To County Grangers.

We have printed, for gratuitous distribution, a large edition in the handbill form, of the Constitution of the Tuscaloosa County of Grangers. Copies can be had, single, or in packages for local distribution, by calling at the Times office.

We will not be undersold, for CASH. Try us, if you don't believe it. D. M. SCOTT, & CO.

Tuscaloosa Female College.

We are pleased to learn that this excellent Institution is, despite the pressure of the times, in quite a flourishing condition. All things considered, the number of pupils in attendance is large. It deserves its attendance, as it is a first-class Female College, furnishing admirable facilities for instruction in all branches of female education.

Gents new style Hats, and elegant style Paper Collars, for sale by E. SNOW & CO.

North Port.

Our flourishing and enterprising neighbor, over the river, holds its head up and braves the hardships of the times with resolute spirit. It carries on a large and lucrative trade with the rural districts contiguous to it and draws a handsome patronage from more distant localities. The robust rivalry which it maintains with our own city contains no elements of bitterness and the most friendly relations exist between the citizens of both places.

E. SNOW & CO., will sell you the best Shoes—the most Fashionable Dress Goods—the cheapest Domestic—the most fragrant Cigars—and the latest and the best Articles, to be found in Tuscaloosa.

We learn, with regret, that Mrs. Mattie Cooper, of Selma, daughter of Dr. Jefferson Hamilton, of Mobile, died in the latter city, a few days ago. She was excellent and lovely woman, and we condole with our venerable friend and former pastor, and his wife in their heavy affliction.

British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood.

The Leonard Scott Publishing Company, of New York, present to the reading public of this country, a treasury of thought, criticism and research, in their republication of the British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine. These publications stand deservedly at the head of the periodical literature of the day. They should be in the hands of every scholar and of all the lovers of choice miscellany. The Publishers deserve the thanks of all intelligent readers for furnishing these valuable Reviews at rates so cheap that they are put within the reach of nearly every reader of taste in the country. Their enterprise should be rewarded by a liberal patronage. See advertisement in another column, for terms.

"Pro Bono Publico."

The decrease in the price of goods, in the Northern and Eastern markets, forces us to reduce the prices on all our goods, and we now say to those who have the CASH, that they can buy Clothing, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Shirts and Underwear, and every thing in our line, cheaper than ever before. Now, gentlemen, if you have the "Where withal," just walk into our store, and we will convince you that what we say is not "idle words," but will assure you, by axioms, that we will do what we say. That we need money, we do not deny, and every honest man who desires to pay his debts, will sacrifice his property to meet the demands of his creditors, must what he proposes to do. Come, and look for yourselves, and you will be satisfied. "A word to the wise is sufficient." Nov. 26. D. M. SCOTT, & CO.

We find the following paragraph in the Nashville Union and American, of the 21st inst:

Bull Dogs Applied.
Rival beaux in Tuscaloosa, Ala., are informed, have a curious way. One young man owns a large bull dog, which he takes along when going on a favorite belle, and leaves at the front door upon going in. Other suitors receive from this faithful defender timely warning, that "this is Jim's night," and Jim proceeds to the scheme a success.

"A Tuscaloosa beau, at his elbow, suggests that perhaps the party who gave him this to the editor, was a beau from Nashville, hunting for a dear in Tuscaloosa and failed to capture his game, but was himself made game by the dogs of the city."

Knock Down Argument!

What's that you say, Doctor, that a good fire and well-cooked food is the life of a man? Yes, remarks a bystander, and my wife says that to have both, is to buy L. D. BROWN'S Red Ash Coal!

R. & S. Palmer & Co.

We inadvertently failed, in our notice of this firm, last week, to state the fact, that they were selected by the Council of the Tuscaloosa County Grangers, as one of the two Grange houses, for this county. We make the correction of our own motion and because we deem it due to this enterprising and excellent firm that it should be known, that they have received, as they deserve, this mark of confidence at the hands of the Grangers. We again commend the liberal advertisement of the firm, to the notice of our readers, as it exhibits a schedule of prices that should prove attractive to buyers. Give them a call.

Interesting Document.

