THE CURRENCY INFLATION.

A petition to Congress against inflation of the currency, in circulation in New York, says the Memphis Appeal, has received the signature of a large number of prominent Bankers of that city, such as Duncan, Sherman, Drexels, Roberts, Cisco, Grinnell, Miniard, Aspinwall, Howland, Haymeyer, Stewart, and others. It recites briefly that they view with alarm the propositions now before Congress for increasing the volume of the currency. They believe that an additional issue of paper money, either directly by the Government, or indirectly by the national banks, by authority of the government, would be most injurious to the interests of the nation. The country is now suffering, and has been for the last twelve years, great loss and inconvenience arising from an irredeemable currency; values of all kinds of merchandise and other property are continually fluctuating, owing to the continually changing price of gold, and thus no certain calculations can be made in business. Speculation of all kinds is stimulated by the excessive volume of the currency, and the mind of the whole nation is demoralized and rendered unfit for the pursuits of steady industry. They earnestly urge that a resumption of specie payments at the earliest practicable time is imperatively required by the true interests of the country, and deprecate the issue of any more currency, as such proceeding would postpone indefinitely, a return to a sound financial condition. They deprecate the issue of any more greenbacks, and suggest a loan as likely to afford immediate relief to the government without injury to the business interests of the country.

The Memphis Appeal remarks:—The bad men who fill our legislative bodies, make our laws and secure the offices, would never reach places of power, if those who ignore politics and denounce politicians would perform their duty.

In 1860 the business of the country was carried on by a circulating medium of $450,000,000, of which $200,000,000 were in State bank notes and the rest in coin. With this amount prices were at gold values and gold at par.

The Governor of Florida recommends that that State deal with Littlefield and other carpet baggers as New York has dealt with Tweed.

—In the Massachusetts Legislature a few days ago, Mr. John Quincy Adams denounced the proposed Centennial exposition at Philadelphia as a scheme whose sole purpose was to make money, as unworthy the nation and the occasion.

Capt General Jouvenel has fears of the Havana mob, and his situation is by no means a pleasant one, just now.

The people of New York are moving in earnest towards the relief of the thousands of suffering and destitute poor in that city.

Mrs. Jeff Davis will remain in New Orleans during the absence of her husband in Europe.

P. B. S. Pinchback says that he will not leave Washington until his struggle for a seat in the United States Senate has been definitely settled.

A Brooklyn paper asserts that a million a year has been stolen from the people of that city, by the ring, for ten years past, and sums up the amount already said to be confessed, at $2,000,000.

The Constitutional Convention of Ohio has elected Hon Rufus King President, in the place of Morrison R. Waite, resigned.

The dissection of the Stamese Twins progresses but slowly. In a few days now we shall be possessed of all the facts regarding their lives and the uses and nature of the ligament which joined them. An effort is being made to exhibit the bodies, now embalmed, in all parts of the country.

—Red Cloud, and Spotted Tail are again on the rampage and there seems a lively prospect for a general Indian war on the frontier, while the government is hurrying forward the necessary troops. Citizens of Nebraska are appealing to the secretary of war for arms to protect themselves with.

For Governor.

Years ago, before the war, from the reporter's gallery, in Washington we had the opportunity from day to day, from week to week and from month to month, to note the course pursued by Hon. George S. Houston then representing one of the congressional districts of Alabama. He won and sustained the reputation of being an honest man, whose sterling integrity and moderate views on the public measures and political subjects of the day, commanded the respect of his colleagues. Of course, during the war his lot was cast with the south, and like a true man his actions were in accord with his sympathies.

Now that peace reigns in Alabama we are glad to observe that the people of both parties in this state are inclined to select as candidates for public offices, men of moderate views as well as of sterling merit. The Greensboro Beacon suggests that the nomination of Mr. Houston for Governor would be the best the democratic party have made since the war. We are inclined to that opinion, and though neither Mr Houston or any other man or any other party, will be supported by the Graphic, in the political canvass we now express the opinion that the nomination of that gentleman for the highest office in the state is one eminently fit to be made. —Mobile Daily Gr. phic.

OLD BULLION.

