Of Lauderdale.

Such being the reputation of these gentlemen, it is only as a mere matter of politeness that we favor our readers with the following sketches:

Hon. Brutus Falk, formerly the property of A. W. Falk, is well known to this community as an excellent hand at preparing an "opossum supper." Further commendation at our hands is unnecessary.

Hon. Wm. R. Chisholm, be it said to his credit, is the man who, at the call of a minority of the voters of his district, went to Montgomery to contest his right to a seat in the Alabama Senate. His early laurels were won as County Superintendent of Education.

Hon. F. "Grundy" Lambeth, late of West Tennessee, Record.

Hon. Peter Myers first made for himself a name and fame by deserting the Confederate cause. The interest he manifests in the property of his neighbors and friends is sufficient guaranty that he would hold fast to the public funds placed in his hands.

Hon. John H. Price is the man who did not secure the location of the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Florence, but who did secure $300. Hon. T. T. Allington is the man who, after all, is to give weight to "our ticket." As a genius he has few equals, and no superiors. In literature we consider him the peer of "Sol. Ricketts." His power as a poet is attested by the following stanzas:

"So get down off your old bald-faced horses,
And turn them on the clover,
For they are tired carrying little Tommy Slosses,
And when they are down they can't turn over."

"Willies and Billies, and Georgies and Bobs,
And with his jack-knife whittles off chair knobs."
"When battles were raging fierce and hot,
Our Mack was in camp, close to the fullest pot."

"General Grant was a bad man as we all know,
But Horace Greeley is mighty good,
O'Neal and Pickett both said it was so,
And proved the fact by W. B. Wood."

Hon. Charles Jackson, record black.

Hon. Henry Clay No. 2, late from parts unknown, is said to have fought for the maintenance of the Union and the freedom of his brethren during the late unpleasantness.

He is a self-made man. Coming to this country a short time since as a lightning rod peddler, he has risen to the position of editor-in-chief of a large and influential paper. It is recorded that Mr. C. is the "author of some of the rarest gems in newspaper literature." His connection with the jurist and poet, the Hon. Tumble T. will give him strength.

There has been since the war, and still is, much petty lawlessness in the land, and it is highly important that it should be suppressed. The difficulty of getting a speedy trial of misdemeanors in the Circuit Court is well known. At great expense to the county and inconvenience to the people they are continued from term to term for the trial of the graver charges. The witnesses die or leave the State, and this class of criminals frequently go unwhipped of justice. The law makers, sensible of this, passed an act (Sec. 4631, of the Revised Code,) giving the several Judges of Probate jurisdiction of these cases and requiring them to hold monthly terms of the County Court for the trial of the same. In most of the counties, the judges in obedience to this law, have been holding their Courts and thereby relieving the people of much inconvenience and expense. The Solicitor, seeing that misdemeanors were common in our county, and recognizing the fact that it was difficult to get a trial and next to impossible to convict in the Circuit Court, urged "our judge" to hold monthly terms of his Court for the trial of these offences. But the judge heeded not the Solicitor, neither regarded he the law.

This was made known to the Legislature and at the last session an act was passed in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

To require the Judge of Probate of the county of Lauderdale to hold monthly terms of the County Court for the trial of misdemeanors.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Alabama, That the Judge of the Probate Court of Lauderdale county be, and he is hereby required to hold monthly terms of the county court in accordance with section 4631 of the Revised Code of Alabama.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That a judge failing to comply with the provisions of the previous section of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars, and removed from office.

Approved December 17, 1873.

But "our judge," in utter contempt of the wishes of the people and the laws of the land, still refuses and neglects to hold his Courts in accordance with the act above mentioned. And yet our Judge has the temerity to announce himself as a candidate for reelection to an office the duties of which he fails and refuses to discharge! Would it be wise, would it be proper, to elect a man to administer the laws when he himself disregards them? Voters, we propound this question for your thoughtful and serious consideration.

Since the above was written, the Hon. T. T. Allington has announced that, in accordance with an act of the Legislature, approved "December 17, 1874," he will hold monthly terms of the County Court for the trial of misdemeanors. This act, as will be seen, was approved December 17, 1873, and the Judge has, up to this time, failed to hold court in obedience thereto.

The Wayne county Citizen says: "Alabama has now three factories, the largest is at Tallapoosa, which runs 18,000 spindles; and there are two others at Prattville."

Not quite so fast. In addition to the three mentioned above, Lauderdale county has two, Colbert one, and Tuscaloosa one, to our own certain knowledge. We think there are others in the State.

"What our Friends say about us."

The Florence Republican (Radical), says that the editor of this paper "will be so badly butchered by the voters of the 6th District, that his hide will not be worth tanning." No doubt the wish is father to the thought, as it appears the Rads. all hate us, and say hard things of us. But this effort of the Republican, at wit, at our expense, makes us think of the awful fate of the man "nibbled to death by a goose." "Don't you want a bottle of hair straightener," or a "stake pin" to mark off the darkies' "forty acres?"—[Limestone News.

