BY TELEGRAPH.

Reported by the Associated Press for the Montgomery Daily Advertiser.

LONDON, June 12.
A special to the Times from Spain says that Gen. Concha and staff have left Lograno for Tudela. Thirty thousand national troops are marching to the Amexcos Valley. The Carlist army, under command of Dorregaray, numbers 24,000 men.

WASHINGTON, June 12.
The House passed the bill appropriating $500,000 to carry out the acts heretofore passed for the relief of sufferers by the overflow of the lower Mississippi, the Tombigbee, Warrior, and Alabama rivers and the Tennessee river.

We presented a memorial of John M. Sandige, of the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, Messrs. Jeff Thompson and James Longstreet, State Engineers of Louisiana, and Geo. F. Sherman, State Engineer of Alabama, asking Congressional aid for the reconstruction of the Mississippi levees. Referred to the special Committee on Levees.

New York, June 12.
At the annual meeting of the Alumni Association of West Point Academy yesterday a resolution was adopted inviting all graduates of the Academy both North and South to join in the anniversary dinner next year.

HAVANA, June 12.
The insurgent Colonels Belancourt, Jimenez and Rogas, were captured in the bay of Jigüey. They were passengers on board a bark from New York, which vessel they left in the Bahama Channel in a boat. They brought correspondence and commissions to insurgents which were thrown overboard before their capture. The refused to confess the nature of their commission.

PARIS, June 12.
A large and excited crowd assembled at the Western depot to-day at the time for the departure of the Deputies for Versailles. Gambetta was greeted with cheers and hisses. The police attempted to disperse the throng, handling them roughly in some instances. M. Lefevre, the Deputy of the Left, was arrested but subsequently released. A tumult arose, and Gambetta was again insulted. The police cleared the railway station and occupied it the entire afternoon.

In the Assembly, M. Baze demanded an inquiry into these riotous proceedings, which the Government promised to institute.

On the return of Gambetta to Versailles, Count St. Croix struck Gambetta across the face with a stick, for which he was promptly arrested. During the session this afternoon the excitement among the members became intense, and parliamentary business was much impeded.

The Municipal Council of Bordeaux have been suspended for having permitted a public demonstration of hostility to the Government.

LONDON, June 12.

A dispatch from Paris to the Times says that the Left Centre to-day will probably introduce a bill, the first clause of which will provide for the organization of a Republic according to the bill of 1873. The 2nd fixes the date of the dissolution of the present Assembly.

The Gazette De France says civil war will be the immediate consequence of the dissolution of the Assembly.

It is generally thought that in the event of a dissolution, the Assembly, before dispersing, will authorize President McMahon to govern some months, perhaps a year, without an Assembly, and will also authorize him to dissolve the next Assembly. The crowd at the depot Thursday evening numbered 20,000, and the police clearly manifested sympathy with the Bonapartists.

In papers laid before Parliament in regard to the Virginia affair was a letter dated February 20th, from Granville to the British Minister at Madrid, saying: Her Majesty's Government does not take ground complaining of the seizure of the Virginia, nor of the detention of the passengers and crew. The real ground of complaint Her Majesty's Government holds is that even assuming the vessel to have been lawfully seized and the crew properly detained, there was no justification for their summary execution after the irregular proceedings before a drum head Court Martial. No possible irregularity of the character of the Virginia and her crew could authorize or palliate such conduct on the part of the Cuban authorities. There was no pretence for treating such an expedition as piracy jure gentium.

We had more rain yesterday afternoon.

Messrs. Hester & Harrell advertise a five-room house in Opelika for rent.

Mr. J. R. Rogers, Editor of the Union Springs Herald and Times, was in the city yesterday.

The Opelika Times endorses the proposition to nominate Col. W. H. Barnes for Congressman-at-large.

The Odd Fellows will install their officers in public this year—the installation taking place on or about the 4th of July.

Offutt is selling Key West cigars at 6 cents each. Old prices seem to be on their return. Call at the News Depot, under this office.

Mosquitoes are as thick in the city (near the artesian basin) as blackberries in June. It shows that there is too much stagnant water about.

The Norwolk (Ch.) Advertiser makes mention of a stalk of rye more than seven feet in height. Wonder if it was made, like the Connecticut nutmeg, of wood?

