TIME IS SPEEDING.

Time is speeding, swiftly speeding,
Ever onward like the sea,
Bearing us upon its bosom,
To the great Eternity.
Toward that never ending future,
Drifts our life bark safely on,
Heavenly breezes wait us safely,
Safely to that blissful bourn.

Often do we grasp at pleasures,
All so idly floating there,
But they prove but brilliant bubbles,
Bursting bubbles, filled with air,
On the crest of waves they sparkle,
O'er life's foamy sea they glide,
Tempting us from every wavelet,
Luring us from every side.

Yea! our barque is swiftly sailing,
Soon, ah! soon our voyage ends,
Then, oh! heavenly pilot guide us,
Guide us to the port of peace.
Anchor us within the harbor,
Land us on the pearly shore,
Where the breakers cannot reach us,
Where the billows cease to roar.

Love without return is like a question without an answer.

The largest room in the world—The room for improvement.

"We see," said Swift, in one of his most caustic moods, "what God thinks of riches by the people he gives to."

"Jack," said a man to a lad just entering his teens, "your father is drowned." "Dang it," replied the young hopeful, "and he's got my jack-knife in his pocket."

The Congregationalist explains what it means by "lightening bug piety"—Bright white it lasts, but cold and soon out.

Love others well, but love thyself the most; give good for good, but not to thine own cost.

If thine enemy wrong thee, buy each of his children a drum.

Love, knavery and necessity make men good orators.

The pleasures of the world are deceitful; they promise more than they can give. They trouble us in seeking them they do not satisfy us when possessing them, and they make us despair in losing them.

A Topeka lady sums up the first three years of her experience in married life as follows: "The first year he called me dear, the second year Mrs. A., and the third year old sorrel top."

A juryman remarked, "May it please yer honor, I am deaf in one ear." "Then leave the box," replied the Judge, "a jury must hear both sides."

NOTICE.—G. A. NORTINGTON, Esq., is our authorized Agent to receive and receipt for all monies due us for advertising Probate Notices.

PROBATE NOTICES.—See all new Probate notices in to-day's paper.

The latest dispatch from Connecticut says that State has gone Democratic, including the State ticket, Legislature, and everything. The election took place on Monday last.

Our Commissioners Court was in session last Monday, and adjourned the same day, after transacting all the necessary business coming before it.

The New York Herald is down on the inflation business, and threatens to secede from this glorious union if President Grant does not veto the $400,000-000 bill. If the New England states are to do the fighting in the new civil war which the Herald says will ensue if this bill becomes a law, we do not seriously believe there will be much blood spilled.

Yesterday and last night the rain poured down in this neck of timber, and we began to think there would be another freshet. Autauga creek rose some six feet, but is now falling. Too much rain for farming.

Our Circuit Court convenes on Monday next, 13th inst. Quite a number of people from Montgomery and Wetumpka visit our town during the sitting of our Circuit Court, and it would be a great accommodation to them if some one of our citizens would send a hack to Coosa station, on the S. & N. R. R., and bring them here. I would pay, and we hope somebody will send up a vehicle.

NEW GOODS AT J. FABER'S.—Our clever friend, Mr. J. Faber, of Prattville, has just received, at his store, his new stock of spring and summer goods, which he is now opening for the inspection of the public. He has some very beautiful calicoes, muslins, delaines, and other desirable goods, which we advise the ladies to call at once and examine, before they are all picked over. Faber, Hirscher and Franks are all polite, attentive and clever gentlemen, and will take great pleasure in showing you their new and cheap goods. Go soon if you wish to get bargains. 2c

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY ADVERTISER.—The Montgomery Daily Advertiser, edited by Messrs. W. W. Screws and M. M. Cooke, both able and accomplished writers, continues to improve in the quality and style of its reading matter, and is now emphatically one of the best Democratic daily papers in the State. The weekly Advertiser, containing thirty-six columns of choice reading matter, is offered at the low price of $2 per year. We take pleasure in commending both the daily and weekly Advertiser to all who wish to subscribe for a sound, reliable, well conducted Democratic newspaper.

POLLAK & CO. This clever firm, at the Dollar Store, Court Square, Montgomery, have just received one of the largest stocks of spring and summer goods ever brought to that city, which embrace a full line of ladies' dress goods, artificial flowers, hosiery and trimmings, gloves and shoes, as well as children's wear of all kinds and prices. Their stock of gentlemen's wear is very complete, and will be sold at very low rates. They have a full line of domestics and table linens, with a general stock of notions and fancy goods, all of which will be sold at New York wholesale prices. The polite and attentive Mr. Schram, one of the firm, the clever and obliging Prof. Goldsmith, and the accommodating attaches of the Dollar Store will spare no pains to please those who trade with them. Read the new advertisement in to-day's paper, and do not fail to call at the Dollar Store when you visit the city.

