Our Opelika correspondent answers the "egg problem" erroneously. He closes out on No. 1 the first day.

The Kennesaw Route being one of the oldest Routes in the United States, can be depended upon for SAFE-TY—and has no dangerous trestles incident to new roads.

If the head of our friend Bully Go Lung (of the Artesian frog-pond) could be seen six inches from the circumference (i. e. outside) by one on the circumference with a tangent of nine feet from Bully, what would be the area of his wanderings?

Persons wishing to purchase mutton or lamb to-day would find a good market in the world, can be accommodated by calling on Mr. Chappell, at his handsome stall in the market. Mrs. Chappell, also, will have a full supply of the very choicest of vegetables.

The Mobile Register 23rd inst., says: "Col. C. C. Jangdon, who has been very ill at Bladon Springs, whither he went a few weeks ago for rest and recreation, returned to this city yesterday evening, upon the steamer Lotus No. 2. We are glad to learn that the Colonel's health is improving, and hope soon to see him upon the streets again."

The Equal Rights association met at the Capitol at 10 o'clock a. m. The minutes of Wednesday were read and new delegates enrolled their names.

Jerre Haralson then offered a preamble setting forth various things and resolutions, declaring in favor of Summer's Civil Rights bill as passed by the United States Senate and urging its enactment into law. One of the resolutions undertook to construe the bill and declared that it did mean mixed schools and that the Association was opposed to mixed schools.

This feature of the resolutions produced long and animated discussion. Walker, of Dallas, moved to strike out all parts that objected to mixed schools. Turner, Haralson, Curtis and Carver opposed the motion to strike out, and it appeared at one time that the motion was defeated. Several changes were made from no to aye, and on adding up, the vote to be 21; no, 20.

Motion was then made to indefinitely postpone the whole thing, a large portion of the Convention being opposed to any resolution being adopted against mixing the schools.

Every delegate on the floor was vehement in declaring that he favored Summer's Civil Rights bill from beginning to end, but some of them did not, as a matter of policy, care to advocate just now the mixing of blacks and whites in the schools.

The resolutions were referred to a committee, when the Convention at 4 p. m. adjourned to 8 p. m.

Aprons of the completion of the Water Works system of Montgomery, we visited the Exchange Hotel yesterday, where the plumbers and carpenters have been busy for a month preparing that old reliable "Travellers Home" for the reception of water. Heretofore this necessity, and the comfort which it brings in its train, have been obtained with difficulty and great expense: henceforward this beneficent "King of the Elements" will reign supreme throughout the famous "Exchange."

Messrs. Watt & Lanier and the Exchange Hotel Co., have resolved that they will not be outstripped in this modern race to the goal of the greatest physical comfort, and so every summer, the period of dull times and repairs, witnesses the introduction of some improvement into their Hotel. A plug at the corner of Commerce and Montgomery streets, with fifty feet of hose, enables them to contend successfully with the heat and dust of the streets contiguous, while a similar arrangement in the court-yard affords water for sprinkling, fire-extinguishing, and other purposes. A neat bath-room, in connection with the barber shop, with handsome apartments for plunge and shower baths, awaits to refresh the dusty traveler, and in the dining room the hungry guest will assuage his appetite to the musical flow of an aquarium fountain. Into the yard, the laundry, the kitchen, the pantries, and into closets on every floor but one, also into a ladies' bath-room, the water is bountifully introduced by a perfect net-work of pipes, and then returned to the river by a thorough system of drainage.

The gentlemen's lavatory, is a gem, being of oiled walnut, capped by a beautiful marble slab, which is perforated by four wash-hand basins, and mounted with silver faucets, through which, when complete, warm and cold water will rush to do battle with the dust-and-clinders fiend—that bane of modern railroad locomotion.

Large faucets on every floor of the hotel are so arranged that a section of hose can be instantly attached, and in the unfortunate event of an incipient or any other kind of fire, the Fire Department will find a lively competition in the extinguishing business going on hereafter by the time they arrive, though with their wonted promptness, at the scene of disaster.

Chief Engineers Bob and Cliff, and First Assistant Jesse have already attained great proficiency, and like "Jim Bludso" of the "Prairie Belle" will hold "her nozzle again the bank till the last galoot's shoring." Just at the office a beautiful drinking fountain of porcelain, arranged behind the ceiling with coil on coil of tin pipe frozen by blocks of ice, will afford cold water, and in a word every comfort is provided which can be obtained from a plentiful supply of this indispensable.

The contractor, to whom great credit is due, was Mr. C. E. James, Plumber, No. 43 Market street.

G. B. Manley, Court Square, has just received the finest assortment of crackers over brought to this market. Je271

We had some heavy clouds and heavy thunder yesterday, with considerable rain. As we write the gathering clouds threaten yet other showers.

Mr. J. P. Caffey on yesterday challenged the lucky winner of the prize pitcher in the late shooting match to a contest, single handed, ten birds each, for $25 or $50 forfeit. We learn that as yet Hough has not seen it.

We are glad to learn that the Water Works Company have, so completed the job that the supply of water will be inexhaustible. We learn that the Lomax boys will show the real value of the plugs this evening.

The cool and refreshing breezes off Lake Michigan give to Grand Haven and Spring Lake the most pleasant and invigorating climate in the world.—The Magnolia Mineral water from Spring Lake has a national reputation as a therapeutic agent in the cure of disease.