Prof. F. M. Grace, one of the ablest and soundest men in the State, has bought an interest in the Birmingham Iron Age, and will henceforth assist in the editorial management of that excellent paper.

We learn that Dr. S. Rambo will leave for Pensacola in a few days to establish an office there. The Doctor is one of the most accomplished Dentists in the State, and will prove to be a valuable acquisition to our sister city. His family will remain in Montgomery.

We heard it said yesterday that one of the Radical factions contending for the Collectors and Probate Judgeship of this county had attempted to buy three members of the County Executive Committee. The prices offered ranged from an ox-wagon load of provisions to $130 in cash. Now the question is: Where was the money to come from, ultimately? Will the parties rise to explain?

CONSECRATION OF ST. PETER'S PARISH TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.—The Consecration of St. Peter's Parish to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, announced to the congregation for next Sunday, will take place at High Mass, instead of Vespers.

The order of Exercises will be as follows: High Mass; Act of Consecration; Litany of the Sacred Heart; Te Deum.

The Pastor trusts that all the members of the congregation that can attend will deem it a sacred duty to be present.

A collection will be taken up on the occasion for an offering to the Holy Father.

That Verse vs. Stanza anecdote, copied into this column yesterday morning as from the LaGrange Reporter, was one of our friend F.'s little jokes.

He found that the News was getting up the details of a joke upon him; whereupon he resolved to forestall our contemporary by telling the story as a "Georgia yarn," and crediting it to a Georgia newspaper. He, therefore, wrote the facts (which he knew the News had, and which were in the main correct) gave the LaGrange Reporter credit for them and had the concoction published as written—with the understanding that this explanation should follow, to set matters right. But he spoiled all the fun by going to the News man and getting his consent to the transaction in advance.

The "novelty" of yesterday was a small black dog riding a fine white horse. A gentleman by the name of Sample was driving a pair of beautiful milk-white horse to a buggy, in a fast trot, and the dog was standing steadily on the back of one of the pair. A large crowd gathered on the streets to witness the unusual scene; but when the crowd had gathered the show "closed doors." The gentleman, who had been driving, then rose in his buggy and delivered a very entertaining and sensible lecture on the Horse and horse training. We did not hear all of it, but what we heard was characterized by sound sense and plausible reasoning, to say the least. He intended forming a class here, if possible, to teach his new and philosophic system of training. After the lecture he gave a free exhibition on the square, first with his little dog, afterwards with wild horses. He made the dog perform a variety of unheard of tricks, and in one minute's time tamed the shyest and wildest of the horses submitted to his treatment.

The thanks of the senior editor are due Mr. A. O. Bunnell, of the Danville (N. Y.) Advertiser, and Secretary of the Editors and Publishers' Association of the State of New York, for the following invitation, dated June 9th, 1874:

DEAR SIR:—On behalf of the officers and members of the Editors and Publishers' Association of the State of New York, I have the honor of extending to you a cordial invitation to attend the next Annual Convention thereof, to be held in Lockport, June 17th and 18th, as per enclosed program.

Of the enclosed programme we copy the following, for Thursday, June 13: Excursion to Niagara Falls, where the editors are invited to the hospitalities of the International Hotel during their stay and to a complimentary dinner, by the proprietor, Mr. J. T. Fulton, Jr. It is expected that the "freedom of the Falls" will be accorded the excursionists. The greater part of the day will be spent at the Falls.

Excursion—Hon. T. T. Flaggler has tendered a reception at his residence to the members of the Association at half-past eight o'clock.

Regretting our inability to attend, we can only wish that some friend would volunteer to represent us, and that all may have a delightful time.

I am, very respectfully, JOHN HENES.

FOR RENT Low.—A very desirable mill of room at 40 Market street, apply at J. H. Lakin's Photograph Gallery.

TO MONTGOMERY.

If you want to buy boots and shoes, we will duplicate New York and Eastern bills. Try us. KIRTLAND & TOURTELLOTT'S No. 7 Market street.

A negro man fell on the sidewalk in front of this office yesterday in something like a fainting fit.

The adjourned meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at 8:15 this p. m., at the Court Street M. E. Church. Let all attend.

Tourists all agree in saying that the finest hotels, the finest climate and the finest fishing and boating are to be had at Grand Haven and Spring Lake, Michigan.

