

Camp Near Cumberland Gap
Sept-16th 1862

My dear father

The last letter any of us got from home, was one I received from Laura a day or two ago, which I answered day before yesterday & gave to Harris to put in the office at Montgomery as he was going to Debardebons Company. Tomorrow is my turn again for picket duty. Every thing kept very quiet up here now. We can hear nothing of the big fights our armies have had in Va- & Kentucky. In fact we hear nothing more here than we actually hear or see transpire. We may lay here for weeks yet. The Yankees seem to be living well enough in the Gap, and our men seem to have bargained never to trouble them until they attack us. The flag of truce visits us daily still, bringing very often from fifty to one hundred prisoners taken from our side. The flag came over late yesterday evening with something over one hundred of our men to be paroled, I wish we were in Kentucky with Gen - Smith. Col. Hilliard has gone to Richmond. I don't know his business. He was very much dissatisfied with Gen-Stevenson. Have you received our trunks Crenshaw & myself sent ours back by express to Mount Vernon from Knoxville They were directed to you & expenses paid. I think. We have no news. I hate to write so little but cannot help it when we are stuck in the woods where we have not seen a house in three weeks and no man is allowed to leave his regiment without a pass from Gen - Stevenson. We seldom see a paper until it is a month or two old. We are well & getting on fine. Write when an opportunity presents itself. Love to all the children Jerry & Gilbert well Your aff't son

Jas E Hall

Camp Near Cumberland Gap
Sept 16th 1862

My dear father

The last letter any of us got from home, was one I received from Laura a day or two ago, which I answered day-before yesterday & gave to Harris to put in the office at Montgomery as he was going to Debardelebans Company Tomorrow is my turn again for picket duty. Every thing keeps very quiet up here now. We came here nothing of the big fights our armies have had in Va. & Kentucky In fact we learn nothing more here than we actualy hear or see transpire We may lay here for weeks yet. The Yankees seem to be living well enough in the Gap, and our men seem to have bargained never to trouble them until they attack us The flag of truce visits daily still bringing very often from fifty to one hundred prisoners, taken from our sick. The flag came over late yesterday evening with some-thing over one hundred of our men to be

[page 2]

paroled I wish we were in Kentucky with Gen. Smith. Col. Hilliard has gone to Richmond. I dont know his business. He was very much dissatisfied with Gen. Stevenson. Have you received our trunks Crenshaw & myself sent ours back by express & myself sent ours back by express to Montgomery from Knoxville They were directed to you & expenses paid I think. We have no new. I hate to write so little but cannot help it when we are stuck in the woods where we have not seen a house in three weeks and no man is allowed to leave his reg't without a pass from Gen. Stevenson. We seldom see a paper until it is a month or two old. We are well & getting on finely. Write when an opportunity presents itself. Love to all the children. Jerry & Gilbert well

Your aff'c't son

Jno E Hall