We clip the following sensible and well-timed article from the Jefferson Independent:

The season of planting has again arrived and we beseech our agricultural friends to plant corn abundantly; they may rest assured it is the most profitable crop they can raise, and it always finds a market at home with quite as remunerative prices as can be obtained for cotton.

In order to raise the meat to support your families, you must have corn, and how much more independent it is to raise it yourself, than to be obliged to obtain it from the West—Bacon is another necessity and with abundance of corn in your own crib, there will be no need of getting your supply from either St. Louis, Cincinnati or Louisville, for with a well filled corn crib, you can have a supply of well fed hogs to replenish your smoke house.

The culture of corn, grain and vegetables, pays a hundred per cent better than that of cotton at your own doors, you find a ready market for all the edibles you can raise and it is so easily to devote time, labor and soil to a staple that is peaceable at best, greatly dependent upon the seasons, and deteriorated in value, because the market is annually glutted with an overplus.

There was a great crowd of French people at Chislehurst to-day to celebrate to 18th anniversary of the birth of Prince Lewis Napoleon. Over 6,000 cards of admission were issued, and those to French persons only. In the morning Mass and thanksgiving services were held, after which the Duke of Padua addressed the Prince in the name of the French persons present, congratulating him on having attained his majority.

The Prince, in his remarks in reply, returned thanks to his countrymen for their faithful remembrances of the late Emperor, and in conclusion said: "Despite the confidence inspired by the loyalty of MacMahon, an irresistible current of public opinion has pronounced in favor of plebiscite. I am ready to accept its verdict."—(Ex.

Mr. Charles Gayarre has issued a pamphlet showing that the debts of Louisiana—including the State debt, that of New Orleans, and the debts of the rural parishes—amount to about $60,000,000. The State owes $30,000,000, the city $25,000,000 and the rural parishes $5,000,000. Mr. Gayarre assumes $40,000,000 to be the yearly result of production in Louisiana, all of which is required to support the inhabitants, and that $150,000,000 represents the market value of all the property in the State.—Mont. The Memphis Appeal says, "coffins and human bones are exposed to view in that part of Winfield Cemetery where the new street passes. Old and young look with wonder and horror upon this sickening sight, and decency at least suggests the removal of the exposed coffins and bones."

Bald Mountain is between Crooked Creek and Broad River, in McDowell county, North Carolina. The mountain extends into Rutherford county, and is usually called Stone Mountain. The people within twenty-five miles have been alarmed for twenty days by quivering of the earth and sounds like artillery. All attributed the phenomena to Bald Mountain. Some fifty dwellers on Bald Mountain slopes say it seemed as though the mountain was giving away; cattle alarmed have left their usual ranges. The people gathered together in one locality and were frightened into prayer. Preachers of various denominations present, stated that an acre of the peak sunk and smoke issued.

PATIENCE DOW.

Home from the mill came Patience Dow;
She did not smile, she would not talk;
And now she was all tears, and now,
As fierce as a captive hawk,
Unmindful of her faded gown,
She sat with faded hands all day,
Her long hair falling tangled down,
Her sad eyes gazing far away,
Where, past the fields, a silver line,
She saw the distant river shine.
But, when she thought herself alone,
One night they heard her muttering low,
In such a chill, despairing tone,
It seemed the east wind's sullen moan;
"Ah me! the days, they move so slow!
I care not if they're fair or foul;
They creep along—I know not how;
I only know he loved me once—
He does not love me now!"

One morning, vacant was her room;
And, in the clover wet with dew,
A narrow line of broken bloom
Showed some one had been passing through;
And following the track, it led Across a field of summer grain,
Out where the thorny blackberries shed
Their blossoms in the narrow lane,
Down which the cattle went to drink
In summer, from the river's brink.
"The river!" Hope within them sank;
The fatal thought that drew her there,
They knew, before, among the rank,
White-blossomed weeds upon the bank,
They found the shawl she used to wear,
And on it pinned a little note:
"Oh blame me not!" it read, "for when I once am free, my soul will float
To him! He can not leave me then!
I know not if it's right or wrong—
I go from life—I care not how;
I only know he loved me once—
He does not love me now!"

In the farm graveyard, 'neath the black,
Funeral pine trees on the hill,
The poor, worn form the stream gave back
They laid in summer, cold and still.
Her secret slept with her, none knew Whose fickle smile had left the pain
That cursed her life; to one thought true,
Her vision-haunted, wandering brain,
Secure from all, hid safe from blame,
In life and death had kept his name.
Yet often, with a thrill of fear,
Her mother, as she lies awake
At night, will fancy she can hear
A voice, whose tones is like the dream
Low sound the graveyard pine-trees make:
"I know not it, is right or wrong—
I go from life—I care not how;
I only know he loved me once—

A Young Lady with a Snake in Her Stomach.