Almost all of our exchanges record bountiful rains and very good crop prospects. There was not so much cotton planted as last year, but if the worm will kindly stay away the yield this year will be greater than it was last year. The worm is like the old "troop's" cry: "If he come he no come; if he no come he come."

Pat Robinson sent a load of bread to Hickory Bend yesterday, by way of campaign document "in large type." Now let Strobach send bologna sausages, and Mike Woods send the lager, and all the Hickory Benders can get on a bender. Paul and Smike have got to do something, and that quick.

The bread argument will "burst" both of them if they don't. The ventriloquist forces are omnipotent in times like these. But how will the other bakers like this favoritism to Hickory Bend?

TEMPERANCE PIC-NIC AT WHITE-HALL.—Yesterday the various Temperance organizations of the city, visited this delightful place of resort. The committee of arrangements from the two Lodges of Good Templars, consisting of the following gentlemen: J. M. Falkner, L. Gilmer, J. P. Walker, J. D. Cunningham and O. P. Warner, were early at the depot, and having made every arrangement for the comfort of all who might attend, under their excellent management the large number of ladies, gentlemen, and little ones were comfortably seated in the seven coaches provided for the excursion. The juveniles, Cold Water Army of girls and boys, to the number of three hundred and fifty, clad in their neat costumes, were a pleasant sight to look upon, and their eager and joyous faces denoted a determination to "all that can intoxicate."

The members of the Temperance organizations took upon this array of men and women in miniature, as the bone and sinew of their community, rising up in one firm phalanx against the tide of alcoholic influences.

Whitehall is splendidly shaded; the mound is free from underbrush, and every part is easy of access. The committees were composed of men whose souls are interested in this philanthropic work.

At the conclusion of the day's pleasures, which consisted of dancing and various kinds of sports and games, drinking of the sparkling waters of Hubbard's and other fine springs, rambling among the lovely groves, etc., we were once again on the cars and homeward bound—leaving Whitehall in quiet rest, but bearing away with us sweet memories of the pleasures and triumphs of the first Temperance picnic in the season.

The train was in charge of Conductor O'Connell and the engine under control of Pete Montgomery.

Everything passed off to the satisfaction of all and to the benefit of the Cause in which they are engaged.

We return thanks to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ray and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Holmes for numerous courtesies, and for their good old-fashioned Southern hospitality.

The Lomax Excursion.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 10, 1874. ADVERTISER.—The annual celebration of the gallant Lomax Fire Company, after many postponements, finally came off Tuesday, June 9th, 1874, by an excursion to Wetumpka. The beautiful steamer, E. E. Luepke, was chartered for the trip, and about four hundred (400) persons embarked for the Hill City, at 10 o'clock. "Little Texas," "putted," which was the sign of departure; the boat once under full headway, everything passed off pleasantly and Terpsichore reigned supreme.

Arriving at the S. & N. R. bridge, "Little Texas" again "putted" a passing salute as a compliment to the crowd of ladies and gentlemen on the bridge who continued waving their handkerchiefs until the boat glided out of sight.

At 10 o'clock dinner (?) was announced, and the various articles of food soon disappeared. Another hour's ride brought us in view of the hills of the famed city, and a rush was made for the front part of the car for the purpose of catching a glimpse of the vast concourse of people, who were expected to beat the landing, but to their astonishment, about a baker's dozen young "fifteenth amendments," who had no doubt, carelessly strolled down by the river side, were present to "do the proud" on so interesting an occasion. Telescopes, opera-glasses, in fact every conceivable long-range magnifying machine, were in demand to secure the city, for the reception committee. The visitors' appreciation this "warm reception" (thermometer 40°) finally left the boat and wended their way toward Hagerstown, Md. Some of the good folks, not having heard of the intended excursion, mistook us for a wandering band of "women crusaders" whose object was to sing and pray for the salvation of the liquor dealers.

After the arrival at the Hill, dancing was again indulged in by all those who were found of such a luxury under the pressing state of the weather.

After a little "moral" session, Mr. Judkins finally consented to welcome the Montgomeryans, and Col. J. W. A. Sanford responded in a very neat and appropriate address, which was highly appreciated.

At dark the excursionists were homeward bound, arriving in Montgomery at 9 o'clock.

As a whole, the excursion was a grand success, and the Lomax boys and their guests were no doubt pleased with their day's enjoyment.

Very respectfully, FROBON, PUB.

