

United States Senate
Office of the Democratic Leader
Washington, D. C.

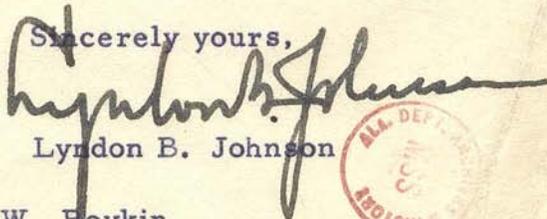

January 27, 1960

Dear Frank:

I am looking forward to receiving the two books you mentioned in your letter of January 22. I don't have the book on Jeff Davis and I am sure that the book on the Battle of Horseshoe Bend will be one that I wouldn't want to miss for anything. It was very thoughtful of you to offer to send these books to me.

I appreciate more than you know your vote of confidence in me, Frank. I have no way of knowing what the future holds, but whatever comes will be good as long as I have the friendship of men like you.

Sincerely yours,

Lyndon B. Johnson