We publish in the Grange Department of our paper, this week, an authoritative exposition of the Aims and Purposes of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, together with a copious synopsis of a memorial to the Patrons of Husbandry in the Cotton States, put forth by the National Grange, at its late meeting in St. Louis. These documents are of interest to the general public, and of special importance to Grangers, and for that reason we publish them entire, to the exclusion of the usual miscellany presented in our Grange Department. We commend these valuable productions to the careful consideration of our readers, as they furnish information and advice from the highest and most authoritative body in the Order, in regard to its aims and purposes, and the policy best adapted to the cotton States.

Col. M. A. King.

The following resolutions, adopted by the bar of Tuscaloosa, contain a merited tribute to the character and worth of the late lamented Col. M. A. King. We publish them with mournful pleasure:
Resolved, That we tender to the family of our departed Brother, our sincere sympathy and condolence in the sad bereavement which has deprived them of the kind-hearted, affectionate husband and father, and of a true and honorable member of our Bar.

Resolved, 3rd. That we request the Court, in session, to enter these Resolutions on the minutes; and to direct the clerk to forward a copy of them to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, 4th. That the papers of the city, and vicinity publish these resolutions, after which the court adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Judiciary Committee in the Senate made an adverse report on the memorial for an acknowledgment of Almighty God and the Christian Religion, in the Constitution of the United States. The bill passed the House, but the Senate has refused to pass it. The bill passed the House, but the Senate has refused to pass it. The bill passed the House, but the Senate has refused to pass it.

Gen. George D. Johnston.

This gentleman is winning high laurels, and doing a great public service in his new field of labor. We clip the following from the Marion Commonwealth:
The Commonwealth says: "This gentleman spent Saturday night and Sunday with his Marion friends. He is enjoying good health."
Gen. Johnston is the State Deputy for Alabama, Patron of Husbandry, and is doing a noble and generous work for the Order in the State. He organized Granges at the following places in Perry county, last week: Radfordville, Oak Grove, and at Providence Church, in the Craig settlement, about 10 miles southwest of Marion, and at Zion Church near Sid Blackburn's northwest of Marion.

Christ Church Parish School.

We are pleased to learn, that the Boy's Department of this fine Institution, under the charge of the Rev. Dr. Hamilton, is steadily growing in the public, the Principal proving himself a most faithful and successful teacher, of more than twenty years experience.

The Girl's Department has been placed under the charge of Miss Virginia Jenison, who brings considerable experience as a teacher, and much determination and energy of character to the work. The Vestry of the Parish, at their late meeting, decided to make this Department free of all charge, for tuition. This we understand, is an experiment for the present Term, and its continuance, as a Free School, must depend upon the disposition which is manifested in the Parish to sustain it as such.

Thrifty Planters.

T. Maxwell & Son, advertise 6,000 bushels of Corn, of their own raising, for sale. Here is an example worthy of imitation, by all our planters. Besides cotton, in due proportion, these enterprising gentlemen raise diversified crops for sale. They have already sold 1700 bushels of rust proof oats, and now put a splendid lot of corn upon the market for sale. If other planters, to the extent of their ability, would go and do likewise, we should have a land of fat plump corn, and more corn, wheat, peas, oats, etc., should be the motto of all our planters, both large and small.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Rain and sleet on Monday night. Weather meteorological cross between Spring and Winter. River full and rising. Gen. Johnston returned, in good health, after an extended Grange tour through several counties of Central and West Alabama. Good Tomatoes flourishing. Grangers more and more abundant. The "Tally" at our warf on yesterday. The Methodist Sabbath School flourishing, under the Superintendency of Prof. Meek. All the local preachers at their post, except Mr. Williams, who is still absent on a visit to South Carolina. Christ Church Parish Schools flourishing. Gardens commencing to bloom. All quiet at the University. Cotton market active, and prices buoyant. Hampton Wade, a colored man, to be hung on 13th March. Prof. Laurence successfully stemming the tide of financial depression, and building up a flourishing school, George Seay and lady, returned from their bridal trip to New Orleans. Trade between town and country active.

MARRIED.

BAREFIELD—EDDINS—At the residence of the bride's mother, near this city, by Rev. J. H. Foster, Dr. H. Barefield, of Mississippi, and Miss Lollie Eddins, of this city.