The contest for the Senatorship in Massachusetts remains still undecided. Dawes is still ahead.

EDITORIAL BRIEVITIES.

The spotted fever still rages at Kane, Greene county, Ill. There have been about 25 deaths from this disease at that place in the last 30 days.

A fashion critic says that the new bonnets are the old ones set down on for half an hour or so.

It is believed that the House committee on Territories will report in favor of the admission of New Mexico as a State.

Cincinnati wishes to be called the Athens of America. Being in the midst of grease, there is some excuse for its ambition. Its hog trade is rapidly increasing.

In Iowa a movement has been started to remove curtains, painted glass and other arrangements for concealment from the windows of saloons, making them public as dry goods stores.

Bald Mountain, North Carolina, threatens a volcanic eruption. The inhabitants and stock have emigrated.

The wheat crop throughout Alabama promises an abundant yield this season.

The Asheville Argus says everybody seems anxious for a return to specie payments, but it would be satisfied with a return to any kind of payments.

The late mild winter has extended to the Arctic regions, and the consequence is that the route of ocean steamers to Europe is full of immense icebergs.

It is said that the next crusade will be against the tobacco eaters.

Rev. Mr. Loyson, better known as Pere Hyacinthe, recently visited Rome with his wife and child, a visit that would have resulted fatally were times in Rome as they were a decade ago.

The Tennessee ladies who vowed in the interests of economy to wear nothing more expensive than calico dresses to church have kept their word. They have not heard a sermon since.

It is stated on authority by Kentucky papers that Congressman Beck is going to retire at the end of his present term, for the sake of his health and to look after his private business.

A number of white persons who had gone to Texas have returned, sick and disgusted, to Columbus, Ga.

Not including either School Officers, Justices of the Peace or Constables, there are 780 officers to be elected by the people next November.

Queen Victoria is now in the thirty-seventh year of her reign, and the fifty-fifth of her age. She has five children and twenty-one grand children.

Gen. Santa Anna is now at Jalapa, en route for the capital. Thirty-eight years ago he was President of Mexico, and now he returns on a visit.

Florida papers state that a rattlesnake has been killed on Lake Okeechobee with fifty-four rattles. That charming tail should be sent to Barnum.

An association has been formed in Montgomery to give aid to public charities and improvements.

The women's temperance crusade shows no signs of dying out, but is spreading on every hand.

The press convention is to meet in Birmingham May 10. The New York press are to be there in full force, and the Montgomery Advertiser says Mr. Henry Ward Beecher made a conditional pledge to be present.

Henri Rochefort an 2 or 3 of his communist companions have escaped from the convict colony of New Caledonia, and reached Australia. Rochefort has telegraphed to his friends in France for money and vows his purpose to come to the United States to lecture.

PITMAN'S PHONOGRAPHY is a hitherto been considered the shortest, most perfect and rapid system of Short-hand Writing. It, however, has several and in portable defects, being difficult to learn on account of its numerous rules, with an array of exceptions to them, and from the fact that several sounds have a multiplicity of signs, which are apt to delay and confuse even an experienced writer, who has to look which form he should use when he ought to be free from all thought except what the speaker is saying. These defects, and the necessity of a more simple and uniform system, have led to the perfection of a new system known as Elography, (derived from two Greek words meaning pleasant writing,) which is free from all irregularities, and is much easier, and thirty per cent shorter, than Pitman's. The whole principle of this new art may be acquired in a few days, and a month's practice of one hour daily in reading and writing will enable any one to use it with facility. This manual of Elography is published by Messrs. T. W. Evans & Co., of Philadelphia, a responsible firm, who will promptly fulfill the order they make in our advertising columns.

THE RURAL CAROLINIAN FOR APRIL.—The April number of this invaluable Magazine comes to us in good season, brimful of that class of practical and instructive reading matter which has characterized every issue from its inception to the present time, and which has won for it a deservedly high reputation among the agriculturists of the country. Both publishers and editor merit the warmest thanks of that large class of the industrial community of the South to whose interests and elevation it is chiefly devoted. We hope their efforts will be liberally rewarded by an annual increase in their subscription list until the beneficial influences of its practical lessons and heightened teachings shall be felt on the farm and at the fireside, throughout the length and breadth of the Sunny South. The terms are $2 per annum, with liberal Club rates. The publishers also give the choice of two beautiful chronicles to all subscribers, at prices astonishingly low. Address Walker, Evans & Cogswell, and William L. Dargie, Publishers, Charleston, S. C., who will send specimen copy free, if desired.

