Governer B.M. Miller
Montgomery, Alabama

Your honor, Sir:

As a burden-bearer of my God and fellow man, I take this chance to ask you, Oh! White Supremacy, how much blood have we to "pay" in their name?

We have tilled the soil, build the roads, cooked for and nursed you from generation to generation, now mine decendents of such unappreciated laborers are facing an electric mob. June 10th just because some good-for-nothing white woman said they were raped. Such lies have carried a many poor negro to death, but the white man in this, my Country America must and shall pay the price. Why cannot you see that the word of God and the laws of Nature Never Change?

If these innocent lads are murded, and you do not do what you can to prevent it, you are the murderer.

Instead of telling people what you think of your "old Black mammy", Show Black mammy's children, that you would protect them even as much as you would would your "Pet Dog."

The eyes of heaven and hell are upon you. I remember that these same eyes were upon

Louis XIV of France.

Be careful; for when you sign papers to electricute those Negro boys, you might be signing papers to electricute some of your own kinds folks.

If you have read this, Sir, thank you. If not, I thank you just the same.
