The First in the Field!

We hereby announce our readiness to display to the Citizens of Montgomery and the surrounding Country, our

MAMMOTH STOCK OF DRY GOODS AND SHOES,

Suitably Adapted to the SPRING AND SUMMER SEASONS.

The present Stringent Condition of the Money Market has been fully considered and carefully weighed by us, and we

STATE EMPHATICALLY that during the entire season the prices on our goods will be placed at the VERY LOWEST. Our determination during the Season will be to SELL OUR GOODS!

And in order to carry out this ultimatum, all the goods comprised in our Selections are to be offered at such confessedly low prices as

POSITIVELY TO DEFY ALL COMPETITION!

Further, our Assortments are the most extensive we have been in receipt of for many Seasons, and have been purchased with the sole view of offering to purchasers at

EXTRAORDINARILY LOW FIGURES.

THIS WE ARE DETERMINED TO DO, AND MAKE THIS ANNOUNCEMENT BOLDLY AND FEARLESSLY, THAT FOR THE DURABILITY, NEATNESS AND CHEAPNESS OF OUR GOODS, WE ARE RESOLVED TO STAND UNRIVALLED!

Those anticipating the purchase of such articles as are always found in a FIRST CLASS DRY GOODS HOUSE will positively

SAVE MONEY by calling at our Stores.

LIGHT IN THE EAST!

CONNECTICUT TO THE FRONT!

Radicalism Buried out of Sight!!

NEW HAVEN, 1:30 P. M., April 7.

The election has resulted in a sweeping Democratic victory. Returns received at the Palladium office up to this hour (a few towns only being wanting), give Ingersoll a plurality of 5,796 over Harrison (Rep.), and a clear majority of 1,669 over both Harrison and Smith. The Prohibition candidate, Smith, received a little over 4,000 votes. The Senate stands 16 Democrats to 5 Republicans, and the House is heavily Democratic. The two candidates for Governor are residents of this city, which gave Ingersoll 4,119, Harrison 3,571, and Smith 256. The election has been made by the people, and the heavy Democratic majority in the General Assembly renders the choice of a Democratic U. S. Senator an easy matter.

WASHINGTON, April 6.

In the Supreme Court to-day, in the case of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, against Hamilton and others, from the Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York, and late against the New York Life Insurance Company, from the Pennsylvania Circuit, the decrees were affirmed by a divided Court. These were the cases put forth to determine the liabilities of insurance companies on policies held in the South, on which premiums were not paid during the war, but upon which the parties, on their presentation, tendered payment after the war. As the case results, the decrees below stand affirmed, and the parties are as much in the dark as to their rights as before the appeals to this court. The court will grant a rehearing, in view of the great amount involved in like cases. If this should occur, the presence of the Chief-Justice on the arguments would prevent another division.

Halliday vs. Doty--Error to the Supreme Court of Colorado Territory. In this case, Ben. Halliday and wife joined in an execution of power of attorney to sell their real estate in a section of that Territory. The attorney sold it, making the deed in the name of Halliday alone. Thereupon the latter repudiated the transaction, and sought to hold the property. The court below sustained the sale, and that judgment is here affirmed, the court holding that a power of attorney to sell and convey real property, given by a husband and his wife, authorizes a conveyance by the attorney, of the interest of the husband by a deed executed in his name alone. It said that the wife, in fact, has no interest in the property. Such individual deed passes the entire estate.

Justice Field delivered the opinion in the case of the City of Memphis against Brown and others, from the Circuit Court of Tennessee, on an appeal by the city to reverse a decree rendered against it by the appellee, upon contracts for paving its streets. This court affirms the decree, except as the item for damages for not having created a sinking fund for the payment of the bonds issued in pursuance of the contracts. This item, and that for services of the attorneys, and the collecting of bills, were reversed. The court below is directed to enter a decree in accordance with these views. The Chief-Justice announced that the Court will not hear arguments after the 24th inst., and that it will finally adjourn on the 4th of May.

