PERSONAL

Mr. Earl Morgan
Executive Secretary to Governor Wallace
State Capitol
Montgomery, Alabama

Dear Earl:

I started to telephone you, but I know your brain and your all must be very, very weary, and if ever anybody needed a few days' rest, it is the Governor and the entire group, who did such an outstanding job all the way down to the end of the line when he was sworn in yesterday as Governor of one of the greatest States in this nation -- Alabama.

Lord knows, you have a great and grave responsibility, but you have been through this before -- not only in the Capitol of Alabama, but in the Capitol of the United States.

I want to make a little suggestion -- that you have a pamphlet printed of the Governor's entire speech, because many newspapers will only print excerpts and you might not understand the speech unless you have every word that our great fighting Governor spoke.

I certainly enjoyed my visit with you, and thanks for all the courtesies; I am ready to reciprocate, now or at any other time. I will see you in a few days, but please let me know when, how and where I can help, because there is more than any human being can do in your Department, because you have got to protect George Wallace.

God bless you and let me know when and where I can help.

Sincerely your old friend,

Frank W. Boykin