Thirty-five years ago Thomas H. Benton delivered a speech upon finances in the United States Senate, in the course of which he made some remarks which bear upon a prominent issue to-day. One passage was as follows: "One of the highest functions of money is to measure values. That is a function paper cannot perform.—The measure of values must itself possess intrinsic value and must itself be free from sudden or material variations of value. As well might you attempt to make a measure of lengths out of that which has no length; a measure of weight out of that which has no weight; a measure of quantities out of that which has no capacity to hold any quantity, as to endeavor to make a measure out of that which has no intrinsic value.—The precious metals alone can constitute a measure of values; paper money can measure the value of nothing, not even of itself; its own value is externally measured by its reaction—by its convertibility—into specie."

The "Alta California" gives some facts as to the wealth of California last year. It places the product of the precious metals at $72,258,098 of which $68,000,000 property belongs to this coast, showing an increase for the year of about $10,000,000. The wheat export reaches over $21,000,000 for the current year—an increase of $10,000,000 over 1872. The two items together, therefore, show an increase of $20,000,000 in the two leading industries of the State. As a matter of course, every branch of business has felt the influence. The aggregate exports are estimated at $80,000,000 or $130 per head of inhabitants. The importation of goods has, on the other hand, been moderate; and as a result, money has remained very easy, notwithstanding the panic at the East and the high rate of interest in London.

Senator Carpenter, in his speech in the senate upon the Louisiana question, absolutely repudiated the whole Durrell-Kellogg-Pinchback-Casey-Grant usurpation. He says that the whole thing is a fraud upon the people and should be squelched. Another wave from the hay seed flood that has commenced sweeping the country from the north-west will probably cause "some more" senators to open their eyes to the situation.

The National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, convened in its seventh annual session on the 4th inst. Thirty-two States and two Territories were represented. Mr. Dudley Adams, Master, presided.

The New York Herald says:—Considerable uneasiness prevails in Havana, caused by the resolution of the government to draft a portion of the volunteers for active duty. The Captain General feels it necessary to establish a special guard at the palace, in order to be prepared to suppress any riotous demonstration. The news from the insurgent district is very meagre; but the government reports that the troops have killed Pedro Urquiza, a member of the Cuban government. Even if this is true it will not affect in the least the progress of the war. Aramonte was a much more important leader, and his death intensified rather than weakened the insurrection in Camaguey.

All fears of a failure in the ice crop are now dissipated, as an abundance of it will now be gathered, many thousands of men being engaged along the Hudson, alone, in cutting it.

The anti Whiskey crusade by the Ohio women still grows more formidable and seems to be gaining strength each day. The other States have caught the infection and the cohorts are "still marching on."

Pay Cash

For Your

Drugs!

That cry last year brought many to buy drugs from us. We wonder what it would take to bring them all up to pay for what they bought! A young gent said the other day that Hoffman & Co. had been making him presents all through the year, and he thought, as Christmas had come, that he ought to make them one. (He meant pay his account.) Reader, have you any thoughts like this? If you have not paid your accounts to date, you ought to have them. But cotton is too low; you cannot afford to sell at present prices, and you won't. If your debts are paid, it is nobody's business when you sell. If they are not, you are speculating on other men's money without their consent.

But as everybody does not see this—we have sent away our Book-keeper, and intend to sell Drugs for cash until we get money enough to hire another one.

—The buildings on the old Allen place, 2 1/2 miles west of town, and which were sometime since occupied by S. W. Chapin, were burned on Thursday night of last week. For an hour or two a bright light was seen in that direction. No one was living on the place at the time, we are informed.

BLANK MORTGAGES.—In any quantity, for sale at the office of the "Athens Post" cheap for CASH.

—Huntsville has lost one of her best citizens in the death of Theophilus Lacey, cashier of the Huntsville National Bank, who died in that city recently. He was a man of spotless character and held the respect and esteem of all.

—McCoy's Missouri band of robbers and outlaws, are at it again. A few nights ago they waylaid an express agent, knocked him down, took his safe key and "went through" the safe to the tune of some $3,000. These are said to be the same gentry who robbed the Hot Springs stage and the Iron Mountain railway train.