NEW YORK, April 6.

The Herald's special from Mexico 2nd, says the revolutionary movement in Chihuahua against the Governor has been suppressed. Six of the assassins of Rev. Mr. Stephens have been condemned to death. The trial of the priest, Aboas, and other parties implicated in the outrage is still pending. Congress opened yesterday.

Peace prevails throughout Mexico.

CINCINNATI, April 7.

At Dayton the election was quiet an extraordinary vote was cast. The Democrats elect their Mayor and the city ticket. The Republicans have a majority in the council and school boards.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.

Conference of Baptist ministers being held, at which resolutions were presented by Dr. Hinson, strongly opposed open communion. A movement offered by Dr. Boardman, favoring this was voted down. Similar resolutions were then postponed until next meeting. They will doubtless carry by a large majority. There is a strong fight on the subject, between Doctors Boardman and Hinson.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.

A man named Dennison engaged in a quarrel with another named Downey, at San Francisco to-day, when Downey shot Dennison, who died in a few minutes. Jealousy and an April fool joke led to the fatal quarrel.

DETROIT, April 7.

At the charter elections held in this State yesterday, the Republicans elected their ticket in the following places, Kalamazoo, Corunna, Feunon, Albion, Coldwater, Ann Arbor, Hillsdale, Grand Haven, East Saginaw and Alpena. The Democrats elected their ticket in Niles, Port Huron, Pontiac, Battle Creek, Bay City, Grand Rapids, Lansing and Muskegon. The Temperance ticket was elected in Ypsilanti. The people or whiskey ticket in Flint and the reform ticket in Anna.

LONDON, April 7.

Additional dispatches from Melbourne give some particulars of the escape from New Caledonia of Henri Rochefort and his companions. It appears that they obtained permission from the authorities to go on a fishing excursion. They succeeded in boarding a bark and stowed themselves away in the hold, where they remained until the departure of the vessel, when they made their appearance on deck.

WASHINGTON, April 7.

Senate--Morrill from Finance Committee reported unfavorably on the bill to provide for resumption of specie payment and for free banking.

and then if I ain't worth listening to, go to sleep, but don't before I compromise; give a man a chance."

The storm yesterday morning was almost terrific while it lasted. The young leaves were stripped from the trees by the hand of the wind, and scattered all around the earth was green with them. Then came the cold driving rain which lasted for an hour perhaps, and then the pure sweet calm. In the afternoon the clouds marshalled their forces once more and the night de-

Mr. Carvalho, Observer at this station, reports that on yesterday, at 10 o'clock a. m., the velocity of the wind was at the rate of 36 miles an hour, with a pressure of six pounds and forty-eight one hundredths to the square foot.

The firemen of Mobile hold their grand annual festival and parade tomorrow. We learn that quite a number of the firemen of this city have gone down to witness the pageant and rejoice with their brethren of the Gulf

City. We wish them a speedy and safe return.

SHOOTING NOTICE.—A regular meeting of Montgomery Shooting

Club will be held on Wednesday, April

8th, 1874, at J. J. Gindrat's office at 7 p. m. Business of importance will come before the meeting.

By order of the President,

T. L. DORON, Sec'y.

Messrs. Sistrunk & Maul, wish to call the attention of farmers to the fact that they still have a few bushels of genuine Dixie Improved Cotton Seed for sale. These seeds are of the very finest variety, and can be depended on as being exactly what they are represented. They were raised in Georgia, and never had the army worm upon them, which of itself is quite a recommendation. apldwh

THE LATE OUTRAGE AT

BRYAN.

Six Negroes Hung.

A special dispatch to the Galveston

News dated at Bryan, on the 1st inst.,

says that a mob of white men, on the 31st ult., called on the sheriff, and demanded the jail keys, but the jailer happened to have them, and could not told the whereabouts of the prisoners.

