BOTTINGS AND DOINGS.

After an almost unprecedented period of wet weather, and an alternation of warm and cold days, the skies cleared off and the weather became cool and bracing on Tuesday last, and the fills of the soil have had two good days for work.

The planters hereabouts are very much behind in their work.
Several days ago, Scott Demar, freedman, was arrested by our city police for gambling and was bound over to the Circuit Court, with Jack James, freedman, as surety. On Tuesday last, Jack learned that Scott was about to depart for Tennessee, and overhauled him just as he had taken passage with his wife and child on the Fayetteville hack, and demanded his return. Scott refused and Jack procured a horse, and on reaching Meridianville in advance, swore out a warrant before a justice, and on Scott's arrival, a constable and posse arrested him after a considerable chase, and he was tied and Jack brought him back to Huntsville and delivered him to the Sheriff.
He was then taken before a magistrate and discharged on his own recognition.

On last Thursday morning, during a heavy storm of wind and rain, one of the large doors of the M. & C. R. R. freight depot in this city, was blown down, and fell on Jack Hamlet, a man well known to this community for many years past, for his harmless character and singular habits, and injured him so that he died in a short time. His presence will be missed by the officers, employees and habitués at the Depot buildings, which it has been his daily habit to visit and lounge around, for many years, without any apparent object in view.

It has been suggested to us that the city authorities ought to appoint a section to take special care of the city cemetery and keep it in good order; and ought to erect a building on the cemetery lot for his occupancy. We think the suggestion a good one, and therefore commend it to the consideration of the city authorities.

Handels are digging a trench for gas pipes from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church to the West end of Main-den Lane, where it is proposed to put a street lamp.

are having the two story frame house formerly the property of Jos. P. Doyle on G. Main street, fronting Spring street, pulled down, and intend to erect a building on the
eration of the city authorities.

MARSHALL COUNTY WIDE AWAKE.

We understand that the people of Marshall are entering heartily into the movement of the Patrons of Husbandry, and are rapidly organizing Granges.
We learn that a Grange has been organized in Patch Cove Grange, and another at Olander, and that the former has already erected a large and suitable building for the meeting of the Grange, and the latter is erecting one for the same purpose. We are glad to learn that our Marshall friends are evincing so true an appreciation of their own interests and of the interests of the country at large. May success crown their efforts in the good cause, and may they reap all the benefits anticipated from adherence to the principles of the Order. We will cheerfully publish the names of officers of any Grange in the county, or any other information for the good of the Order, which they may send us.

MADISON COUNTY GRANGES CONVENTION.

A convention, recommended by the Pleasant Hill Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry, is to be held in the hall of the Huntsville Grange, in the city of Huntsville, on the 27th of April, for the purpose of forming a County Council. The convention will consist of two delegates from each Grange in Madison county.
At the last meeting of the Huntsville Grange, Chas. J. Mastin and George M. Harris were elected delegates.
We learn that the following delegates have been elected to represent other Granges: Sam. Davidson Grange, E.
C. Betts, Wm. M. Douglass; Pleasant Hill Grange, Jas. M. Jones, Morris K.
Taylor; Flint River Grange, F. P.
Blair, V. A. Nuckolls; Meridianville Grange, Jos. K. Morris, Geo. C. Saunders.

We hope that other Granges will furnish us the names of delegates for publication.

DEMOCRATIC & CONSERVATIVE NOMI- NATION FOR MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

On Monday night last, over 300 Democrats and Conservatives of Huntsville met in the Court House, to nominate a ticket for Mayor and Aldermen.
Dr. A. R. Erskine was called to the chair, and Ed. M. Haglund and Lamrence Cooper were appointed secretaries, and Jno. D. Chadwick and L. W.
McCravey tellers.

Resolutions were adopted requiring all participating in the meeting to abide by the nominations and support the ticket; that, after the 2nd ballot, the candidate having the smallest number of votes for Mayor should be dropped; and that the two highest candidates for Aldermen, in each ward, should be declared the nominees.