We regret exceedingly that unavoidable circumstances prevented our attendance at the musical and literary entertainment of the school of the Sisters of Loretto yesterday morning. Those who were fortunate enough to be present were greatly pleased with the entertainment.

Montgomery Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at their election last night, selected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Noble Grand.—O. F. Warren.

Vice Grand.—B. H. Searns.

Secretary.—F. Giegley.

Treasurer.—A. M. Kennedy.

An aged Georgian who had actually never seen a railroad before, rode into Atlanta in one of the new Pullman Palace Cars, to see the State Fair. Having been asked his opinion about railroads he replied: "Well it did seem kinder to me as if it were a streak of lightning running away with a Palace."

The Equal Rights negroes say that their resolutions that they are denied equal rights in hotels, public conveyances, etc., and demand, that it be put an end to. At the same time they say they do not want mixed schools. Whom do they expect to deceive with such silly clap-net? Not in favor of mixed schools, but mixed races are the very thing. Bah! That's the thinnest trickery yet!

Every negro who spoke yesterday at the Capitol in the Equal Rights Convention, avowed himself in favor of the Summer Civil Rights bill, but some thought the stomachs of some of the white brethren, who are hanging on the fence, might revolt if the mixed school does was now forced on them. Hence there was a mighty effort to do nothing to alienate the white recruits, and to be quiet until more power was obtained and then the bitter draught could be administered with impunity.

If any of the white Radicals who have been endorsing Rapier's course in Congress want to know his sentiments on the Civil Rights bill, mixed schools, going to Universities of Alabama, and other public institutions, hotels and railroads, they should get a copy of his speech, which purports to have been delivered in Congress on the 9th of June. Rapier was nothing less than perfect equality in all things.

The negroes of Montgomery are not so fond of political gatherings as heretofore. For the past two days a State Convention, composed exclusively of negroes, has been in session at the capitol, but not two dozen negro men, besides the delegates, have been in attendance until last night, when a moderate sized crowd was present to hear speeches by two of the delegates, one named Smith, from Union Springs, and one named Welsh, from Selma, both carpet-baggers, if we are not misinformed. The convention adjourned after these speeches until this morning.

The Montgomery County Democratic and Conservative Convention will assemble at the Court House at 12 m., to-day, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention, which meets in this city on the 20th of July, and to transact such other business as a majority of the Convention may deem proper.

We are glad to know that the people throughout the county have taken great interest in this convention, and it promises to be fully attended. The following was the Democratic vote of this county, at the last State election, the vote for Haralson being the basis: Exchange Precinct, 1280; Court House, 500; Barnes, 68; Robinsons X, Roads, 99; Pine Level, 117; Porters, 88; Union Academy, 97; Mount Melva, 204; Dublin, 217; Truckers Store, 94; Rives, 178. Total, 2,922.

If the negroes in the Equal Rights Association would not bankrupt the white Radicals of this State and drive them crazy in the bargain, they will adjourn without delay. The latter gentry flitted like ghosts through the lobbies yesterday and electrified with as much avidity as the young ninny goes for a section of angle worm. What they were after we failed to learn, but it was thought they were begging to be spared the disgrace of supporting the Civil Rights bill! But they demand it. Like Gen. Lay's groes demand it. Like Gen. Lay's "poor boy" they are "easily satisfied," and they feel that if they are dropped by the negroes they are nothing. It is just as Jerre Haralson said: "Feeding time is so close at hand that they dare not kick." Now or never is the negro's time to make them commit themselves.

Capt. Howell, editor of the Autauga County, was in the city yesterday.

We are requested to state that the Cold Water Templars will meet on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock as usual.

All of the Virginia Springs Route, passengers with tickets for the North, can stop over and resume their journey at pleasure. The Kennesaw.

Col. Tom Offutt, under the Exchange, has on exhibition a pair of ears taken from the head of a Texan mule-rabbit. They are about seven inches long—just about the right length for any Radical who can see no social equality in the Summer Civil Rights bill.

The people of Montgomery should bear in mind that the Old Reliable Kennesaw Route, via Atlanta, Dalton, and Knoxville, with its new schedule, is making the fastest time on record to the North and Virginia Springs.

We are glad to learn that quite a good crowd has assembled at Blount Springs, and a great many more are expected at an early day. There is no reason why Blount Springs should not become the great Southern watering-place. Mr. Morrow, of the Jackson House, and his polite assistants, are doing everything possible for the pleasure and comfort of their guests. Board is $40 per month.

During the performances on the rostrum and afterwards the audience feasted their eyes on these "mule but eloquent testimonials of the taste and genius of the principal of the art department and her pupils, and many were the well deserved compliments paid them. Miss Fannie Lockett is principal of this department. The department of reading and recitation is under charge of Miss Vail and that of music, in charge of Miss Porter. These were the departments represented in the entertainment. About 10 o'clock the entertainment closed, and the large audience dispersed to their several homes, well satisfied that we had here in Montgomery institutions of learning equal in every respect to any that can be found elsewhere in Alabama.

To the Press of Alabama.

The undersigned, desirous of getting a situation in some healthy village in the State of Alabama, proposes to unite his services as a practical printer and the use of a new Fair-haven press, (bed 31x46) for an interest in some old established paper for a term of years, or a fair remuneration for the services of his press and press.
