Ratifications exchanged at Washington March 2, 1874.

Proclaimed March 4, 1874.

By THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a convention for the surrendering of criminals, fugitives from justice, between the United States of America and the Republic of Salvador, was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at San Salvador on the 23d day of May, 1870, the original of which convention, being in the English and Spanish languages, is word for word as follows:

Convention for the surrender of criminals between the United States of America and the Republic of Salvador.

The United States of America and the Republic of Salvador, having judged expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the prevention of crimes within their respective territories and jurisdictions, have agreed upon the following articles, which shall have the force of law in each of the contracting parties, and shall be ratified by each of them, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington, in the month of March, 1874.

ARTICLE I.

The Government of the United States and the Government of Salvador mutually agree to deliver up persons who, having been convicted of any crime, or charged with the commission of any crime, and who shall be found within the territories and jurisdictions of the contracting parties, to the other party, provided that the person so delivered up shall be delivered up within the period of one year from the date of the convention, and shall be delivered up within the period of one year from the date of the convention, and shall be delivered up within the period of

the respective diplomatic agents of the contracting parties, or in the event of the absence of these, to the country, or its seat of government, they may be made by superior consular officers. If the person whose extradition may be asked for shall have been convicted of a crime, a copy of the sentence of the court in which he may have been convinced, authenticated under its seal, and an attestation of the official character of the judge by the proper executive authority, and of the latter by the minister or consul of the United States or Salvador, respectively, shall accompany the requisition. When, however, the fugitive shall have been merely charged with crime, a duly-authenticated copy of the warrant for his arrest, in the country where the crime may have been committed, or of the positions upon which such warrants may have been issued, must accompany the requisition. The President of the United States of America, or the President of the Republic of Salvador, may also issue a warrant for the arrest of a fugitive, in order that he may be brought before the proper judicial authority for examination. If it should then be decided that, according to law and the evidence, the extradition is due, pursuant to the treaty, the fugitive may be given up according to the forms prescribed in each case.

ARTICLE VII.

The expenses of the arrest, detention, and transportation of the person claimed shall be paid by the government in whose name the requisition shall have been made.

ARTICLE VIII.

This convention shall continue in force during ten (10) years from the date of its ratification; but if neither party shall have given notice of its intention to terminate the same, the convention shall remain in force ten years longer, and so on.

The present convention shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Washington within twelve

(12) months, and sooner if possible.

In witness whereof, the respective plenipotentiaries have signed the present convention in duplicate, and have thereunto affixed their seals.

of May, 1874:

Now, the core, be it known that I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention to be made public, to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
