SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 5.
The afternoon session of the Anti-Secret Society Convention was turned into a political meeting. About two hundred delegates are present. President Blanchard, of Wheaton College, submitted a preamble and resolutions for the formation of a national political party opposed to secret societies. After a long debate and some amendments, the report was adopted. The name of the party is to be "The Americans," and a platform of principles is to be framed by a committee of one from each State. A National Convention is to be called and nominate a Presidential candidate. The debate was very warm on the proposition to embody the name of God in the Constitution as a plank in the platform, which was finally adopted. Pittsburgh, Pa., was selected as the place of holding the next annual Convention.

IRVING, N. Y., June 5.
The flouring mill of Wm. & Henry Halsey here was destroyed by an incendiary fire, between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning. Loss $40,000.

The Birmingham Age says that the wheat yield in Jefferson has been very good, and that it will encourage farmers to sow a great deal more this fall.

Farmers of this County are now cutting wheat. They appear to be moderately pleased with the result, but say that the rust interfered with the crop. The same may be said of oats.

The receipts of cotton for the present season at the warehouses in Troy was 9,890 bales. In addition to this, 700 bales were shipped direct, without going to a warehouse.

Mr. Flourney, Sheriff of Barbour county carried up to the Penitentiary on Thursday, seven delegates, who are to serve for periods ranging from 2 to 10 years. Two negroes were also sentenced to be hung at the recent term of Barbour Circuit Court.

IN SYMPATHY WITH HIS COURSE.—Col. John M. Fleming, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Tennessee, has received letters from Dr. Sears, agent of the Peabody fund, indorsing the course pursued by him.

The Opelika Observer says: "The crops in this vicinity, on account of the drought, are unusually backward, but with propitious season from now out, and an abundant supply of elbow grease, there will be plenty of corn made. The wheat has generally been harvested, and the turn-out very good, considering the damage from rust."

There will be a grand auction at the Hobey Ladies Fair this evening. The rooms (excepting the gallery of fine arts) will be thrown open to all comers—free of charge. The Young auctioneer, whose fame is co-existent with the State, will officiate. This is the last chance that our citizens will have to behold one of the handsomest and most tasteful affairs ever gotten up in Montgomery.

An insurance company which has insured a lot of cotton in the "Black-ford," which caught fire and burned in consequence of striking the pier of the South and North Alabama Railroad Company's bridge, brought suit against the railroad company, claiming $25,000 damages. The venue was changed to Butler county, where the trial is now going on. Hon. W. G. Jones, Col. Judge and others represent the plaintiff, and Judge Rice, Gov. Watts and Maj. Semple the defendant.

The New York Mail says that a very singular style of walking prevails to a great extent among the ladies of New York who are pleased to call themselves fashionables. Arms akimbo, heads tossed on one side, and eyes turned heavenward, they saunter down the street—an embodiment of impudence and sang froid painful to see among ladies. "The girl of the period," it says, is unquestionably bold in looks, if not in manners, and calls for another series of Saturday Review articles on this delicate subject.

The young men's Cleverland Literary Society, lately formed in our city, is now fully organized. The following young gentlemen are the officers: M. C. Davis, President; John P. Arnold, S. Davis, W. P. Reese, Vice Presidents; G. M. Weather, Secretary; T. J. Clark, Treasurer, and C. W. Ferguson, Librarian.

The rooms are over White's Book Store on Market Street, their library contains over three hundred volumes, which have been contributed by our citizens. The first debate will take place on Tuesday evening next. Subject—"Was the death of Julius Caesar beneficial to Rome?"

The reception at the Arlington last evening was one of the most brilliant of the season, and many were the regrets expressed on all sides when J. Win. Moses, Esq., President of the Association, announced from the stand that it would be the last until the close of the summer months. The lecture of Col. J. W. A. Sanford on "The Character of Mirabeau" was an admirable production. It was clear, comprehensive, analytical, abounding in preceptive, analytical, philosophical illustrations, inclusive, and not-withstanding the high temperature of the rooms, was listened to with the profoundest attention throughout.

Several gentlemen, including some of the ablest and most eloquent in the State, have signified their willingness to lecture before the Association next fall and winter. The next lecture season will probably begin about the first of October.

Squire J. B. Nettles required a peace bond of $500 from John D. Belser, and not $1000 as heretofore published.

Capt. B. H. Screws and lady, who accompanied the Alabama Editors to Washington, reached the city yesterday morning—Capt. S. says that Grant is well.

Col. Tom Offutt desires us to say that he has Victor Hugo's new novel "93," and all the late periodicals, magazines, etc., for sale at his news stand under the Exchange.

In order to do away with a wrong impression which we learn exists in one of our neighboring towns we take pleasure in stating that the members of the Pastime base ball club, are Montgomarians.

The Radical brethren are making things lively. They abuse one another without mercy, and drawing of pistols on each other is getting to be quite a common thing. So mote it be. "Fling out the broad white banners of peace and reconciliation."

The rain fall for May of 1873 was about five times what it was for the past month. The fall of rain in June, 1873, was also very heavy, and if this month is as dry as the last the corn and cotton crop will be vastly improved.

Yesterday a negro woman applied to a Justice of the Peace for a warrant against two other negro women, charging them with having conjured her. She stated that they took some snake bones, and love powders and tore up the bricks in front of the gate and put them under the bricks. She got the bones and powders and burnt them up, and proceeded to town to have the law enforced against the conjurers. The learned Justice reserves his decision. This barbarism bears its own comment.

Within the past two weeks two burglaries have occurred in adjoining houses on Martha street, in the western part of the city. The first was at the residence of Mr. Oland, the thieves breaking into the kitchen and stealing a goodly supply of groceries. The other occurred Thursday night, at the residence of Mr. Henry Ellis. The room of Mr. Wilkins was entered through a window, his pants taken out of the house and, after the abstraction of over $100 from the pocket, thrown into an adjoining yard. The police should be on the lookout for these gentry, who are uncomfortably plentiful in this city. Somebody will get hurt if it is not stopped.