A late improvement in the burglar proof safes is to line the interior with steel rods which revolve easily. The advantage is said to consist in the fact that after drilling through the outside casing of the safe the bit will strike one of these rods and be deflected from its course. It will either not take hold or it will be broken, thus preventing the lock from being cut out.

"No Time Here."

The wheels of Time must be clogged, if we are to judge from the face of our Town Clock, which denotes fourteen minutes to 9 o'clock; and remains as dumb as a mummy. Why is this? The clock cost the county of Limestone some twelve hundred dollars and has been to all classes of our people so indispensable a convenience, that all have felt that they would not be without it for three times the sum. The regular routine of business and the conduct of the affairs of the household are all disarranged or deranged by the clock being allowed to remain in its present condition. The proper authorities, to whom the blame attaches should remedy this thing at once, by voting to pay a suitable compensation to some one to attend to the winding up and keeping the Town Clock in order. Will this be done, or will it be allowed to remain a useless ornament? We shall see.

MUNSEY, THE GIFTED AND FEARLESS ORATOR, TO-NIGHT.

—The Town Charter of Athens allows the firing of guns and explosion of gun powder on several of our prominent holidays, but the birthday of Washington (day-after-tomorrow) falling on Sunday, this year, the gunpowder will be used on young America, no doubt much to the delight of citizens who love quiet and order. Accept the situation, boys.

The drawing, by Gen. Higgins of the plan and elevation for the front of "Jack" Russell's new Residence, is decidedly pretty, and if the design is adopted, the building, when completed, will be a very attractive one. The drawing is just such one as we know Gen. Higgins' excellent taste would suggest.

Press Tanner's family arrived here from Nashville on Wednesday evening, and will reside here in future.

—Henry Crenshaw has purchased half the right of the celebrated "Magic Soap," which is now having an extensive sale, and which is by far the best thing in this line we have ever seen. It removes all grease spots and stains, with remarkable rapidity, and leaves the cloth with an appearance of being entirely new. We have tried it and speak by the card, Try a box of it.

—Many Valentines passed through the P. O. Saturday, for distribution here; most of them, however, being on the comic or ridiculous order.

—R. B. Mason and Berthold Lang left for New Orleans on Sunday last, so as to be in good time and on hand on the 17th. Exum Brittle left for Memphis by same train, to see the "Elephant," there.

—A fellow attempted to ride into the Executive Mansion at Washington, leaving the car on the track, but was taken down from his high horse and sent to the Lunatic Asylum, it being found that he was insane.

—Go to night. You may never have another opportunity of hearing Rev. Dr. Munsey, whose fame as an orator is not confined to America alone, but is world-wide.

—The State Executive Committee of the Democratic and conservative party of Alabama, meets in Montgomery on next Thursday the 26th inst.

—The Dadeville "Headlight" says: "There have been very few mortgages made up to the present time for supply, and we hope that our farmers will keep clear of them as much as possible."

How stands the case in Limestone County? Can the same be said of our own people? We fear not!

—It is gratifying to notice, as we do through our exchanges, that farmers in many parts of our state intend planting their lands largely in grain, this year, and only a small acreage in cotton. We hope our planting friends in Limestone county will follow this wise example and plant an abundance of cereals, and everything necessary for home consumption and give a second thought to cotton. Until this is done we need not look for much prosperity among our people.

—We direct the special attention of our readers to the new advertisement of Messrs Skinner & McGavock and ask for it a careful reading. The commercial fertilizers, mentioned, have been subjected to all kinds of tests, and in every case fully established the superior standard claimed for them. This house offers inducements to cash buyers, in their different lines of goods. Call on them on the North West corner of the public square.

A ship completely rigged and supplied with all the means of navigation save a rudder, would have a hard time in getting across the ocean. So you may stock a store with all that is desirable or salable, but unless you make that fact known, or give some symptoms of animation, your store and goods will be like a ship at sea without a rudder. You must make a noise. Why, people in these times would neglect their salvation if the bells did not call them to prayers.—Exchange.

Says the Enfield Times. A young gentleman of Enfield received a circular which read as follows: "If you would learn how to make home happy, send a postage stamp and twenty-five cents to post office box No. 40, Cincinnati?" He sent the money, and received this reply:—"If you are as big a fool as we think you must be for giving us your money, you can make home happy by leaving it and going West yourself."

