The Supreme Court will probably continue in session during all of next week.

The weekly reception at the Arlington Club room comes off this evening, as usual.

In Lowndes last year thirty white couples, and two hundred and two negro couples, were married.

Mr. W. H. McNamee, of Opelika accidentally shot himself a few days ago.

The ball entered his thigh and ranged downwards.

Alabama coal has been tested by naval officers at Pensacola, and is pronounced as good as any for steamships

&c.

John G. Saxe, the great wit and lecture is on his way to the South. He ought to lecture here, and we suggest that the Arlington Club try and make an engagement for him. In addition to his qualities of mind he is no less to be admired for the goodness of his heart.

The Richmond Dispatch of Friday says one thousand bales of cotton from Red river were lying on the wharf of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in that city, the day before. It came to St. Louis via the Missouri and Texas railroad, thence by rail to Cincinnati, and water to Huntington, the western terminus of the C. and O. road.

The Columbus Enquirer publishes the following letter, a copy of which was served on every bar-keeper in Columbus.

"Mr. —: You are hereby notified, that unless you stop selling whiskey by Friday next, 27th inst., you will be visited by the ladies, who will pray that you save yourself and the balance of mankind."

A Mr. Hoffman, of Dubuque, took out his wife's false teeth before burying her, whereupon a Louisville paper remarks that this was very reasonable,

"because in the world to which Mrs.

Hoffman has gone there may be weeping and wailing, but Mr. Hoffman is determined that so far as his wife is concerned, there shall be no gnashing of teeth."

This is one of Lord Lytton's many bright sayings in "The Parisians." So-riety, my friend, is a wall of very strong masonry, as it now stands; it may be sapped in the course of a thousand years, but stormed in a day, no! You dash your head against it, you scatter your brains, and you dislodge a stone. Society smiles in scorn, effaces the stain, and replaces the stone.

I no longer war against society. I do war against a system in that society which is hostile to me.

The Covington (Ky.) ladies are on the war-path, and the "Committee on Temperance" are mailing postal cards to the saloon keepers, reading thus:

"Dear Sir—You are requested and entreated to abandon the sale of intoxicating liquors, for your own welfare and that of humanity. Remember that it is degrading to yourself and spreads vice and poverty among us.

If you do not do this we will unite our prayers and visit you and every saloon in a body, fervently pleading until our object is attained."

The Masonic Relief Association, of Norfolk, propose to have a grand Gift Concert and prize distribution on the 5th of May next. The names of the gentlemen connected with this enterprise are guaranteed by the correctness of its transactions in every particular.

Mr. Stephens, the general agent, has been in the city several days, but left last night for Mobile. For particulars read advertisement in this paper, or call at Oritz's book and news depot.

Prizes to the amount of $250,000 will certainly be distributed, the capital one being $50,000.

We were shown, yesterday, some splendid specimens of gold ore, taken from the mines in Tallapoosa county belonging to Mr. J. D. Willford.

These mines were worked before the war by Mr. W. at a profit of $70 per ton, but he was obliged to stop work during the war because the Confederate Government "pressed" the engines with which the work was performed. The specimens shown us will be sent to New York, in the hope that their value will induce capitalists from that section to invest in the mines. At the time that work was suspended the mines were paying a clear profit of two hundred dollars per day. Any of our citizens, or those of other States, who have a few greenbacks to invest, can have a chance to do so by calling upon Mr. Willford.

A fashionable gossip says all ladies garments are becoming more and more masculine. Cloth jackets have revers just like those of a gentleman's coat.

Square cuts and square effects are about to wrap sleeves and all parts of the dress. Even for balls and evening parties, corsets and parures are fashioned with masculine revers. A startling change in ladies' dresses will be attempted at an early day. The skirts of these new costumes are to be short enough to clear the ground all around. No polonaise nor tunic, but three or four flounces on the front breast and one very wide in the back will give the required dressiness. Over the back widths will fall a full, perpendicularly platted demi-skirt as a substitute for the pouf now so fashionable. This will only extend to the hips, leaving the front breadths uncovered, save by a long pointed corsage. To the back of this corsage will be attached a square platted basque. Fichus of every kind of material are fashionable. They are admirable additions to a lady's stock of toilette accessories. Two or three dresses of good material and color or one black or one colored silk can, by the use of half a dozen fichus, vests and parures, be made to do duty as evening and party dresses for a whole season.

Passengers on the M. & E. train from Montgomery and Eufaula get breakfast and supper at the Johnson House, situated immediately at the railroad crossing at Union Springs.

Warm and good meals and polite attention guaranteed. If
