally very fairly stocked, in view of existing prices, etc. Two ships have arrived during the week from Liverpool, with assorted cargoes, one from Brazil with a full cargo of coffee, and some eight or nine vessels from northern and eastern ports with assorted merchandize. Prices of most western goods still keep up, owing to the comparative light imports at New Orleans. The weather here has turned off quite cold since the rain.

BAGGING AND ROPE—These articles remain nearly nominal at previous rates—12½@13½ and 6¼@6c. for Ky., cash, and 14@15 and 6@6½c. short time, as in quality, etc. Holders experience very little enquiry and with a full supply, are anxious to effect sales.

BACON—Prices have varied but little, the request continuing limited and light stocks. Hams, best 11@12c; sides 6½@6¾c. for clear, and 5¾@6¼c. for rib; shoulders 5@5½c. as in quality and quantity.

BUTTER—Market well stocked with Goshen, which meets a limited request from the retail trade, at 16@20c. as in quality, etc. Western 10@15c.—dull.

CHEESE—The demand is still light, stock good and prices tending down. We quote from 7 to 8 cents, according to quality.

CANDLES—Pure Sperm 34@35c. with nothing beyond a city retail request. Extremes 32@35c. Supply good.

COFFEE—A cargo of 2500 bags Rio received since our last, a small portion of which has been disposed of at 7@7½c. from ship-board—the balance on the market, for which 7¼c. is asked. It is all of the new crop and of a very superior quality. The trade evince no desire to increase their supplies at present, owing to the inanimate state of business generally. Grocers are moderately stocked with Rio, but hold comparatively little of Havana. The stock of the latter in first hands is also very trifling.—We quote extremes of 7@7¼c. for both Rio and Cuba—the outside for best quality in small lots from store.

FLOUR—Arrivals continue very small, but the demand being also light, and the New Orleans market much depressed, prices here have barely been sustained. We quote Ohio $4.70@4.80; and Missouri $4⅞@5; Northern sells at $5¼@5½ by retail.

GRAIN—Receipts light of shelled—a good supply of ear, with limited demand. Prices are tending downward.—We quote shelled 52@55c. per bushel, and ear 70@75 cts. per bbl. Oats scarce, but with a light demand, at 45c.

HAY—The receipts are not large, but the stock in hand is more than equal to the request, and holders find it difficult to effect sales. We quote in lots from wharf, eastern 62½c.

LARD—We quote at 7@7½c. with a light request and fair stock.

LIME—The demand is solely a retail one, with a fair supply; prices $1½@1¾c.

LUMBER—There is not so much doing as in former weeks for export; mill prices however remain firm at $8@10.

MOLASSES—The receipts are still very limited, while a moderately fair enquiry exists, prices remaining about as last week—24@25 cents. No direct imports yet from plantation.

PORK—Arrivals very small. The demand is solely for city consumption and ship stores; prices $10½ for Mess; $8½@9 for M O; and $8@8½ for prime.

POTATOES—Moderate arrivals, good stock and limited sales at receding prices. We quote $1,25@1,37½ in lots, and $1¼ retail.

RICE—Received 120 tierces new, from which sales in small lots at $4 per 100 lbs. A moderate request.

SUGAR—The receipts of the week only 55 hhds. There has been a little doing in new sugars since our last, prices remaining pretty steady at 5½@7c. extremes. Of old but little remains in hand; it is worth 7½@8c. No direct receipts yet from plantation; a cargo expected soon.

SALT—Two cargoes Liverpool received during the week, both of which still afloat. The demand is still only for small parcels, prices continuing as last week $1,25 from the wharf. An improvement in request is expected in the course of the next week or two.

WHISKEY—Receipts light, demand moderate, prices reduced about 1c. per gallon, say 28@30c.