A Terrible Accident.

BLOUNT Co., Ala., June 12, 1874. ADVERTISER.—On yesterday a sad accident happened to the family of Mr. William Cook, who lives near Hanceville, six years little girls, the oldest about six years of age, while playing around an old well in the yard, by some accident fell in and were all drowned. It is not known how long they had been in the well before their mother, uneasy at their protracted absence, began to search for them, and traced them to the fatal spot. She was then compelled to go a mile for assistance.

An excellent crop of wheat has been made in this county this year. Corn, oats and cotton are looking well, but need rain. Democratic candidates are fairly swarming, and but few advocate a county convention.

A GENTLEMAN writing to us from Montgomery, speaking of Opelika, says: I am satisfied that the locality is a healthy one. I know the elevation of various points, from official profiles, and am amused at people here running to Blount Springs. The elevations of points now considered desirable is as follows: Montgomery.....162 feet. Blount Springs.....423 feet. Blount last as under the caption of Opelika.....380 feet. Opelika.....347 feet.

Will the Montgomery papers insert this comparative table of elevations for the benefit of those who may intend leaving for the summer?—Opelika Times.

We had a pleasant call this morning from Col. John A. Milner, who has just returned from a trip to Butler and Lowndes counties. He gives a cheering account of the crops, particularly the corn crop, which, he says, promises well; the area of corn in that section. In twenty years he has never seen a better prospect for the farmer. Politics are considerably mixed in that portion of the country.

[ADVERTISEMENT.]

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 12, 1874. ADVERTISER.—As the Sheriff of this county deems it beneath his dignity to answer the malicious attacks of that scurrilous paper, the State Journal (which now belongs to James O. Smith, a notorious scoundrel), and as the editor of that paper will never publish any article in correction of his misrepresentations, I respectfully request that you will allow me enough space in your paper to answer the editorial in the Journal of yesterday.

"How a Sheriff," which was so full of misrepresentation and idiotic talk, showing clearly that the editor had not been long enough in this county to know what he was writing about.

I am a regular Constable of Beat 4 of this county, by appointment of Gov. Lewis, and my oath of office and official bond are on file in the proper office. The partisan order of Judge James O. Smith, directing myself as a Bailiff, amounted to nothing more than a puff of wind, because the Supreme Court on an appeal immediately declared that Judge Smith had no more right to meddle with the Court and Grand Jury, summer witnesses, than the man in the moon. When made the order he was evidently ignorant of the existence of the special law passed by the Legislature many years ago, allowing the Sheriff of this county to appoint Bailiffs as he might deem necessary.

I suppose that it is true that the presiding Judge of the City Court was aware of the order made by Judge Smith, but, unlike Judge Smith, he was wise enough to see the right to interfere with the Sheriff in the discharge of his duties under the law. Besides the Judge of the City Court is not such an idiot as to believe that three Bailiffs can attend upon the Court and Grand Jury, summer witnesses, guard prisoners, etc. It is also well known that it requires one Bailiff to be in constant attendance at the Grand Jury room and it very often happens that ten or fifteen prisoners are in the court room at one time, and it must be apparent to the dullest mind that these prisoners must be brought out under guard, and kept under guard. The criminal and civil business of this county is very large, and the Sheriff's office is recognized the necessity of allowing the Sheriff a sufficient number of Bailiffs to carry on the business of the courts.

I trust that when the Editor of the Journal receives a longer response in this State, he will become better acquainted with the laws upon our statute books; at present it is clear that he only seeks to prejudice the public mind against the Sheriff of this county and never to explain how the Tax Collector pays over $10,000 of the people's money in warrants, which the law forbids, and when he never received a dollar in warrants for taxes.

In conclusion Mr. Editor, I desire to say to the Editor of the Journal that I am a colored man with sufficient sense to know my rights, and sufficient independence to not honestly and spurn the money of any man who seeks to buy votes.

Respectfully, JAMES NETTLES.

Reported by the Associated Press for the Montgomery Daily Advertiser.

PARIS, June 12.

The scenes of yesterday, at the Western depot, were literally repeated to-day. At the departure of the Parliamentary train for Versailles, the populace again assembled in large numbers, and the Deputies were respectfully insulted and cheered. The police once more dispersed the rioters, and took twelve of the more violent of them into custody. So threatening was the demonstration that a body of troops was ordered to the station, to assist the police to maintain order. Armand Adam, brother to the Deputy of that name, and Spliler, brother of the publisher of Le Republic Francais, a radical Republican journal, were among the arrested.

