NOTICE.

Calls upon Persons to become Candidates for Office.

We adopted a rule, three years ago, that we would require payment, of twenty cents per page, for all communications calling upon persons to become candidates, or communications commendatory of candidates. This rule has not been changed, and will be adhered to. All interested will please take notice.

In all legitimate demands of the Democratic party, or of the great interests of the general public, upon our columns, the Advertiser will not fail of its duty; but where mere individual schemes or interests are to be promoted, it will be done as advertising, and at the rates stated above.

Letter from Hale.

GREENSBORO, Ala., May 30th, 1874.

Advertiser. Nearly two columns of to-day's Beacon are filled with a reply to an article in the Advertiser over the signature of "A Democrat." Why all this tempest in a teapot? Is it the truth that hurts? I find, as I thought, a blank cartridge of freedom in the mind of the editor of the Beacon--a veteran in political warfare--was the only one hurt by the squib. Judging from its effect, however, there may have been a bit of lead left in the charge by accident. I have looked over the Beacon's article to see if it contained anything requiring an answer, but found nothing. I will not, therefore, attempt to bore you nor your readers with a discussion of its contents. The brilliant young Earl Rochester once wrote a piece on nothing and failed. Warned by his example, I permit myself to repeat the experience of the Advertiser. I have looked over the Beacon's article, and find it a body should exclaim, in the language of the ancient cynic, who, while listening to two idle disputants, cried out, "One of these fellows is talking a bull and the other holding the pail!" "What the editor of the Beacon and the editor of the Advertiser do for the merits or demerits of each other is a matter of no consequence to the public. Their opinions on this or any other subject, so far as I know, have no present market value, either at above or below par. There are those, no doubt, who share this both, to use a slang phrase, very small potatoes; very few in a hill, very far apart and not worth the digging.

"Oh, wad some power the gifle gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."

A DEMOCRAT.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported by the Associated Press for the Montgomery Daily Advertiser.

LONDON, June 2.

A motion to reduce the salary of the British Minister at Washington was rejected by the Commons. The debate on the motion was unusually interesting. It arose from the fact that the approval of the House was required to increase the salary proposed by the Government. Sir H. Wolff moved that the amount, the Government recommended be reduced $5,000. He said he opposed the increase because Sir Edward Thornton's residence at Washington had been signalized by a series of diplomatic disasters, and because Americans would regard such increase as a mark of confidence by the present Government of the approbation which the late Government lavished upon the negotiations of the Washington Treaty.

Burke, Under Secretary of Foreign Departments of State, said no blame could attach to Sir Edward Thornton, for the conduct or result of the negotiations with the United States, and he noted that reasons for adding to salary were simply because the expenses of living in Washington had increased. The Times contradicts the reports of the complete withdrawal of the Cunard steamers from Boston, because of the scarcity of freight and states that the only change to be made is that some of the steamers will go to Boston will return by way to New York.

NEW YORK, June 2.
The Captain and five men of the ship Porteus, from Italy for New York which was abandoned sinking was picked up yesterday and landed at Staten Island; she had been out 19 days and three hours without food or water. Two other boats commanded by first and second mates are still missing.

The following officers to-day were elected at Cotton Exchange: President Henry Hastings; Vice President, G. F. Newman; Treasurer, W. L. Miller.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.
At the session of the reformed Presbyterian Synod yesterday, report of the Committee recommending the use of unforgotten wine in the celebration of the Lords' supper by congregations, was laid on the table for the present. Committee on order, known as Grangers, present a report condemning this and all other secret orders, and recommending that the Synod enjoin it upon all seasons not to fellowship members of this or any other secret order. Report was unanimous adopted.

St. Louis, June 2.

Second annual convention of International Typographical Union commenced a session yesterday. Nearly one hundred delegates were present from all parts of the country. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. H. Bodwel, of New York; 1st Vice-President, Henry White, of Memphis; 2d Vice-President, W. T. Redfield, of Washington; Secretary and Treasurer, W. A. Hutchinson, of Chicago; Corresponding Secretary, W. S. Pride, of Wilmington.

ENDOWMENT SCHEME!

FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

IN AID OF THE

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY!

JULY 31, 1874.

In announcing the fifth and last of the series of Public Library Concerts given for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, the Trustees and Managers refer with pleasure to the four which have been already given, the first December 16, 1871, the second December 1872, the third July 8, 1873, and the fourth March 31, 1874.

Under their charter, granted by a special act of the Kentucky Legislature, March 16, 1871, the Trustees are authorized to give ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY (150) CONCERTS, and the four which have been already given, the first December 16, 1871, the second December 1872, the third July 8, 1873, and the fourth March 31, 1874.

