

Ashville. 14th May 1825.

Sir,

We a part of the Chiefs of the Creek Nation of Indians who signed the late treaty with the United States represent to your Excellency that a few of the Members of ~~the~~ ^{the} Towns have risen in rebellion against us I have killed M^o McIntosh, Hawkins Higgins Choosness & Chilly a few days past - & sentenced to death as we have for the present taken refuge under the Whites in this County & as we are dependant on their mercy for support, we ardently wish you if consistent with your powers & authority & policy to take into consideration our awful situation & bestow upon us such aid as you may deem expedient. we will also state that a white man was killed with M^o McIntosh whose We suppose to be a traveller. This Sir, we do not mention to rouse your just indignation, but believing you will feel for the distressed of your fellow mortals, however destitute of Credentiation & that you'll afford that protection your Office permits -