Messrs. John A. Erwin, Thos. W.
White, Jas. L. Cooper and John M.
Humphrey, were put in nomination for Mayor. On the 1st ballot, Erwin received 94 votes, White 89, Cooper 84, Humphrey 18. Humphrey then withdrew his name.

On the 2nd ballot, Erwin received 100 votes, White 153, Cooper 73.
Cooper was dropped.

On the 3d ballot, White received 162 votes to Erwin's 143, and was declared the nominee for Mayor.

The meeting, then, proceeded to ballot for Aldermen. Four names were put in nomination for the first ward, six for the second, five for the third, and six for the fourth. On the first ballot, the following ticket was nominated, the candidates receiving the number of votes offered to their respective names:

First Ward: John L. Rison, 122, James M. Hutchens, 106.

Second Ward: Thos. I. Humphrey 85, S. S. Darwin, 82.

Third Ward: S. J. Mayhew 126,
A. S. Fletcher 110.

Fourth Ward: J. Van Valkenburg 96, John H. White 95.

The ticket is an excellent one, and all that the Democrats and Conservatives have to do to put the mongrel Radical opposition to rout, and secure a glorious triumph of true principles, social order, and just laws, with a proper administration of them, is for all to go to the polls and make "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together."

HUNTSVILLE RADICALS IN A MESS.

The Radicals of this city have considered difficulty in agreeing upon a candidate for Mayor. On Tuesday evening, we understand, they held a meeting in U. S. Marshal Thomas's room in the Opera House, and a committee of ten was appointed to nominate a candidate. That the committee retired for consultation, and, subsequently reported that five were for Jere Murphy and five for J. L. Ridley, that the Chairman of the meeting, Henderson Brandon, negro, was authorized to give the casting vote, and gave it for Ridley; and that, thereupon, Dr. Ridley was declared the nominee. We understand that the meeting was, by no means, harmonious, and, yesterday, some dissatisfaction was manifested, that another meeting was called for last night.
Accordingly, a large crowd assembled in the Court House, and Nich. Davis, Sr., presided, and it was resolved to be a citizens' meeting, against the pretense of Wm. Council, negro, who offered a resolution to exclude all from participation, who were not Republicans, and declared that he would vote for no man, who was not a Republican.
Council was the champion par excellence of Dr. Ridley, and employed parliamentary tactics so successfully as to postpone a nomination until about 10 o'clock. Finally, he put Wm. Gaston, negro, in nomination, but no vote was taken on it. Then, on the motion of Lark Robinson, negro, Jere Murphy was nominated by acclamation.

We understand that the meeting was, by no means, harmonious, and that a motion was made to put Council out as a disturber of the meeting, and he dared any one to try it—that the first one who attempted it, would never see his face again. We were not present, but we learn that the whole affair was as rich a farce as was ever enacted on the boards—that it eclipsed Cal. Wagner's Minstrels or a monkey show.

To-day, we learn that a proposition is under discussion for Ridley and Murphy to retire in favor of some third person. It is also, rumored that Council has called another meeting for to night, to nominate a genuine Republican. So it seems, the end is not yet, to Radical dissensions.

Report of the Board of Health.

Below we publish the report of the Board of Health of Huntsville to the Mayor and Aldermen at their last meeting. It is an interesting document, and makes many important and valuable suggestions, touching the hygiene of our city, all of which we approve, and we hope the authorities will put them into practical execution. Indeed, the city authorities are, to some extent, the custodians of the public health as of other public interests, and, as such, they have no right to disregard the suggestions of gentlemen, whose medical science, experience and skill entitle their opinions to respect and confidence. By the way, our city is indebted to the Madison County Medical Society for the existence of a Board of Health; for that Society first suggested it, and, after, urgent appeals, succeeded in so impressing the Mayor and Aldermen with its utility and importance as to induce the appointment of a Board of Health. We are the more inclined to call this fact to public attention, because we apprehend that the gratuitous services of the medical fraternity are not duly recognized and appreciated by the public. We doubt whether any other profession or occupation does more gratuitous and charitable services, and gets less credit for them. One striking evidence of the want of proper appreciation of the profession is the unjust annual tax of $20 for a license to practice—in other words, for a privilege to work for a living and the public benefit—which now disgraces the statute book. The profession is too poorly paid to afford the least semblance of justification for such a tax.

