

Louisville 1. May 1822

His Excellency Sarah Pickens

At the April Term of the Circuit Court of Morgan County. (Alabama)

Adam Lowry was convicted of Hog stealing for which he was sentenced, and received on his bar back twenty five lashes. At the same Term he was charged with Horse stealing and on his arrangement he plead guilty - and was sentenced to be branded in the hand and to receive thirty nine stripes - He was branded in the presence of the Court, and the balance of the sentence was respected for six weeks -

It was the opinion of Judge Ellis and the Attorney General (as will be shewn to you) that Lowry was and is an object of Executive Clemency -

Lowry is a very poor man, has a wife & seven small children, who are at the present in very depressd Circumstances - He appears very penitent promises Reformation, and that he will go to work for the Relief of his Family - He has lay in Sail from about Christmas last as far as I have had the opinion of the community - it appears about this - that if the punishment already inflicted will not work the desired reformation, then nothing short of death will -

I have the honor to be your Excellency Obedient Humble Servant

W. Gray Sheriff
Morgan County -

P.S. I have taken the liberty of stating to your Excellency, that Judge Kelly, who defended Lowry, wrote to you, in substance nearly the same as stated by Judge Ellis & Major Eastland, but by some means has been lost in my office -

W. Gray

His Excellency Israel Pickens

Greenbony Alabama

Somerville 1 May 1822

His Excellency Israel Pickens

At the April Term of the Circuit Court of Morgan County. (Alabama)
Adam Lowrey was convicted of Hog stealing for which he was sentenced, and received on his bare back twenty five lashes. At the same Term he was charged with Horse stealing and on his arraignment he plead guilty. And was sentenced to be branded in the hand and to receive thirty nine stripes. He was branded in the presence of the court and the ballance of the sentence was respited for six weeks. It was the opinion of Judge Ellis and the attorney General (as will be shewn to you) that Lowrey was and is an object of Executive Clemency. Lowrey is a very poor man, has a wife & seven small children, who are at the present in very deprest circumstances. He appears very penitent promises reformation, and that he will go to work for the releif of his family. He has lay in Jail from about christmas last as far as I have had the opinion of the community, it appears about this. That if the punishment already inflicted will not work the desired reformation, that nothing short of death will.
(page break)

I have the honor to be your Excellency's
Obedient Humble servant
W. Gray Sheriff of}
Morgan County}

P.S. I here take the liberty of stating to your Excellency, that Judge Kelly, who defended Lowrey, wrote to you, in substance nearly the same as stated by Judge Ellis & Major Eastland, but by some means has been lost in my office.

W. Gray