After balking for three weeks the legislature of Massachusetts has elected Gov. Wm. B. Washburn U. S. Senator.

The Republican journals of Ohio are not very kindly disposed toward the Provisionists since the recent town elections.

The Meriden (Conn.) Republican, referring to the result of the recent elections in this State, accuses the temperance men of having done irreparable mischief to their own interests.

A Chicago lawyer has decided that "shyster," a term frequently applied to a certain class of lawyers, is libelous.

Scholar Carpenter's resolution proposing to recognize the Cuban Republic means a good deal if inspired by the Administration, which is not at all improbable.
