—AND—

COURT SQUARE.

Tom Collins left the city this morning for Mobile.

Superintendent Speed is absent, as are also the Governor and State Treasurer.

The steamer Peerless, Capt. Andy

Black master, arrived from and departed for Mobile yesterday. She brought a very respectable amount of freight from Mobile, and the officers report that the corn planted on the land overgrown by the late freshet is up and doing well.

The Temperance Picnic at Whitehall on the W. R. R., on Friday next will be the first held at that place by any regular association of the city.

The price of tickets is fixed at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Now that the schools are being closed and the heated term is setting in, parents should give their little ones a day's quiet enjoyment at this delighful resort.

The business of the Second Division was taken up in the Supreme Court yesterday. The following legal gentlemen were in attendance, viz:

E. W. Pettus, John T. Morgan, John

Harrelson, Wm. M. Brooks, John

White, Hugh L. Harrelson, S. W.

John, J. C. Reid and Jas. W. Lapsley, of Selma; Thos. H. Watts, Walter L.

Bragg, W. A. Gunter and John Cindram, of this city.

A joint meeting of the Water Works

Committee, of the Industrial Aid Association, of the City Council, and of the Fire Department, is called to meet at the Exchange Hotel at 5 o'clock this evening. The various chairmen are Messrs. Lanier, Ferguson, A. M.

Kennedy and Mr. Flannery. These gentlemen are earnestly requested to summon their respective committees at the hour and place mentioned, as the preparations for the forthcoming water works celebration will then and there be made. This meeting is important, and should be well attended.

A friend who witnessed the scene sent us the following:

SCENE—"Post Office." DRAMATIS

PERSONAE.—Sam Hereford (Troop)

Pitpatrick (Rad.), and holder of various offices of profit, donated by said Sam and friends.

SAM (Loggiter).—"Good morning

Mr. P. please give me ten cents."

PITZ.—"What, you beggar, why don't you work, you are an able bodded man?"

SAM.—"You didn't call me a beggar when you wanted my vote for the many offices I have helped you to get.

You would be begging too, but for my votes."

Exit Pitz—laugh against him indulged in by Sam and his many fellow "Troops" standing near.

The following is the programme of the commencement exercises of the ferencing Degrees; 4 p. m., annual meeting of Alumni; 8 p. m., levee.

The most interesting place in the Capital at Washington is the Congressional Library. The spaces for the books are gilded, gaudily arranged, and rise in three tiers from the floor, affording room for vast quantities of volumes. Giving an average of an inch in thickness, the shelves here ought to afford a sitting place for hundreds of thousands of volumes. It may be a consoling thought for the authors of many volumes which are now on these shelves, that if this is obliterated, it is, at least, a brilliant one.

We noticed, as we passed through the Library, quite a number of antique looking persons, with glasses, more or less busily engaged in copying extracts from the more rare and bulky volumes. A placard was posted in the north end, reading thus: "This room is devoted to readers, and visitors are requested to be silent."

We know nothing of the value of this great collection of science and literature, but we take it for granted that, besides the catalogue of ordinary books, there are vast numbers of such works as are considered rare and valuable.

No YELLOW FEVER IN PENSACOLA.

As we suspected was the case, the talk of yellow fever at Pensacola proves to be false. The Express, of the 6th inst., says that five vessels are at the quarantine station, and that there is but one case of sickness in the lot, and that one is convalescing. The Express makes its statement upon the authority of the President of the Board of Health. One Edward Dunn, a quarantine surgeon, violated one of the quarantine ordinances, and was unanimously expelled from the Board and fined $50. The citizens will not allow their city endangered by the avarice, or meanness, or both combined, of any individual.

At a meeting held on the 1st inst.,

the City Council of Pensacola adopted resolutions, (1) to compel "a rigid quarantine of all vessels from infected ports and prohibiting intercourse between such vessels and the shore, (2) to provide a patrol guard or line of sentinels to enforce non-intercourse.

In response to a communication concerning certain vessels now at quarantine it was further resolved that the four vessels, now in Quarantine at Havana, be allowed to discharge and load within the Quarantine Station that all Stevedores or others, performing the service of loading said vessels, be required to conform to the Resolution heretofore passed by the Board, requiring all persons being or having been on board any vessel not frost, to remain in Quarantine until vessel, to be exclusively to the vessels aforesaid, and that all steam Tugs towing lumber and therefor, shall anchor out the same, and shall not be allowed to approach any such vessel nearer than one-fourth of a mile, and said timber shall be taken alongside vessels by their own crews, and that no Stevedore working on board any vessel from an infected port, shall be allowed to go on board any vessel not from an infected port; that the Quarantine in accordance with an order made by said Court in this cause, at the May Term 1874, notice is hereby given to all persons who are creditors of the firm of H. W. Farley to file their claims against the said firm with the Register of this Court, by the last day of October, 1874.
