

be obeyed, but Sunday morning before John ~~came~~ to give the order, Mr Walters, Vic Atkins & Frank Larson were all in my room were all in my room with flowers fruit & candy & I couldn't help but laugh in my sleeve at him, but he was even with me, for lots & lots of calls come during the day & not one permitted to see me, tho' their flowers were allowed brought in, & I wish you could have seen my room filled with such costly & expensive flowers, carnations & so I inquired if there were any patients there who didn't get any flowers, & sent all around, John let me out Monday eve, & May sent me home in her auto, & when I came down to supper, the people acted as if I was a resurrected Ghost & it was hard to make them believe I was not paralysed, & people from a distance are still telling me oh how glad I am to see you out, & looking so well after such a severe spell, Well I think that is quite a 4 sufficiency about my lovely self, so will tell you at few nice items I know & quit. - Lis Em's school closed on the 2nd inst & she has been in Mobile ever since, & writes that she will be home next Tuesday or Wednesday.

I haven't seen any of your people except Luila since you left. Mrs Julian Smith & Mrs Geason, both at Kings very ill, the latter dangerously so, with dysentery. - Mrs Rennie is doing well after an operation for gall stones eight were taken out as large as the end of your thumb. You remember Miss Henrietta Cassin, of course, well we hear that her husband has deserted her, but have heard no particulars. - I had another letter from Shep the other day but he has never yet told me where to send a letter to him. I put on my some old duds, & went to a big reception given by Mrs Converse in honor of Mr C. Cousin's from Ill. who are here on a visit. - & I was highly

Page 3 ---First two pages are not here)

be obeyed., but Sunday morning before John come to give the order, Mr. Walters, Vic Atkins and Frank Lamor were all in my room were all in my room with flowers fruit & candy & I couldn't held but laugh in my sleeve at him, but he was even with me for lots & lots of callers come during the day & not one permitted to see me, tho their flowers were allowed brought in & I wish you would have seen my room, filled with such lovely & expensive flowers, carnations &c so I inquired if there were any patients there who didn't get many flowers, & sent all around. John let me out Monday eve, & Mag. sent me home in her Auto, & when I came down to supper, the people acted as if I was a reserrected Gohst & it was hard to made them believe I was not paralysised, & people from a distance are still telling me oh! how glad I am to see you out, & looking so well after such a severe spell. Well I think that is quite a sufficiency about my lovely self, so will tell what a few news items I know & quit.--Sis Em's school closed on the 2nd inst & she has been in Mobile ever since, & writes that shw will be home next Tuesday or Wednesday I haven't seen amy of your people except Lula since you left.--Mrs Julius Smith & Mrs. Grayson, both at Kings very ill, the latter dangerously so, with dysentery. Mrs Rennie is doing well after an operation for gaul stones eight were taken out as large as the end of your thumb. You remember Miss Henrietta Cassin, of course, well we hear that her husband has deserted her, but have heard no particulars. I had another letter from shep the other day but he has never yet told me where to send a letter to him. I put on my same old duds, & went to a big reception given by Mrs Coswessi in honor of Mr. Co cousin's from ill. who are here on a visit. I was highly

(Address)

Mrs. A. M. G. Fry, RFD. Orrville, Ala.

(Original in possession of The State Department of Archives and History.)