

Statement of the Condition

CITY NATIONAL BANK

At the close of business February 27th, 1874.

RESOURCES:
Loans and discounts	$145,553.10
Overdrafts	1,754.73
United States bonds to secure deposits	230,000.00
Other stocks and bonds	4,300.00
Due from Federal Reserve Bank	21,932.55
Due from State Banks and Banks	4,270.40
Due from Merchants and Banks	15,000.00
Due from Farmers and Merchants	15,000.00
Current expenses	1,514.00
Reserve fund	1,514.00
Profits paid	20,000.00
Cash on hand	20,000.00
Checks and other cash	1,514.00
Due from National Banks	7,000.00
Due from State Banks	4,270.40
Due from Merchants and Banks	15,000.00
Due from Farmers and Merchants	15,000.00
Due from National Banks	7,000.00
Due from State Banks	4,270.40
Due from Merchants and Banks	15,000.00
Due from Farmers and Merchants	15,000.00
Total	$770,429.64

LIABILITIES:
Capital stock	$500,000.00
Surplus fund	27,000.00
Discount and exchange	4,270.40
Circulation	230,000.00
Individual deposits	10,741.24
Due to State Banks and Banks	10,741.24
Dividends unpaid	180.00
Total	$770,429.64

I, John W. Love, Cashier of the City National Bank of Selma, Alabama, do hereby certify that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

JOHN W. LOVE, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 24th day of March, 1874.

A. G. PARHILL, Notary Public.

CORRECT ATTEST: W. H. FELLOWS, J. H. CARROLL, Directors.

W. P. ARMSTRONG, Jr.

CENTRAL CITY Insurance Company.

Office, 27 Broad Street.

SELMA, ALABAMA.

Cash Assets, July 1st, 1873, $130,295.17.

DIRECTORS: H. A. STOLLENBERG, N. WOODRUFF, J. H. CARROLL, J. H. CARROLL, J. H. CARROLL.

Losses Paid Since Organization, $130,000.

Fire, Marine, and Inland Insurance effected on the most liberal terms, consistent with safety.

N. WOODRUFF, President.

N. D. GROSS, Secretary.

SELMA SAVINGS BANK.

NO. 27 BROAD STREET.

CAPITAL, $200,000.

DEPOSITS RECEIVED AND PAID OUT WITHOUT CHARGE.

RUYS AND SELLS EXCHANGE, COIN, STOCKS AND BONDS, AND MAKES COLLECTIONS ON ACCOUNTABLE POINTS.

Sells Drafts on England, Ireland, France and Germany.

H. A. STOLLENBERG, President.

ED. T. FOWLER, Cashier.

The Southern Argus.

SELMA, FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1874.

CITY AND COUNTRY.

REMARKS: For transient advertisements the Argus will charge one dollar a square for the first, and fifty cents a square for each subsequent insertion.

We believe it has raised here every day during the past week.

GENERAL J. T. MORGAN will deliver the oration at the cemetery to-morrow evening.

Died, in Orrville, 19th, Eugene Russell Berry, infant daughter of L. S. and P. M. Berry.

On the Alabama Central, the mail trains now arrive here at 11:20 a. m., and leave at 3:30 p. m.

MARRIED, in Autaugaville, the 16th, Mr. J. B. Smith and Miss Mary E. Lannar, formerly of the City.

MAJOR SAPPOLD will be at home to-morrow from a prolonged visit to New York and other northern cities.

The Odd Fellows anniversary festival in Washington Hall on Monday evening next will beyond doubt be a grand affair.

A COMMITTEE of the city authorities is investigating the outstanding bonds of the city in favor of the Selma and Gulf road.

On account of the high waters in the Black and Warrior rivers, no trains on the Alabama Central went out on Wednesday.

Three frame residences on the Summerfield road, just beyond the city limits, owned by Mrs. Ella Turner, was burned last Saturday morning.

A. M. FOSTER of Indiana will establish a box, lumber, and woodenware factory here if the people of Selma will furnish the money and let him run it.

DALLAS GRANGER PATRONS of Husbandry will have a regular meeting at their hall, over Titcomb, Scott & Co.'s store, at 7 1/2 o'clock this (Friday) evening.

This passenger train on the Alabama Central did not go out on Thursday. The road is unimpaired, but the superintendent will not send trains over the bridge while it is high as at present.

Mr. ROBERT HALL, treasurer of Dallas Grange, brings up a fine specimen of Tappanhead wheat, the stalks of which are over five feet long, and which is well-headed, almost ready for the harvest.

DR. A. S. GARNETT, for several years a citizen and practicing physician of Selma, has resigned his chair in the State University, and removed to Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will in future reside.

THIS river is again out of its banks here, and has a few feet of the flood of a few weeks ago, which only leaked a few inches of being up to the high water mark of 1871, and is rising rapidly, with heavy rains in all directions.

CAPTAIN HUBBARD PIERCE, of the firm of Pierce, Thompson & Co., of this city, now planning near Robinson Springs, Elmore county, was married in Montgomery, Tuesday morning last, to Miss Katie Myers of that city.