"Less cotton and more corn," is the cry of the Georgia papers, and the reports from various portions of the State show that that is the policy the planters are adopting.

The General Conference of the M. E. Church South will meet in Louisville about the end of April. It is composed of 400 members, representing 800,000 communicants. The last meeting was at Memphis, Tenn., four years ago.

A new religion is said to have sprung up in Persia which is spreading rapidly. The Grand Vizier favors it. Its followers do not believe in any prophet, and only worship the Almighty. The principal doctrines are praise of the Supreme Being, truth and virtue.

Butler is trying to put Pinchback into the House, Moron is trying to put him in the Senate, and the people of Louisiana are trying to put him into the Penitentiary. It is hard to tell which will win, although Justice stands the poorest chance!

DIAMONDS IN BRAZIL. We have been gratified by a visit from H. M. Lane, Esq., the agent for Ayer's Pills, Sarsaparilla and Cherry Pectoral, in South America, who has just visited the mines with his medicines, and described to us the process of taking gems from the earth. A driver places his gang of slaves in a mud hole, where the gems are found, and pans out the earth in the water, like gold washers. The negroes are naked, to prevent their secreting the diamonds in their clothes. They are required to work facing their overseer, and forbidden to raise a hand to the face, lest they should swallow the jewels when found. Yet the diamonds are taken away, by becoming so expert that they can snap them with their fingers from the pan to their mouth without detection. Ayer's medicines are their talismans for their diseases, and it was not difficult to exchange, with the negroes, Ayer's Pills in about even weight, for the rough stones in which the brilliants are holden.—Boston Leader.

THE FALL ELECTION.—There is a regiment of officials to be chosen in the state next November, without counting magistrates, coroners, or constables, so the Examiner says. A judge, a sheriff, a clerk, collector, a solicitor, an assessor, a treasurer, and 4 commissioners for each of the 65 counties, besides the 3 supreme court judges, the 12 circuit judges, 5 chancellors, the 7 state officers, the 9 members of congress 100 representatives, and 2 senators. Total, 853. A moderate estimate from present developments leads us to believe there will be 10 aspirants for each place, or 8530 men who expect to get their bread from the public crib.

The New York "Herald" devotes a column and a half of editorial to reasoning or persuading Gen. Grant into clapping a veto on the inflation bill. What Grant wants to know is, "will it pay?" in horses, seaside cottages, cigars, or bull pups?

The Tuskegee News asks: How many weekly newspapers in the state of Alabama take out state and county license? Let all answer, then we will give our reasons for asking. Let it be understood by the News that late decisions in the state courts have been rendered, declaring the act imposing a license on newspapers inoperative.

A Topeka lady sums up the first three years of her experience in married life as follows: "The first year he called me dear, the second year Mrs. A., and the third year old sorrel top."

The captain of the Mississippi river steamer Natchez has been held to bail in the sum of $10,000, for refusing the boat's bridal chamber to a colored couple by the name of Bolls.

The South and North Alabama Railroad has sold quite recently 1,000 acres more of land to the German colony at Culloman, Blount county. The number of settlers there in the past twelve months is close on to 1,000 and still continues.

Chancellor Turner has decreed the sale of the Selma, Rome & Dalton R.R. and all the property of the company, including 400,000 acres of public land. The decree was on the suit of Johnson & Steward, trustees of the first mortgage bondholders. The road is 236 miles long.

The temperance crusade has reached England. Several tribes of Good Templars began praying opposite public houses in London on Sunday, March 25. They did not take up their positions at the doors of the house, but in the street in front of them, but their exhortations did not seem to have much effect.

There is a Danbury legend to the effect that a party desiring to transact some private business with another, was invited by the other to step into a neighboring store. "But we will be disturbed there," said the first party. "Oh, no," said the second party, "they don't advertise."

TO THE PUBLIC. An advertisement is published in the daily papers this city since Tuesday last, signed by a combination of Montgomery Warehouse men, which they advertise a reduction of storage from 75 cents a month for bale of cotton, but upon enquiry, we are reliably informed from parties interested who are signers to the advertisement, that these War houses will charge hereafter 50 cents a bale storage for each and every month for any cotton remaining in their respective Warehouses. A glance at the last year's rates will satisfy any one, that whereas they charged 75 cents for the first and 50 cents for all succeeding months, that any one who stores his cotton with them this year, is compelled to pay for each bale he leaves there after the first month 12 1/2 cents more than he had to pay last season. This would make the Storage of one bale this season in 4 months $2, while they charged last year for the same period only $1.57 1/2 cents.