The Government has suspended the publication of Le Pays and Le Rappel, Republican journals, because of violent attacks upon the police.

Paul De Cassagnac, editor of Le Pays, replies in that journal to-day, to the demand of Schoeleher and Testelin, who were delegated by the Republicans to demand armed reparation for his article attacking members of the Left Centre. He says that he assaulted Gambetta and other Deputies, but not Clemenceau, who is not therefore entitled to reparation; "but" says De Cassagnac "if Clemenceau desires personal satisfaction he can have it."

De Cassagnac says he particularly wants to fight Gambetta, and adds that nine members of the editorial staff of Le Pays are willing to fight nine of the Republican Deputies, and will draw lots for choice of adversaries and of arms.

Count St. Croix upon his arrest last night for striking Gambetta, told the police that his object was to provoke a duel. The Count was formerly an officer of Zouaves of the Imperial Guard.

Gambetta's face yet bears marks of the blow given him. Several persons in addition to Count St. Croix were arrested by the police at the railway station at the time of the tumult.

WASHINGTON, June 12. Among the amendments to the river and harbor bill are $25,000 for the Chattahoochee and Flint rivers, in Georgia; $10,000 for the Apalachicola river; $5,000 for the Coosa river, in Alabama.

Windom's Committee on Transportation had no quorum to-day, the members being engaged on other Committees.

The Committee on Ways and Means object to nearly all the new features inserted by the Senate in the moiety bill.

No Southern confirmations or nominations.

Senate.—Carpenter, from the Committee, reported adversely on the bill further to protect the polls at elections for President, Vice-President and members of Congress.

The currency bill was resumed and passed by a vote of 32 to 23.

Oglesby, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported back the bill to incorporate the Eastern and Western Transportation Company, with authority to construct a railroad from the coast of South Carolina to the Missouri river, and asked that it be referred to the Committee on Railroads. So ordered.

Conover introduced a bill granting the right of way through the public lands to the St. John's Railroad Company, and for other purposes. Referred to the Committee on Railroads.

Sargent, of California, introduced a bill relating to mail contracts, post-offices post-roads.

The Senate adjourned.

Zoues.—A resolution virtually suspending the civil regulations passed, 155 to 60.

Representatives Platt and Stowell to-day, called on the President and requested that troops be sent to Petersburg, Va., for the protection of certain officials whose lives they alleged were in danger. On hearing of this the remainder of the Virginia delegation with the exception of Thomas united in a request to the President that he would not order soldiers to Petersburg, as they believed that under the Marshal and District Attorney, the laws of the country would be enforced and if, if any one has committed an offence he will be punished. Ordering soldiers there at this time would injure the State and do no earthly good to any one. The President declined to interfere in the matter.

Probabilities.—For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, partly cloudy weather, local rains, gentle fresh variable winds with lower temperature and rising barometer east of the lower Mississippi river.

NASHVILLE, June 12. Miss Sallie Smith, aged about 15 years, a member of the female school at Oakland, Ky., was fatally burned last night during school exercises. She was standing near a coal oil lamp which exploded, and at once enveloped her in flames. She rushed among the audience, causing great confusion among them, most of them escaping by the window and doors. Her father in endeavoring to save her had his hands seriously burned. Physicians this morning report that she is dying.

CULEPEPER, Va., June 12. A colored man, who had escaped from prison and murdered a young farmer for his clothes and a few dollars was hanged to-day, in the presence of an immense crowd mostly colored.

SARASOTA, Fla., June 12. One thousand pounds of nitro-glycerine, in the Government magazine, four miles above this city, exploded to-day with terrific force. The cursion was so great here that the whole population rushed into the streets. Houses were shaken and windows broken, but no lives were lost.

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.

A motion for the trial of the Grant Parish case was made to-day. The argument was postponed until June 20th, when Justice Bradley and a full bench will probably be present.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 12.

The banquet from the citizens of Augusta to the delegates to the Cotton Exchange Convention was given at the head of the canal, seven miles from the city. It was a grand affair. Three hundred persons were present. Everything passed off pleasantly. Some delegations accepted invitations to visit Savannah and Charleston.