This attendance at the Masonic strawberry supper Wednesday night was very large, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and the event was one of the most enjoyable in every way of the season. The gross receipts were nearly $400.

Out of abundant caution, the southward-bound passenger train on the Selma, Rome and Dalton railroad stopped over at Rome Wednesday night, deeming it unsafe to risk a winter's over a treacherous flooded mountain stream at every low stage.

MR. M. W. WOOLLEY, late of the widely-known firm of Boswell & Woolley, of this city, and for many years one of our most active, energetic, capable, and reliable business men, has located (we hope not permanently) in Atlanta, Georgia, where he has established the headquarters of his agency at the Southern States of Collins's famous Opium Cure.

In the columns of the Daily Times, a correspondent writing over the signature of "Selma Times," is exceedingly and unbecomingly, for the majority of that court are utterly inaccessible to public opinion and utterly indelible to the public trust.

On Sunday last, the running schedule of the Selma and Montgomery road was changed. The accommodation train was discontinued, and the 7 o'clock p. m. train, for the purpose of assembling all the personal property within the city limits.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

By order of the Ladies Memorial Association at Selma, the 30th inst., will be observed as Memorial Day.

The merchants and other business men of Selma are requested to assemble at 4 o'clock p. m., on that day, at the Selma Grange, for the purpose of attending to the business of the day.

The democratic of Autauga County will hold a county convention in Autaugaville, June 28th.

On the 4th of July, the democrats of the several beats in Jefferson county will hold primary elections for delegates to a county convention to be held in Birmingham July 18th.

The fireman's parade in Montgomery the 10th was very large and imposing.

The following are the officers of the fire-boat congregation in Montgomery for the ensuing year: David Wells, president; Abraham Moore, vice president; Jos. Goetz, Jacob Leach, and E. H. Jacob, trustees.

A few days ago, a gentleman now in California made a remittance to a Jacksonville merchant in payment of a debt contracted twenty-three years ago.

The Jacksonville Republican has forty-one candidates' announcements in its columns.

There will be a grand good Templars' and Sunday school pupils' excursion from Jacksonville to Shelby Springs May 1st.

Suits on county bonds, by Henry Clevs & Co., against the counties of Chambers and Lee, were returned to court for judgment.

The Selma Grange, the Clergy, the Fire Department, the Board of Trade, the Medical Society, the Dallas Bar, and the citizens generally, are invited to join the procession.

Five persons escaped from the Lyndes county jail Wednesday night last week.

Four ladies attended the Templars' picnic at Littlehatch the 10th.

Opelika will observe the 27th as Memorial Day.

The Ladies of West Auburn, "Invincible Village of the plain," will have a strawberry festival May 1st.

E. G. Barney, late of the Selma, Rome and Dalton railroad, is residing in New Grand Rapids, South America, to build a canal.

Several citizens of Montgomery have purchased lots at Verbea, on the South and North railroad, where they intend to build summer residences.

D. Smith of Opelika has been appointed United States deputy collector, in place of Isaac Heyman resigned.

Huntsville city council has elected W. J. Humphrey, clerk; National Guard of Huntsville, treasurer; and J. H. Carver, Jr., clerk.

G. W. Blanton, chief of police; J. W. Polard, street superintendent; Milton Martin (negro), engineer of water works; Richard Scott, sheriff.

Huntsville pays her mayor $700, her clerk $800, her marshal $75 a month, and her policeman $53 a month.

In the state circuit court, Felix Drake (negro) was sentenced to be hanged the 22nd prox, for murder.

The Hale circuit court sent Charles Johnson (negro) to the penitentiary for life, for murder.

Hamilton Lodge of Good Templars, Greensboro, will celebrate its anniversary the 15th proximo.

John Hart sent strawberries to the Gadsden Times the 8th.

Water Standifer of Gadsden will be appointed to West Point from that congressional district.

Captain Frank Gurley is a candidate for sheriff of Madison county.

The Huntsville Methodist ladies are going to give an "old folks concert" soon.

The ladies of Dallas were announced to give a concert last Tuesday evening to raise a new organ for the Presbyterian church.

Sunday the 30th will be observed as Memorial Day in Talladega.

The Talladega Watchtower says: "All those who wish a splendid weekly paper, should do well to subscribe for the Southern Argus, Selma, Alabama—one of the best papers in the state. It is one of the largest weekly papers in Alabama, filled with interesting and valuable matter."

The Conecuh circuit court sentenced George Washington and Alf Bacon (negroes) to the penitentiary for two years each for an attempt to murder W. Durgen.

James Gaston's smoke house, at Ballville, was burned recently.

Bowen, the murderer of Carter Harrison, has escaped from the Escambia jail.

In the Coffee circuit court, a negro was convicted of rape and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Vegetation and fruit in Chambers county have not been injured by frost.