Again, we recommend a perusal of the report, and a prompt execution of its suggestions.

HUNTSVILLE, March 16th, 1874.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen:

In accordance with a request from your body, we, the undersigned, members of the Board of Health of this city, beg leave to submit the following:

We desire most respectfully to call your attention to the subject of drainage as being one in our opinion, of greater importance to the health of the city than almost any other. The configuration of the surface of the earth upon which a large portion of the city is built, having natural water sheds, which with the system of sewerage heretofore adopted and carried out to operation by the city authorities, affords sufficient drainage to protect that portion of our citizens from those diseases which are induced by defective drainage.

The lower, ill-drained and naturally less favored portions of the city, have, however, been sadly neglected.
It has been our observation during the last eight or ten years—and that of every intelligent physician in this city, that in times like those of last summer, the whole charity of the city should not be forced upon five or six medical men.

There is a Post House belonging to the city. This should not be.
There is no Health officer. One should be appointed and paid.

Huntsville has long deservedly enjoyed the reputation of being one of the healthiest cities of the South.
The mortality report for eleven months, ending December 21, 1873, which we have the honor herewith to submit, compares favorably with similar reports from other cities; yet we are confident in the opinion, that should our suggestion be carried out, the succeeding annual mortality reports will be much more satisfactory.

In order the more effectually to accomplish this end, we suggest that the City Sexton be required to report the residence of the deceased at the time of death; and, also, that the ordinance be enforced requiring the family or friends of the deceased to obtain the certificate of the attending physician, to be furnished the sexton before interment. We think that this course, besides saving unnecessary trouble and loss of time to the Sexton, may possibly prevent the crime of abortion, which, reported (we think) under the head of still-born, numbers 15 negroes and 6 whites—a record truly fearful in a population of 5,000; and, also, that an ordinance be enacted and enforced, requiring the registration of all births within a specified time thereafter.

In conclusion, we heartily express our appreciation, not only of the interest you have manifested in obtaining reliable mortality statistics of the city, but of the assistance you so cheerfully rendered us in our efforts to stay the progress of the late fearful epidemic of cholera.

dered the Board of Health.

would suggest that these mill-dams be removed at once, so that the spring floods may wash out the channels and allow the banks of the streams to dry before heat of summer.

In regard to the immediate hygienic improvement of your city, we would suggest that, although there has been some improvement in the condition of the streets and lots, still the work has not been carried far enough, and with the departure of the late epidemic from your city, we have noticed a disposition of our citizens to relax to their original sense of safety, and with this, a corresponding carelessness in polishing their streets and lots.

In that part of the city occupied by negroes independent of the defective drainage, in fact, want of drainage—the houses are badly constructed and built on the ground. The notoriously careless habits of this portion of our inhabitants, will suggest to your body what steps shall be taken in enforcing sanitary regulations.

There are a number of sinks scattered over the city which have been in use for a number of years; in view of the possibility of another visitation of cholera during the coming summer, we would suggest that these sinks be filled up with earth—which is one of the best disinfectants—and new sinks be dug.
To those who are able, we would recommend dry earth closets.

We would call your immediate attention to the Lumphkin buildings and lot, this building and lot is a focus from which any epidemic disease would radiate with fearful rapidity and intensity. Several times during last summer, the attention of his Honor, the Mayor, was called to this lot, with no material benefit as to results. If the owner will not be persuaded to clean his premises of filth, and fill up a sink between his and the Powers lot, it should be done at once by the city authorities.