With the money arising from this Fifth and LAST Concert, the Library, Museum and other departments are to be enlarged and endowed with a fixed and annual income. Such an endowment fund is desired as will secure, beyond peradventure, not only the maintenance of this magnificent establishment, but its constant growth.

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT

For the purposes mentioned, and which is positively and unequivocally announced as being the last of the series of Public Library Concerts, will be given on FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1874, at 7 o'clock, P. M., in the Public Library Hall, at Louisville, Kentucky.

Friday, July 31, 1874.

At this final Concert everything will be upon a more exalted plane than in any of the previous ones. The music will be rendered by an orchestra consisting of one hundred performers, selected for their fame in different lands, and the unprecedented sum of divided into twenty thousand gifts, will be distributed among the ticket-holders.

$2,500,000 00

It positively Produces a Permanent Cure.

It is strange, yet true, that as a rule it is the brightest intellects, the best members of society, that become addicted to this diseased appetite; a habit which makes them slaves, bedevils their minds, ruins their dispositions, and gives them, in their natural romance, a hatred of self as well as a feeling that every body despises them to such an extent that society has no charms. But thanks to the Giver of all good, the morbid, terrible habit and degraded condition, as well as all of the desire and feeling for opiates in any form, is cast removed by this remarkable Antidote, entirely so; and the weakened body and mind are invigorated, given renewed health, until love and hope take the place of despondency and doubt. Though you may not be afflicted with the habit of using Morphine, Laudanum, or other forms of Opium, you may find it in you, and you know it not; therefore let me urge you, in the name of suffering humanity, to send for this Antidote, and you may save the reward of those who go to the bottom of the sea.

Montgomery is extremely healthy for this season of the year, and the doctors have much less to do than usual.

Since that secret meeting of white bonds amount to $2,500,000, and are endorsed by the State. No bids will be allowed for a less sum than the amount of the bonds and the accrued loss to the State on account of this as rare among other periodicals, as a June day is rare in the year. As heretofore, nothing yet published surpasses in beauty these pictures, which are excellent as works of art, and characteristic of the country they depict.

Other pictures in this number are:

"Almost a Dinner," after Guido von Maffei; a beautiful out of a red deer, called "A Hard Run," "A Turkish Court Yard Scene," "Such a Shot!"

by John S. Davis, a picture of real life, showing how, when boys, we went hunting, and met difficulties in the path; and a life-like portrait of John Lester Wallace, the great actor, and the last of his name now on the general interest could hardly have been selected.

The town of Helena, on the S. & N.

what is known as the Cahaba Coal Field. Most of the veins of coal in this field are of the best quality for steam purposes, and in some of them the coal is of the best kind required for making coke. Taking advantage of these facts, the Eureka Company have taken charge of the old Red Mountain Coal works, and are rapidly pushing to completion the works commenced last fall, about half a mile off the line of the S. & N. Road, and to which works a branch road extends. One engine has already been put up, and if the coke is of the quality required for making iron, more will be used. The L. & G. S. R. Company are also opening mines in the same field, about three miles south of the line of the S. & N. road, and propose extending the branch road to their works. The amount of coal they will use from these mines will amount to one hundred tons per day. With the invited.

Unless something happens to prevent it, almost two thirds of the negroes of this county, will become crazy for want of sleep in the next sixty days. The white Radical office seekers do not allow the poor creatures any rest day or night. And right here the pertinent query is suggested why do our blacks allow fifty or one hundred white men, all of whom are after offices, to gobble all the fat things and leave them the bones to pick?

Hales Ellsworth, in a published card, says he was invited to attend the select Radical caucus of last Thursday evening. He also says "members of his company" were invited. Will Hales enlighten the people by letting them know what sort of a company he refers to? Does he have command of a secret black military company? If so, it is time the public were informed of that fact. Have we secret black military organizations in our midst?

Surely, the white men who belong to the Radical rabble will not advocate such a policy as organizing the ignorant black voter in secret military arrangements against the whites. Such a policy, in the end, will result most disastrously to the aiders and abettors of such schemes.

From a gentleman who on yesterday attended the examination of the pupils of the public white schools, now going on in this city, we learn that the children exhibited a proficiency in their studies alike creditable to their teachers and themselves. The teaching is thorough and discipline fine.

Everything is conducted by the ringing of the bell. No pupil in the school is allowed to speak except by permission of the teacher.

The examination continues to-day and to-morrow. It is the duty of our citizens to attend these examinations, and encourage pupils and teachers.