—The announcements of G. W. Cain, the present incumbent, and John H. Davis, appear under the proper headings as candidates for County Treasurer.

—Go early and secure your seats for Dr. MUNSEY's lecture, to-night.

—Mr. J. H. Hine will soon move to the residence formerly occupied by him on East side of town near the Big Spring.

—Mr. Wm. J. Tucker died at his home in Monroeville, in this county, a few days since, after a short illness.

Sunday next—the anniversary of the birth of Washington.

Dark and gloomy weather the past week.

We learn that Tom Nixon has met with a streak of remarkably good luck, in these hard times.

The Rev. Dr. Munsey lectured at Shelbyville, Tenn, last week to an immense concourse.

Several of our citizens who went to Memphis, returned Thursday morning.

In Louisiana the ploughing is all done upon the plantations, gardens made and planted, and the green potatoes are up high enough to hoe. Lettuce, strawberries, &c, are abundant.

Rev. Dr. Munsey was expected by the south bound train on yesterday but did not arrive. Presume he will be here this (Thursday) afternoon.

—STAND FROM UNDER. A fellow, (from way up North of course) sends us an advertisement to be paid for in the American. Bless Sarlines, another in Golden Gate Bazaar, a third, in new fangled trace chains. Great Heavens!—Next.

—Rev. J. K. Armstrong preached an excellent sermon at the Methodist Church, on Sunday last. The sermon at night, by him, was the conclusion of the subject of the morning sermon.

—Rev. W. H. Armstrong, brother of President Armstrong, of the Female Institute, is now situated at Cherokee, Ala., where the people are highly pleased with him and his interesting family.

—Says an exchange: The man who enters a drinking saloon in Ohio at this time is apt to find himself in the midst of a woman's prayer-meeting, as he goes out.

—A dispatch received this (Thursday) evening from Dr. Dr. Munsey, says he will certainly be here to-morrow.

—Doctors (full fledged) H. E. Crenshaw and D. M. Richardson, will shortly return home from Bellevue Medical College, New York City, the session then closing. "Hamp" and "Mittie" have been away some months.

—"The one thing," says Jean Paul, "which a maiden most easily forgets is how she looks—hence mirrors were invented."

While Bobby Townsend was driving home from preaching at Elk-mont, on Sunday last, the horses attached to the buggy in which Miss Sue Tanner, of this place was also riding, became frightened and ran away, throwing both out. Both received some bruises, but we are glad to learn received no serious injuries.

—"Follow travellers," said a colored preacher, "if I had been eating dried apples for a week, and den took to drink for a month, I couldn't feel more swelled up than I am this minute with pride and vanity at seeing such a full tendance here dis evening!"

A subscription is being taken to fit up the east room in the basement of the M. E. Church, so as to make a handsome Lodge room for the Good Templars.

—The performance of Dr. Billy Crenshaw's band, at the Female Institute, on New Years eve night, was so very creditable and such a success, that being heard of at Nashville, they are wanted there for the Orchestra in one of the Theatres. Take 'em up, Billy.

—Jean Paul says: "When a man walks squarely up to the clergyman who married him three years before, takes him by the hand cordially, and without a word of reproach, inquires after his health, it is useless for any one to maintain that Christianity for goodness is a thing of the past."

Can't you manage to give my son one of the prizes at the exhibition at asked a mother of a teacher. No mad am, was the reply, your son will stand no chance; he obstinately persists in idleness. "Oh but then," exclaimed the fond mamma, "if that's so, you can give him a prize for perseverance!"

A prisoner in petty court, was asked by the Judge whether he had any counsel. "Yes, he said, I had engaged an old bald-headed fellow to defend me, but I don't see him round, I guess he's out for a drink."

—During the meeting of the State Lodge of Good Templars of the Grand, at Tuscaloosa, last summer, where he was present, and met so many eminent Temperance men, we doubt if there was in that body a more zealous and untiring co-worker in the cause than our friend, C. M. Hayes, and it is no surprise to us to learn that he has just been appointed Deputy Grand Worthy Chief Templar for this county. He surely merits it, and a still higher position, we believe, awaits him. He will give his most earnest efforts and best attention to any section of the county which desires to organize a Lodge. Communicate with him and he will be prompt and to the minute.