The cellars under the dwelling and store houses should be thoroughly cleaned, and the fresh air allowed to pass through them from time to time.
It is necessary to call your attention to the fact that, in the cellars under the store houses, particularly on the North side of the Public Square, the sinks are placed immediately over crevices, which lead in all probability to clefts in the rock, which communicate with the spring—these sinks should be abolished at once.

It will be seen that sinks, which cannot be purified either by disinfectants, or by having the offending matter removed, should not be tolerated.
All this can be remedied by sewers, as recommended in another part of this report. There is not enough whitewashing done. This may be from the expense of the lime. Sufficient quantities should be made or bought by the city, and sold to the citizens at such price as would enable them to use it freely. We would also suggest that the police of the various wards be instructed to visit each lot in their respective wards, with the view of having nuisances removed.

In case of another epidemic, we think that a medical officer should be appointed to give aid the poor who cannot afford to employ a physician, and that he should be liberally paid by the city. It must be apparent to your Board that in times like those of last summer, the whole charity of the city
medical men.

There is a Post House belonging
to the city. This should not be.

eleven cars which left Camden station, Baltimore, at five o'clock on the even-

MID-LENT, 1874.

Oh! Lenten bells! sweet Lenten bells!
As on the ear thy music swells, We hear, above the din and glare Thy peaceful call to praise and prayer.

Oh! Lenten bells! dear Lenten bells!
As through each heart thy echo swells How soothing each cross of toil and care—At that dear call to praise and prayer.

And blessed thought! those Lenten bells Throughout the world their music swell!
In every land—in temples fair, His chosen meet for daily prayer.

Then ring with joy, dear Lenten bells!
And as thy sacred music swells, Let all the world with haste repair;
And fill His courts with praise and prayer.

For Circuit Judge.

HUNTSVILLE, March 25, 1874.

To Editor of Democrat:

Dear Sir:—Several names have been mentioned as candidates for Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Alabama, who are, in the opinion of many, eminently qualified to wear, with dignity and ability, the Judicial ermine. Yet, there is one, whose name we are proud to suggest; first, for his legal attainments, next, for his unsparing integrity in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him—modest, yet firm.
That man is CHARLES JOHN D. BAX-TER, of Huntsville, Ala. And believing, as we do, as well from our own acquaintance as from general reputation, that he is in every way qualified to fill that high position, where the rights of litigants are to be determined. We ask that he will allow his friends to announce him as a Candidate for that position. The people will support him.
A DEMOCRAT.

An exchange says: "Compare the publisher of a newspaper, who has to go all around the country to collect his pay, to a farmer who sells his wheat on credit, and not more than a bushel to any person. If any farmer will lay the experiment of distributing the proceeds of his labor over two or three counties, with an additional one or two in a distant State, for one year, we will guarantee that he will never, after that year's experience, ask a publisher to supply him with a newspaper a year or two without the pay for it."

Dr. Jackson, and J. Carr Gibson intend to cut up about 3,000 acres of land into 40 acre tracts, and give alternate pieces to emigrants who will settle upon and improve it. The land lies eight miles from here, across the river, and is well adapted to making a settlement and village. This looks like doing something to induce emigrants and to build up our State.— State Journal.

The New York Sun is nothing if not impertinent. It asks: "Is nothing to be done in Congress to investigate the great fraud in the paper furnished to the Treasury Department to print greenbacks and fractional currency?— That paper costs just twice as much as it is worth in the market. Its makers pretend that it is safe against counterfeiting, and this is a lie. The Hon.
Adolph E. Borie is interested in it, and President Grant is the steady supporter of his infamy."

It surprised a good many people about Washington and in Texas when Grant appointed W. T. Clark, formerly a member of Congress from the Galveston district, postmaster at Galveston. Clark now turns out a defaulter to the amount of about $10,000, and has forwarded his resignation to the President. The amount of the de-falcation has been made good by Clark's bondsmen.
