DIRECTOR—GENERAL.

The Japanese News are now merged with all above periodicals.

My dear Miss Tallulah Bankhead,

I feel great satisfaction in advising that you are just now winning the highest topics in every state of Nippon saying that your plays will soon come here to gain the high praises in all countries and that I am delighted to offer our previous congratulations representing the whole members in our Combined Offices above written.

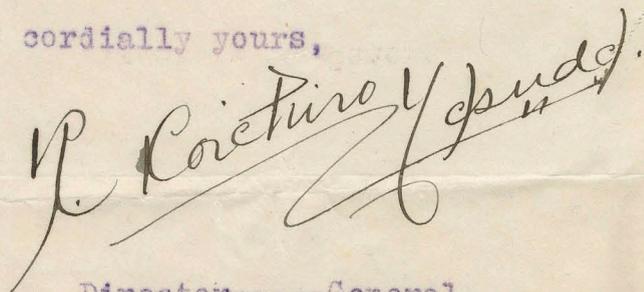

I feel also honor to advise that although your play has never been shown in here, there are so great many your ardent admirers who have obliged me to publish a set of your portraits and your story in our nearest issues. I have gathered the materials about the same and am now ending its long translations. It is most regrettable to tell that while all our patrons are longing so much, there are none of your portraits in our hands. Therefore would you so kindly favor me by sending your most distinctive and largest autographed photographs of your every close-ups to illustrate your story by being reproduced into the Japanese magazines?

It gives me great pleasure to think that it is in nearest future that I can mail you our every issues in which you will find your all poses published.

Hoping you every continued success and trusting that I shall soon be honored by your splendid presents and a nice letter of your latest news, I beg you to remain, most cordially yours,

RHA/KY

Director-----General.