We the undersigned, desire to have it distinctly understood that we charge for all cotton in our Warehouse 50 cts for the first month, and only 25 cts for each succeeding month, thereby saving planters for a lengthened period of storage considerable money.

THE LIGHTNING ROD MAN.

In Blossburg, Pa., the other day, a lightning rod man drove up in front of a handsome edifice standing in midst of trees and shrubs, and spoke to Mr. Summers, who was sitting on the steps in front. He accosted Summers as the owner of the residence and said:

"I see you have no lightning rods on this house."

"Are you going to put any on?"

"Well, I hadn't thought of it," replied Summers.

"You ought to. A tall building like this is very much exposed. I'd like to run you one of my rods, twisted steels, glass leaders, in nickel plated tip—every thing complete. May I put one up to show you? I'll do the job cheap."

"Certainly you may if you want to. I haven't the slightest objection," said Summers.

During the next half hour the man had his ladders up and his assistants at work and at the end of that time the job was complete. He called Summers out into the yard to admire it. He said to Summers:

"Now that is well enough, but if it was my house I'd have another rod put on the other side. There's nothing like being protected thoroughly."

"That's true," said Summers, "it would be better."

"I'll put up another, shall I?" asked the man.

"Why, of course, if you think it's best," said Summers.

Accordingly the man went to work again and soon had the rod in its place.

"That's a first rate job," he said to Summers, as they both stood eyeing it.

"I like such a man as you are. Big hearted, liberal, not afraid to put a dollar down for a good thing. There's some pleasure in dealing with you. I like you so much that I'd put a couple more rods on that house, one on the north end and one on the south, for almost nothing."

"It would make things safer, I suppose," said Summers.

"Certainly it would, I'd better do it, hadn't I—hey?"

"Just as you think proper," said Summers.

So the man ran up 2 more rods, then came down and said to Summers, "There, that's done. Now let's settle up."

"Do what?"

"Why the job's finished, and now I'll take my money."

"You don't expect me to pay you I hope?"

"Of course I do. Didn't you tell me to put up those rods on your house?"

"My house?" shouted Summers. I never ordered you to put those rods up. It would have been ridiculous. "Why man, this is the court house, and I'm here waiting for the court to assemble. I'm on the jury. You seemed to be anxious to rush out, our rods, and as it was none of my business I let you go on. Pay for it! Come, now that's pretty good."

The Blossburg people say that the manner in which the lightning rod man tore round town was fearful. But when he got his rods off the court house he left.

Mr. Thomson, an American, was visiting Mr. Herbert, an Englishman and the latter, being interested in the study of phrenology, ordered his Irishman, Pat, to show Mr. Thompson his collection of skulls.

Pat accordingly led Mr. T. into a large apartment, where, taking up a large skull he said:

"Would ye mind this, sir. There is the skull of Africanus of Rome, sir, a great man, a general, and me owa particular friend."

"And this, one, sir," he exclaimed, picking up another, "is the skull of Coriolanus. Ah, sir, he was a great man. I didn't know him, meself individually, personally, but he was me father's confidential clerk. Ah, sir," he went on, "but here is the skull of em all. It is the skull of William Shakespeare, a great poet. Gracious, but he loved me brother!"

And so Pat continued bragging and lying at every step, when, after an interval of a half hour, he picked up an exceedingly small skull, and cried out, "Mr. Thompson, look ye here. Here is the skull of William Shakespeare."

"Hold on Pat," said Thompson. "You told me the big skull over there was William Shakespeare's. Ha! ha! I've caught you in a lie!"

"Indeed not yer honor," spoke up Pat, as quick as thought. "The big skull over there is the skull of William Shakespeare when he was an old man, and this is the skull of Shakespeare when he was a baby!"

The Only Known Medicine

AT THE SAME TIME.

Purge Purify and strengthen the system.

Their research has at last been forwarded by a discovery which fully realizes the long-cherished desire of the medical faculty, and which is justly regarded as the most important triumph that Pharmacy has ever achieved. This important desideratum is

Dr. TUTTS' VEGETABLE LIVER PILL

Which purify the blood and remove all corrupt humors and unhealthy accumulations from the body, yet produces no weakness or lassitude whatever, but on the contrary tones the stomach and invigorates the body during the progress of their operation. They unite the heretofore irreconcilable qualities of a Strengthening Purgative and a Purifying Tonic.

Dr. Tutts' Pills are the most active and searching medicine in existence. They at once attack the very root of diseases, and their action is so prompt that in an hour or two after they are taken the patient is aware of their good effects. They are taken at any time without restraint of diet or occupation, they produce neither nausea, griping or debility, and as family medicine they have no rival.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.
