

LOCAL MILITARY

MATTERS.

What is Going on in the Camps.

GOVERNOR JOHNSTON MAKES MORE APPOINTMENTS.

Another Flag to be Presented—Recruits Wanted.

As the time for the move of the armies, both standing and volunteers, draws near the three camps at Mobile are scenes of activity. Every department seems to be under rush orders.

At Camps Johnston and Clark the work of the board of examiners is being rapidly pushed, and as fast as a company is examined and has its full quota the enlisted men are verified.

CAMP CLARK—OFFICERS OF THE DAY.

The detail for today in Camp Clark were: Captain R. L. Hay, officer of the day; Lieutenant R. L. Brown, senior officer of the guard; Lieutenant L. E. Davidson, junior officer of the guard.

Orders were issued by Colonel Higdon this morning prohibiting civilians from entering camp before 4 o'clock in the afternoon. As a consequence no one was allowed to enter Camp Clark today.

TO BUILD A COMMISSARY.

A contract was let by the commissary department today for the erection of a small commissary building at Camp Clark. Work will be commenced tomorrow erecting the building.

SOLDIER FAINTS FROM HEAT.

Private Berto S. Johnston, of the Montgomery Greys, was prostrated from the severe heat this morning while in his company on drill. He was removed to the hospital tent, where medical attention was given and it is expected will be ready for duty in a few days.

ANOTHER FLAG PRESENTATION

Will be Made Next Week—Troy Rifles
to Receive the Gift.

A letter was received in the quarters of the Troy Rifles this morning that brought joy to all the men in the company. This particular letter announced the fact that a delegation of young ladies would leave Troy next week for Mobile, having in their possession a beautiful silk flag, which would be presented to the company. As soon as it was announced that the ladies of Troy would not forget the boys from that city a prolonged cheer greeted the joyful news. Preparations necessary for the reception of the ladies are under way and they will be given a royal welcome. The Troy Rifles are in the Second Regiment, Alabama Volunteers.

OFFICERS TODAY.

Camp Johnston was officered today by the following: Officer of the day, Captain John D. Hagan; senior officer of the guard, Lieutenant Hare; junior officer of the guard, Lieutenant Campbell; sergeant of the guard, C. F. Smith. Strict discipline prevails today.