The Birmingham Independent says: "We are reliably informed that Rev. Father McDonough is to be promoted to the office of vicar general of the diocese, with headquarters at Mobile."

The Tuscaloosa democratic county executive committee call a county convention to meet in the city of Tuscaloosa, on Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m. Ladies are requested to take with them as many wreaths and bouquets as possible.

A grand picnic will be given at Sulphur Spring, Okla. county, May 1st, by the Selma cemetery society morning at 10 o'clock.

John D. Strange of Asheville wears a No. 8 hat.

Rev. Mr. Wright of Oxford is now the pastor of the Baptist church in Columbia.

The Shelby grand jury returned 41 true bills.

The residence, kitchen, and smoke house of Wm. Hardaway, of Shelby county, were burned the 10th.

In the Shelby circuit court, Brister Williams was convicted of murder, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

There are sixty students in the school of Mason & Williams at Montevallo.

W. E. Moore, of Jefferson county, has taken up land, and planted cotton, a few years ago.

A good four-room house in Birmingham is offered for rent at six dollars a month.

The Landerdale grand jury report the bonds of the county officials good and sufficient.

The merchants of Montgomery have organized a board of trade, J. B. Grayson, president; T. G. Cornish, vice-president; A. Y. Sharpe, secretary.

The democratic Hook and Ladder company has elected the following officers: Geo. J. Michael, president; Geo. E. Fegans, secretary; and T. A. Hall, treasurer.

Ex-Gov. Neuben Chapman, of Huntsville, has been visiting Livingston.

The Gainesville court at Gainesville was held on Wednesday and Thursday nights of this week.

Major W. E. Clarke, of Demopolis, is a candidate for judge of the seventh circuit.

The Prattville board has been announced to give a concert at Prattville, Ala., on the 10th inst.

P. J. Anderson is editor of the Opelika of the Etowah Whig, Mr. Monroe being temporarily absent.

Dr. J. J. Sanders, of Clinton, has bought the residence lately owned by the late Chancellor Clark, and will remove to Eatonsville.

The Green creek court sentenced Frank Wright, Jim Jones, Harrison Jones, Elias McCrackin, and others for burglary.

A meeting of the stockholders of the West Alabama agricultural and mechanical association will be held in Eatonsville May 4th.

The bridge at Sipsey Mills recently broke down.

Mr. Jones has been appointed superintendent of education in Marengo county.

On the 20th of May, the democrats of the several beats in Marengo will appoint delegates to a county convention to be held in Eatonsville.

About May 1st, the Troy Messenger will commence, under the auspices of "The Ladies Memorial Association" of Troy, a full, correct, and classified history of the battle of Gettysburg.

Several citizens of Montgomery have purchased lots at Verbea, on the South and North railroad, where they intend to build summer residences.

D. Smith of Opelika has been appointed United States deputy collector, in place of Isaac Heyman resigned.

Huntsville city council has elected W. J. Humphrey, clerk; National Guard of Huntsville, treasurer; and J. H. Carver, Jr., clerk.

G. W. Blanton, chief of police; J. W. Polard, street superintendent; Milton Martin (negro), engineer of water works; Richard Scott, sheriff.

Huntsville pays her mayor $700, her clerk $800, her marshal $75 a month, and her policeman $53 a month.

In the state circuit court, Felix Drake (negro) was sentenced to be hanged the 22nd prox, for murder.

The Hale circuit court sent Charles Johnson (negro) to the penitentiary for life, for murder.

Hamilton Lodge of Good Templars, Greensboro, will celebrate its anniversary the 15th proximo.

John Hart sent strawberries to the Gadsden Times the 8th.

Water Standifer of Gadsden will be appointed to West Point from that congressional district.

Captain Frank Gurley is a candidate for sheriff of Madison county.

The Huntsville Methodist ladies are going to give an "old folks concert" soon.

The ladies of Dallas were announced to give a concert last Tuesday evening to raise a new organ for the Presbyterian church.

Sunday the 30th will be observed as Memorial Day in Talladega.

The Talladega Watchtower says: "All those who wish a splendid weekly paper, should do well to subscribe for the Southern Argus, Selma, Alabama—one of the best papers in the state. It is one of the largest weekly papers in Alabama, filled with interesting and valuable matter."

The Conecuh circuit court sentenced George Washington and Alf Bacon (negroes) to the penitentiary for two years each for an attempt to murder W. Durgen.

James Gaston's smoke house, at Ballville, was burned recently.

Bowen, the murderer of Carter Harrison, has escaped from the Escambia jail.

In the Coffee circuit court, a negro was convicted of rape and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

Vegetation and fruit in Chambers county have not been injured by frost.

The Birmingham Independent says: "We are reliably informed that Rev. Father McDonough is to be promoted to the office of vicar general of the diocese, with headquarters at Mobile."

The Tuscaloosa democratic county executive committee call a county convention to meet in the city of Tuscaloosa, on Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m. Ladies are requested to take with them as many wreaths and bouquets as possible.

A grand picnic will be given at Sulphur Spring, Okla. county,

