Hon. George Huddleston
House Office Building
Washington, D. C.

You are doubtlessly aware of the President's actions this date ordering federal troops to our state. Local and state law enforcement officers are in full control of the situation in Birmingham. Negro mob violence of last night has been quelled and order restored. Full scale investigation of the bombing incidences is under way by local authorities who will cooperate fully with FBI. Sufficient state law enforcement officers are available to maintain peace and order. The President