A young lady, about twenty-two years old, living about nine miles from town, on the Shelbyville pike is said to be afflicted in a singular and horrible manner. Many individuals living near her as well as a couple of physicians of the neighborhood, relate substantially the same facts in regard to this extraordinary case. The young lady enjoyed good health until about four years ago, when she began having fainting spells of frequent occurrence; the attacks recently becoming severe and terminating in convulsions. She has been under medical treatment for more than a year, but all remedies were of no avail, and she continues to grow worse. It is now discovered that there is some kind of a reptile in her stomach, which comes into her throat, choking her to such an extent that she is thrown into convulsions, her muscles becoming rigid, her extremities cold, the pupils of her eyes dilated and the skin breaking on her hands and face. The reptile has been seen frequently by different persons, and is said to be about a half inch in diameter, of a black color, and covered with a villous or hairy coating. It comes up into her throat, and sometimes into her mouth, about three o'clock in the afternoon. She has refused until recently to permit its extraction, thinking to do so would cause her death. Physicians have been attending her recently for the purpose of relieving her of this terrible affliction as otherwise she cannot live much longer.—[Marionboro Monitor.]

The Word "Female."

The use of this word for women is one of the most unpleasant and inexcusable of the common perversions of language. It is not a Britishism, although it is much more in vogue among British writers and speakers than among our own. With us, lady is the favorite euphemism for women. For every one of the softer and more ambitious sex who is dissatisfied with social position, or uncertain of it, seems to share Mrs. Quickly's dislike of being called a woman. There is no lack of what it called authoritative usage during three centuries for this misuse of female, as I may show, should I undertake the discussion of Americanism, so called. But this is one of those perversions which are not justified by example, however eminent. A cow or a sow, or any sex brute, is a female, just as a woman is; as a bull is, or a boar; and no woman calls herself a female without thereby sharing her sex with all the brute creation.—[Rural New Yorker.]

A WOMAN BURIED ALIVE.

Correspondence of the Sun.]
Chapmanville, Pa., March 4.—Two weeks ago a woman named Martha Coggeswell, wife of Anthony Coggeswell, a drover, died, as was supposed, in this village, and was buried. Her husband was absent at the time. His first knowledge of his wife's death was on Saturday last, when he returned home. Almost wild with grief, he insisted on her body being exhumed, so that he could see the remains. This was done, and the coffin was opened in the presence of several friends. To the unutterable horror of all, the body had changed its position in the coffin, showing that Mrs. Coggeswell had been buried while she was in a trance. The body was lying on its face. Evidences of a fearful struggle made by the unfortunate woman when she recovered consciousness in the coffin was visible. The flesh was torn from one shoulder; and the shroud was covered with blood. When Mr. Coggeswell saw what a terrible fate his wife had met, he fell senseless across the coffin, and has been a raving maniac ever since.

Henry Ward Beecher, in a recent "Friday Night Talk," had this to say of the great question, "Shall we know our friends in heaven?" "If you take away all falsehood, all sin, you get a very good idea of heaven. It is enough for me to know that in the other life every one is wiser; the best things become common. It does not follow that the feeling will be the same in the other life. There will be the mother's feeling. How? I don't know. Shall I know my friend? Friendship is imperishable. It will be a thousand times better; the feeling won't die out; it will be large, grander. You can afford to let the 'how' go. It is a thought that has given great comfort to my mind. I, too, stumbled over that thought—shall I know my father and mother? Shall friendships formed here be left? (I don't believe I ever formed a friendship that died out.) I am satisfied that the essential qualities will not only exist, but be higher; no matter how. It is enough to know that you will be satisfied on every point. Suppose you were distressed in business and a friend said, 'Leave this matter to me. You can trust me. I will attend to it. You say how?—No matter how. You know I can and will do it, and that is enough.' Would you not let him do it? And so in regard to the other life. I say life that loved me so well as to give his life for me will not deceive me. I shall be satisfied. There are other questions coming up, such as Do those gone to heaven think of us? Now, it will do us no harm to say, Yes, they do. If thinking of it gives you the least bit of comfort, then think so.

SUSPENDED ANIMATION.—A case of suspended animation is reported from Kingston, Green Lake county, Wisconsin. On Saturday, the 14th ult., a young lady named Mary Vintz, living near that place, was seized with dizziness, fell upon a lounge, and to all appearances died in about half an hour. The funeral services took place at a German church four miles distant on Monday, but as the body had not become rigid the coffin was allowed to remain in the church to await results. It is under the care of watchers. Every two or three hours purple, pink and scarlet spots appear on the face and disappear in a short time, but there is no appearance of mortification setting in. The joints are limber and the skin as soft as that of a person in health. The case attracts considerable attention.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vin- egar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BIR-TERS?" The answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Induration of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of Dr. WALKER'S
VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Cathartic, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Altera-
tive, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VIN-EGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, in their entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

For the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.
One bottle will prove a better guarantee of merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, White
Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck,
Gout, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent
Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Itch, Etc., In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remit-tent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

gaged in Painting and Mineral, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VIN-EGAR BITTERS occasionally.