Came to his death while being hit on the head with a long-handled stove pipe in the hands of his affectionate wife, was the verdict in a recent case in Illinois.

When a young farmer's wife made her first boy, pants, precisely the same before, behind, the father exclaimed: "Goodness! he won't know whether he's going to school or coming home!"

LOVE'S COMING.

"Break into beautiful blossoms,
O buds of the sunny May
And sing my robin and blue-bird,
Your sweetest carol to-day—
For my love has written a letter,
And the world is all in tune—
He is coming with the roses
In the fairest days of June.

"I am counting the days between us
I am counting the moments and hours,
Telling my buds like a solemn nun,
On a rosary of flowers;
For he said when the buds of the roses
Are flushing in royal red,
He is coming to claim a promise,
(I wonder what I have said).

"Break into songs and blossoms,
O birds and buds of spring;
Lilies, scatter your fragrance,
And sweetest song-birds sing;
And skies, drop golden sunshine
In the beautiful days of June.
For my love is coming to see me,
And the world is all in tune.
(From "Marigold Leaves.")

THE OLD MAIDS CHANCE.
It is generally the case that the more beautiful and richer a young female is the more difficult are both her parents and herself in the choice of a husband and the more offers they refuse. The one is too tall, the other too short, this too wealthy, that not respectable enough. Meanwhile, one spring passes after another, and year after year carries away a leaf after leaf of the bloom of youth and opportunity after opportunity.

Miss Harriet Selwood was the richest heiress in her native town, but she had already completed her twenty-seventh year, and beheld almost all her young friends united to men whom she had at one time or other discarded. Harriet began to settle down for an old maid. Her parents became really uneasy, and she herself lamented in private a position which is a natural one, and to which those to whom nature and fortune have been bountiful of their gifts are obliged to submit, but Harriet, as we have said was handsome and very rich.

Such was the state of things when her uncle, a wealthy merchant in the north of England, came on a visit to her parents. He was a jovial, lively, straightforward man, accustomed to attack all difficulties boldly and coolly.

You see, said her father to him one day, Harriet continues single. The girl is handsome; what is she to have for her fortune you know, even in this scandalous-loving town not a creature can breathe an imputation against her.

True, replied the uncle but look you, brother, the grand point in every affair in this world is to seize the right moment; this you have not done. It is a mistake, but let the girl go along with me, and before the end of three months I will return her to you as the wife of a man as young and wealthy as herself.

Away went the niece with her uncle. On the way home he thus addressed her:

Mind what I am going to say. You are no longer Miss Selwood, but Mrs. Lumley, my niece, a young, wealthy, childless widow; you had the misfortune to lose your husband, Col. Lumley, after a happy union of a quarter of a year, by a fall from his horse while hunting.

But, uncle—
Let me manage, if you please, Mrs. Lumley. Your father has invested me with full powers. Here, look you, is the wedding ring given you by your late husband. Jewels, and whatever else you need, your aunt will supply you with, and accustom yourself to cast down your eyes.

The keen witted uncle introduced his niece wherever and everywhere the young widow excited a great sensation. The gentlemen thronged about her, and soon she had her choice out of twenty suitors. Her uncle advised her to accept the one that was deepest in love with her, and a rare chance declared that this should be precisely the most amiable and opulent. The match was soon concluded and one day the uncle desired to say a few words to his future nephew in private.

My dear sir, he began, we have told you an untruth.

How so? Are Mrs. Lumley's affections—
Nothing of the kind; my niece is sincerely attached to you.

Then her fortune, I suppose, is not equal to what you told me?

On the contrary, it is larger.

Well, what is the matter, then?

A joke—an innocent joke, which came into my head one day when I was in a good humor; we could not well recall it afterwards, My niece is not a widow.

What! Col. Lumley living?

No; he is a spinster.

The lover protested that he was a happier fellow than he had ever conceived himself, and the old maid was forthwith metamorphosed into a young wife.

—REV. DR. MUNSEY—Methodist Church—to-night.—DEAR-ARM-MUSOL!