The jailer broke it open by force, and took out four of the negroes who had been arrested on the charge of being implicated in the Leak outrage, and took them about a mile from town, and hung two of them, to a tree.

They both confessed that they were guilty, and said that the other two were innocent of the crime, and also told the whereabouts of the others.

Brown and Higgins were also identified by Mr. and Mrs. Leak as being two of the party.

It is reported that four more were hung in the Brazos Bottom.

Eight or ten negroes are implicated in the horrible deed. Men are in search of the balance, and if found they will have the pleasure of joining in the fate of their dead friends.

GRANGERS' COLUMN.

Wednesday, Tuesday Evening April 7, 1874

A BALE TO THE ACRE.

The Southern Cultivator for April is full of excellent suggestions for the farmer. On the culture of cotton, Oconee, Clark county, tells how he made a bale to the acre on poor land, as follows:

I now propose to tell you how I made a bale of cotton on one acre of poor land last year, and how I saw one ploughing affect a piece of cotton. The acre on which I made a bale of cotton (51 lbs.) was poor land when I commenced with it. The manure used was 40 bushels cotton seed and 200 lbs Oglethorpe fertilizer to the acre. I commenced on the 14th of May—laid off rows 31 feet wide with a large shovel plough, and followed in the same furrow with a long bull-tongue as deep as the mule could pull it, and then distributed the cotton seed in the bottom of the furrow, and the phosphate immediately on the cotton seed. Then bedded out with a Brinly plough, running the scooter after the Brinly plough, all the while as deep as the mule could pull it—thus making the best effect I could all the way through, at subsiding. I planted the seed next day, May 15th; opened bed with small plough, sowed the seed by hand without rolling, and covered with a board, (the old fashion) and in five or six days had an elegant stand. I will here add, that cotton seed not rolled will come up quicker than rolled seed, unless one has time to let the rolled seed lie in bulk and heat or sprout. The cotton after it came up only received two ploughings with sweep and two hoeings. It was chopped to a stand the first hoeing, leaving three or four stalks at every 14 inches of the row.

The piece of cotton I saw so much affected by one ploughing, was a 3 acre piece planted by a neighbor. The three acres would average about alike, in every respect, and were prepared and planted alike, and worked precisely alike the first working. But before my neighbor, Mr. B., could get around the second time, they had gotten badly in the grass. He started to plow it, but with a sweep and got about one-third or one-acre of it ploughed, when I came along. Mr. B. said to me, "this grass is so large I can't conquer it with a sweep." I remarked, take a turn plough or shovel, as I had much rather kill the cotton by ploughing than for the grass to take it. He acted upon my suggestion, and ploughed the remaining two acres with turn-plough and shovel, running round cotton with shovel, and ploughing out with turner—ploughing very deep all the while, thereby wrapping up grass, weeds and everything else but cotton. Now what do you think of that? Why, just that, that the cotton would turn yellow and shed almost every leaf; but not so, Mr. Editor. Strange to say, the cotton kept green and growing all the while, and shed a great deal less than that ploughed by sweep; and the position ploughed with sweep-trusted badly to the very row, and not a particle of rust could be found on a leaf of that ploughed with shovel and turner. Now, sir, I am utterly opposed to deep culture in every sense of the word, yet I have lived to see the advantage of it in this one instance.

The Hanover Grange.

HANOVER, Ala., April 30, 1874. Editors Advertiser—Some time ago, you requested all the Granges in the State to send you the names of their officers, etc. Our's is Hanover Grange No. 273. D. J. McCord, Worthy Master; D. J. Thompson, Overseer; W. L. Smith, Secretary.

Our regular monthly meetings are held on the Saturday before the 3d Sunday in each month. It is a prosperous condition.

Respectfully,
W. E. SMITH, Secretary.

[From the Ashland Times.]

Clay County Council.

