Returned.
Our business partner, Mr. Warren, returned on the last trip of the steamer "Emma," No. 2, from a visit to Mobile and New Orleans. He gives us a glowing account of the magnificent Mardi Gras festivities in New Orleans, and speaks in the most complimentary terms of Capt. Commerson, the Commodore, and Capt.
Dorsey, the Engineer. Their civilities, politeness and attention to their passengers, are unfeigned. Bad Barrels and Willie Patins, the Pilots, are models in their line, being sober, skillful, attentive and reliable. Passengers may feel safe, while these excellent Pilots are at the helm.
The "Emma" is a No. 1. boat to travel on and is a number "42" only in name.

Commissioner's Court.
This body was in session on last Monday. No business of special importance or importance, was transacted.

Mr. John G. Saxe, the great American humorist and poet, is now in the South, on a lecturing tour. It is supposed that he will be in Tuscaloosa on the evening of the 2nd Tuesday and 4th Saturday of each month.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

March came in mild as a lamb.
The weather variable. River in fine boating order. A few cases of cholera in town. Social circles lively. Colton market firm, and prices upward in tendency. Gen. Johnston, having conferred from a brief attack of chills, is on another Grange tour.
Negro, Hampton Wade, to be hung next Friday week, "13th" inst. All quiet at the University. Many of our citizens attended the Mardi Gras festivities in Mobile and New Orleans.
They bring glowing accounts of them.
Candidates slowly on the increase; those hopeful of success, announce themselves in the Times. Railroad cars running on schedule time. Town quiet. A liberal advertiser in the Times assures us, that his business has sensibly increased in consequence. Business circles lively yesterday and to-day. A poet styles dancing a "tripping of the light fantastic toe," and now, blonde hair is styled, the light fantastic toe? A boisterous and noisy demonstration on the streets last Saturday night, whence it came, what it meant, and who got it up and engineered it, we know not. We hope to hear of no similar demonstration again. Good Templars flourishing. The nights when the skies are clear, surpassingly beautiful. Many people in town during the week. Lawyers busy preparing for Spring Courts.

More New Type.
During his late visit to New Orleans, Mr. Warren brought a handsome lot of New Type for the job office of the Times, which is now equipped and prepared to do all kinds of job work in superior style and at very low prices. We suppose that it must have been the excitement in the matrimonial circles of the city, which was at its height when Mr. Warren left, that directed his attention specially to the selection of type suitable for printing Wedding Cards in the most appropriate and fashionable style. Be that as it may, he has provided the office with a supply of type, fitted for that kind of work, that makes it unnecessary for persons on matrimonial purposes intent, to send elsewhere to have their wedding tickets printed. They can now be executed at the Times Office, as cheaply and as handsomely as they can be in New York, or any where else. Give the office a trial and we guarantee satisfaction.

The NEW SAFETY LAMP
the safest and best lamp in use for sale by
E. S. SNOW & CO.

It may interest some of our readers to know, that Palm Sunday occurs on the 29th inst. Good Friday on April 3d, and Easter on Sunday, April 5th.

An observing gentleman, from another county and town, who was on a visit to our city last week, remarked, in our hearing, that he saw more signs of business life, and more evidence of improvement here, than in any other town of West Alabama, that he had visited.

James H. Robinson has been appointed Post Master at Romulus, and Henry O. Hine, at Keweenaw.
Both gentlemen have qualified and entered on the discharge of their duties. Both appointments are considered excellent.

The early fruit trees are in bloom, the buds are swelling in the groves, and the song birds are returning. Spring, the bright apparition, is descending upon the earth. The winter is over, and the fragrant breath of the Spring will soon be upon the air.

We are pleased to learn that there is a growing disposition and purpose among the white men of the County to unite in the bringing out and support of a single County ticket.
That is the only way in which success can be achieved.

Our dealers have formed a "corner" in Montgomery, in the liquor line. The corner is against dramshops is about to commence in that city, and the raiders have already served notice upon liquor dealers.
In due time the moral epidemic will reach Tuscaloosa.

We noticed that there were a great number of wagons from the country, in town on last Monday.
Trade, we presume, was somewhat brisk on that day.

Knock Down Argument!
What's that you say, Doctor, that a good fire and well-cooked food is the chief of a man's life? Yes, remarks a staid and gray-headed man, who has been here for many a day, to buy J. D. BROWN'S Red Ash Coal!