Came to his death while being hit on the head with a long-handled stove pipe in the hands of his affectionate wife, was the verdict in a recent case in Illinois.

When a young farmer's wife made her first boy, pants, precisely the same before, behind, the father exclaimed: "Goodness! he won't know whether he's going to school or coming home!"

Southern Manufacturing.

Three years ago a prominent Northern manufacturer wrote to the president of a South Carolina company: "While I have only met expenses in the north running twenty frames—3,000 spindles—the returns I have from sixteen frames of the same machinery in Georgia, for six months have been $15,000 clear profit. Our company have determined to sell out their machinery North. The South enjoys the advantage of not less than 20 per cent. over the North in manufacturing."

The Home Paper First.

The following is from that splendid paper, the "Selma Argus," of the 13th inst:

"The Argus is not intended to take the place of any county paper. It is published at low rates and gives more news than papers issued under less favorable conditions; but it cannot supersede the home paper, which ministers to local wants, supplies local necessities, and attracts attention to local advantages. It wants subscribers from every county and neighborhood in the State; but if there is any citizen who can take his one paper, that one should be his home paper to the exclusion of any other."

The Greensboro "Beacon" truthfully says:

"Cultivating poor land; shallow plowing; defective drainage; over-cropping; making cotton the principal crop, and, as a natural consequence, having to buy corn and meat, raised in the West, the freight on which is frequently more than the prime cost of the article, are the main causes of the bad condition of the planting interest of this section. These evils have to be remedied, at least to some extent, before there can be much prosperity in the country."

—The wheat crop of East Tenn. is represented as very promising.

—The woman's war on the saloons in Ohio still continues.

—The outstanding legal tenders on the 10th inst. were $391,240,927.

—Grange banks established in St. Louis are said to be among the coming events.

—The tax sales of the Tax Collector of Bullock county, occupy eight and a half columns of the Union Springs "Herald and Times."

—The house appropriation committee at Washington has agreed to report in favor of appropriating $50,000 to reopen the New Orleans mint.

—The American Atlantic Cable company expect to complete the laying of their cable from the west coast of Ireland to the shores of New Hampshire, in May next.

—A terrible boiler explosion occurred on the Mobile and Ohio R. R. the other day, blowing the fireman 300 feet in the air, killing him instantly, and seriously injuring the conductor and engineer.

—The Tuscaloosa "Blade" suggests General Edmund W. Martin, of Conecuh, as the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor.

—The Hayneville "Examiner" says some of the older and more experienced farmers say that all the weather signs point to a good crop year.

The Demopolis News Journal is informed that a much larger area than usual has been sowed in oats in Marengo, this season.

—The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer bears of a farmer who raised 600 bushels of cotton last season, and lost $10,000 by the operation. No corn was raised on his plantation.

—It is reported that Gen. Morgan, in his argument before the Senate Election Committee, in the case of Senator Sykes, contesting Spencer's seat, made the fur fly from Bonnie Blue White. Gen. Morgan's argument created a profound sensation. [Montgomery Advertiser.]

—Plant corn, seems to be the policy of our farmers. They say they are tired of having the crib in the West, and have come to the conclusion to make their own corn and live at home. A conclusion that they should have come to several years ago. [Dadeville Headlight.]

—We are glad to learn that the planters of this section are sowing, this season, considerably more oats than usual. So far as we have been able to learn, there is a determination among them to give more prominence to the corn and other provision crops. [Beacon, 14th.]

—The Bigbee "News-Journal" is informed by intelligent planters that a much larger area than usual in Marengo county is being put in oats, and that the acreage in cotton will be proportionately reduced. The corn crop will be largely increased. The farmers of that section, adds the "News-Journal," are pushing forward with energy, and if work will accomplish it, they are certain to succeed this season.

—The Montgomery "Advertiser" says:

Col. H. R. Dawson and R. C. Jones Esq., recently visited Linden, Marengo county, on professional business, and on their return reported that a very large area of land had been sown by the planters in west Wilcox in small grain. One of the gentlemen says that a prominent and leading planter of Clifton Bent told him that more small grain had been planted this year, in west Wilcox, than had been during the whole time since the close of the war. This is indeed cheering news and demonstrates the fact that the planters are waking up to their true interest.