In accordance with a call previously made, a Convention of the Delegates from the various Granges of Clay County assembled at Ashland on the 27th ult., for the purpose of organizing a Council of Patrons of Husbandry. The Delegates assisted the Ashland Grange in carrying out the 4th degree of Bro. W. J. Pearce, Roland Stone, J. H. White and J. A. England, after which a beautiful "Harvest Feast" was spread by the ladies of the Order, to which the Delegates did ample justice.

After a short recess, the Delegates assembled in the Grange Room, and effected a temporary organization by calling Bro. J. W. Garrison to the chair, and requesting Bro. J. R. Stockdale to act as Secretary.

The following By-Laws were then unanimously adopted, to-wit:

Article 1. This Council shall be known as the Clay County Council, and shall be composed of delegates from the Granges of Clay County.

Article 2. This Council shall be composed of three male and three female delegates and the Master of each Grange, to be elected annually, (exclusive of the officers of this Council) each delegate to be provided with a certificate of election from under the seal of the Grange to which he or she belongs.

Article 3. There shall be elected by ballot, at the first regular meeting of each year, a President, two Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Door-keeper and Executive Committee of three.

Article 4. This Council shall hold its regular meetings quarterly, in the town of Ashland, on the first Monday in February, May, August and November, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

Article 5. A majority of granges belonging to this Council shall constitute a quorum for transacting business.

Article 6. Special meetings shall be called by the President upon application by the Executive Committee, ten days notice being given to all delegates of Granges.

Article 7. The dues of delegates shall be such amounts as may be assessed by the Executive Committee for the contingent expenses of the Council.

Article 8. The members of Granges shall be admitted to the Council, but shall not be entitled to vote, and shall not participate in any of its business, unless by invitation of the Council.

Article 9. No one who is not a delegate shall be admitted to the Council, unless voted for by some member of the Council.

Article 10. This Council may hold public meetings at any time when a majority of the members may deem it for the good of the Order.

Article 11. No proposition to change these By-Laws, or any part thereof, shall be considered or voted on unless it shall have been submitted to and passed by the Council at its next meeting.

Come ye, who like things good to eat,
To NINETY-SEVEN Commercial Street,
Where Bacchus, God of Feasts and Wine,
And Ceres, with her golden sign,
Display the riches of their store,
Come, buy and eat, and wait no more.

Here "Hoground" in "beef" relishes
The smoked, and spiced, and pickled beef;
Plain, sugar-cured and other hams,
And services, lobsters, fish and clams,
The tongue of beef and buffalo,
And now and then some pompano;
Where excellence no tongue can utter;
Cush from old Vermont Sound,
Flour, by the barrel or the pound,
And cream and Western dairy cheese,
And coffee, chocolate and tea;
The fancy and the soda cracker,
And some rare brands of fine tobacco;
Macaroni and oysters, beans and salmon,
Currants and raisins, Yastco beans,
(Which none will miss who have the "means")
Besides a thousand other things
Of which no mortal poet sings,
Including hay, and corn, and oats,
To feed to horses, cows and geese,
And bran, and meal of cotton seed,
And every other kind of feed,
Which man may buy or cattle need.

When Phobus in the western waves,
His fiery steeds and chariot leaves,
And Night, descending, trails her robe
Of darkness o'er the sleeping globe,
The student, who would catch from sleep
The midnight hour for vigils deep,
Should try what virtue rests within Our tried and tested "Fair Invader."

While those who sometimes like to take
A wee drop "for the stomach's sake,"
In spite of all the "fair invaders,"
The "Temperance Crusaders,"
Can find in store a host of wines,
Of Bourbon, Irish, white of Rye,
Old Scotch, Tennessee, or Gin,
Or if the State produces the kind,
Then wines of Burgundy or France,
As bright as woman's breast and glance,
And heartily recommended
Once by the "Temperance" team.

Much more than this we could rehearse,
But this must do for us, at least in verse,
For any doubt we bid him come,
Or over afterwards be "num."

Our "credit" settles Grocers "cash,"
So, whether you doubt or not, come all,
For those who call will never refuse
To get all their groceries from
