Hon. William Colmer, Dean
Mississippi Congressional Delegation
House Office Building
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Bill:

As an Alabamian and neighbor, I am deeply concerned over developments in your State of Mississippi. While I realize the Mississippi Congressional Delegation is doing all within its power to assist the officials of your great State in their battle for Constitutional government, I want to assure you that I stand ready to aid in any manner you may deem beneficial.

I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this letter to the other members of your able delegation.

My very best personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Armistead I. Selden, Jr.

Dear Armistead:

Your letter of September 28th addressed to Bill Colmer, Dean of our Delegation, is a source of much encouragement and comfort to us in the tragic crisis foisted upon our beloved State of Mississippi.

This is a sad day, not only for our State, but for the country. The game of politics has exacted its pound of flesh. There will be more and more.

We appreciate deeply your support.

Sincerely,

/s/ Tom
