

Capt<sup>l</sup> Berkeley presents his Compliments to Capt<sup>l</sup> Weedon, and Apologues to him, and the under his Command for the dis-appointment occasioned them in the exchange of Swords: which he very much regrets. The Cause was his not getting from Bedou in time, where he had some business of importance.

Capt<sup>l</sup> Berkeley is now taking measures to be

Swords with him which he is now thru'd to exchange today.

I understand that you had intended to have done me the honour of a salute - I should have been under the necessity of declining as much as I could not have returned it. My guns not being to be brought down. The swords only will be brought: which will be taken over the hands of Mr Sadlers, by me on any day after Wednesday. At Capt<sup>n</sup> Berkeley presents his compliments to Capt<sup>n</sup> Weedon, and Appoligise-s to him, and the Troop under his Command for the disappointment toccastioned them in the exchange of swords; the exchange of swords; which he very much regrets. The Cause was his not geting from headquarters in time, where he had gone on business of importance. Capt<sup>n</sup> Berkeley is now taking necessary

Swords with him which he is authorised to exchange to-day.

I understand that you had intended to have done me the honor or
a salute - I should have been
under the necessity of declining in as much as I could not have returned it, my guns not to be brought down. The Swords only will be brought: which will be taken over the River

M<sup>r</sup> Sadless, by me on any day after M

Capt<sup>n</sup> Frederick Weedon

Mathews