We have it in our power now to have good, first-class schools. The best citizens of this city are now sending their children, and they should show interest sufficient in them to visit their schools, at least at public examinations. We hope a large audience will be present to-day and to-morrow to witness these interesting exercises.

Vocal music is an interesting feature in this school, and it is astonishing how well the little children sing.

THE SELMA SCHUTZENFEST.

Montgomery Represented.

Special to the Advertiser.

SELMA, Ala., June 2.

At 6:10 o'clock this morning the German Shooting Club of Montgomery, left the foot of Commerce street for the Central City. The excellent Superintendent of the Western Railroad, Col.

Chas. P. Ball, had provided, for the accommodation of the club, a special car and one of his best engines, which latter was under the control of that skillful engineer, Pete Montgomery. For the "Schutzen Verein" was the word and all went merrily as two marriage bells. In 45 minutes from the adieux at Commerce street, greetings were exchanged with White Hall—well known to all the younger citizens of Montgomery for the beauty of its location, the splendor of its moss clad groves, the purity of its gurgling waters and the pleasant recollections of flirtations indulged beneath the dense shades when there was no one near to tell. White Hall is the half way house, where the Fates change post-horses, and as it is a place which no one likes to pass without a call, Mr. James Landerdale, of Selma, who as agent of the road had been commissioned to take charge of our "special" kindly yielded to the importunities of the elders of the club and ordered a halt for "rest and refreshment." Of course it was a mere momentary

GRANGERS' COLUMN.

GRANGE CONVENTION.

The Transportation Question.

Proceedings of Convention of Patrons of Husbandry held at Demopolis on Wednesday, 27th of May, 1874.

Councils represented: Marengo, Sumter, Greene, Hale, etc.

The Convention was organized by the election of J. L. Maupin, of Marengo as President, and R. W. Withers, of Hale as Secretary.

Upon motion the following resolution was adopted: Sec. 1. Be it resolved by this Convention, That the Councils of the order of Patrons of Husbandry in the several counties of Tuscaloosa, Pickens, Greene, Hale, Sumter, Marengo, Clarke, Choctaw and Washington be requested to call upon the subordinate Granges within their respective jurisdictions for answers to the following questions, viz:

1st. How much money and what number of bales of cotton will the members of each subordinate Grange subscribe to such boats, for the term of two years from 1st October, 1874, to the exclusion of all other boats, at the rates of freight and passage specified in the forms to be furnished by the Secretary of this Convention; the parties making such subscription to receive repayment therefor in freight and passage at said rates?

2d. How many members of each of said subordinate Granges will contract in writing to give all their patronage, upon said river, to such boats as a general convention of the order in said counties may contract with, at the rates of freight and passage set forth in the form to be furnished by the Secretary of this Convention; the parties making such subscription to receive repayment therefor in freight and passage at said rates?

3d. How many members of each of said subordinate Granges will contract in writing to give all their patronage, upon said river, to such boats as a general convention of the order in said counties may contract with, at the rates of freight and passage set forth in the form to be furnished by the Secretary of this Convention; the parties making such subscription to receive repayment therefor in freight and passage at said rates?

Section 2. Be it further resolved, That the matters involved in the foregoing questions be referred to the subordinate Granges, this convention deems it inexpedient to have a full attendance of delegates at the adjourned meeting of this convention on the 6th of August next.

The following resolutions were then offered and adopted: Sec. 1. Be it further resolved, That the County Councils of Patrons of Husbandry in the several counties of Sumter, Marengo, Hale, Perry and Dallas, be requested to ascertain of their respective subordinate Granges how many members of each Grange and how many persons not members of the order in the vicinity of each Grange, will contract in writing to ship their cotton and other freight exclusively by the Alabama Central Railroad for the term of one year from the first day of September, 1874, provided a fair tariff of freight can be arranged between such railroad company and a general convention of the order of said counties.

2d. Be it further resolved; That the County Councils of Patrons of Husbandry in the several counties of Sumter, Marengo, Hale, Greene and Dallas, be requested to ascertain how many members of each of the subordinate Granges in their respective jurisdictions and how many persons not members of the order in the vicinity of each Grange, will contract in writing to ship their freight exclusively by the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad upon the conditions embodied in the first section of this resolution.

3d. Be it further resolved; That the said County Councils be requested to obtain from subordinate Granges an estimate of the number of bales of cotton which each person signing such contract will probably have for shipment during the year 1874.

4th. Be it further resolved; That the County Councils of Patrons of Husbandry of Perry and Dallas counties are respectfully invited to send delegates to the adjourned meeting of this Convention to be held at Demopolis on the 6th of August, 1874.
