NOTES AND DOINGS.

On Thursday night last, the Grand Concert, for the benefit of the poor of the Parish, was a success, demonstrated by the applause of a large and appreciative audience. Where all contributed so much to the delight of musical tastes, we cannot undertake the invidious task of detailed and discrim-inative criticism. We will be parloned, however, for remarking that the audience experienced rare pleasure in the skillful and exquisite execution of Prof. H. G. Hollenberg, of Memphis, on the violin. We have never heard his equal, much less his superior. We have heard the opinion expressed, and we fully concur in it, that we have never had in Huntsville, since the war, any concert of vocal and instrumental music superior, if equal, to this. It is due to Mr. Robert Herstein to acknowledge indebtedness to him for the loan of his fine piano on the occasion.
The net proceeds of the concert, we learn, were something over $100, which is above the average of profits from similar entertainments in our city, since we have been oppressed with "hard times."

We hear that "Ye Old Folks' Concert" for the benefit of the Methodist Church has enlisted a great deal of the amateur talent of our city, and an attractive programme is anticipated.
We have not been advised when it will come off, but will venture to suggest, if those who have it in charge have "an eye to the profits," it will be well to have it during the first days of next week, when the Circuit Court will be in session—say Monday or Tuesday night—and many persons will be drawn here by business in the Court.

Last week, a negro man named Booker, procured the key of a back door of the storehouse of Wortham & Daniel in Maysville in this county, and entering the store after dark, helped himself to a bucket of molasses, and was about to go out, when he was hailed by Mr. Daniel, who was induced to watch for him by suspicions of like deceptions on Booker's part, previously. Booker made a movement that caused Mr. Daniel to fire his double-barreled shot gun, loaded with buck shot, sufficiently near Booker's head for him to feel the heat of the burning powder, and he jumped out of the door and decamped, minus the molasses.

Last Monday and Tuesday, were bright and beautiful days, and, no doubt, rejoiced the hearts of our farmers. But we had a heavy rain on Tuesday night, and drizzled nearly all day on Wednesday. Streams are swollen all over this section of the State, and lowlands are, generally, under water. The Tennessee river, on Tuesday, had overflowed its banks, and at Whitesburg, was within 5 or 6 inches of the highest water mark. The prospect is very discouraging to farmers, most of whom are very far behind in the preparation of the soil and the planting of crops.

Judge Clarke declined to hold the Limestone Circuit Court, this week, because he was assured that to compel a large portion of the farming population to absent themselves from their farms at this critical season, to attend the Court, would work serious detriment not only to the farmers themselves, directly, but indirectly, to the general business interests of the country. It seems to be the general opinion here that Judge Harlan ought to decline holding the Circuit Court of Madison for like reasons. A petition to him to do so, has been signed by several hundred of our citizens of town and country. We understand, however, that a counter petition is in circulation.

The news from Arkansas is of such an interesting character that we publish it to the exclusion of much editorial and other matter prepared for this issue.

How Georgia was Saved.

A writer in the Atlanta Chronicle & Sentinel relates the following incident as having occurred at the supper given to Ex-Governor Vance of North Carolina, during his late visit to Atlanta Ga.

Governor Vance alluded to the superior condition of Georgia over all her Confederate sisters as remarkable, and while much gratified with the fact, he did not understand how this state of things was brought about. Mr.
Hill said, "The explanation involves a long story, Governor, but one chief reason is this: In other States, including your own, a white man was allowed to be a Radical in full fellowship with the negroes and carpet-bag-gers, and still retain his social respectability with decent people. We did not allow that in Georgia." This remark brought into the discussion Mr.
Hill's "Unlucky" speech, in 1863, and Mr. E. Y. Clarke proposed a toast to the author of the greatest and most eloquent oration ever delivered in any age or country.

The monthly expense of the Selma city government is $5,541.

ALABAMA NEWS.

After all, the much-abused caterpillar is a good institution," for by his annual visits and ravages he has at last brought the planter to a sense of his folly in trying to raise so much cotton and so few provisions. We understand that the wools on North River, in this county, are already alive with the moths that produce the caterpillars. The planter with the farmers over there should be to starve themselves by failing to plant food for them.
—Times Herald.

The bonded debt of the city of Selma, is $340,000. Interest to pay is $27,200.

Early on the morning of the 14th, the north bound passenger train on the Mobile and Montgomery railroad, when near Lottland, ran over and killed a negro woman. She was in the act of jumping from a bridge when the engine struck her, literally grinding her body to pieces. The engineer saw her, called for breaks, and tried hard, but in vain, to stop his train.

C. O. Whitney, late Assistant Superintendent of the A. & C. Road, has resigned. Whitney was for several years Senator under reconstruction from Jackson county, although his home was for the greater part of the time in Chattanooga.

We have definite information that contracts for the construction of a large portion of the Columbus, Payette & Decatur Railroad, will be let out in 30 days.—Decatur News.

The plan of the Butler county (Ala.) who have since the war used guano and other commercial fertilizers extensively, and who last season bought more than 1,000 tons of the former from one Greenville dealer, are using them so sparingly this year, that the large stock on hand at Greenville is being shipped elsewhere to be sold.
They are making their own manure, which is one good result of Grange teachings.

The City Court was engaged until a very late hour Thursday night on the trial of the case of Bell & Murray, charged with burglary and larceny in the dwelling house of the late John Whiting.

The jury found the defendants guilty of grand larceny, and recommended them to mercy.

When the prisoners were called up for sentence, their counsel moved in arrest of judgment, on the ground that the verdict of the jury in the former trial, finding defendants guilty of burglary, was an acquittal as to the larceny, and that the verdict of guilty of larceny in the present case, was an acquittal of the burglary charged, and hence that the defendants were entitled to their discharge. This question will be argued before the end of the term.

It would be a curious result of the decisions on this point, if the defendants, by being once convicted of each offense charged, should thereby be cleared of both! But all the ways of the law (and the lawyers) are past finding out.—Mont. Advertiser.

Governor Lewis appointed, two or three weeks ago, C. N. State, a starry public and ex-officio justice of the peace. Last Saturday he was sent to jail in Montgomery under an indictment returned by the grand jury certificates and raising them, and Gov.
Lewis revoked his appointment.

P. S. Ferguson was convicted in the city Court of a violation of the Revenue laws, by practicing law without first obtaining a county license, and was fined $30. This is the first of a number of indictments against our lawyers for the same offense, and will be made a test case before a higher tribunal.—Mont. News.

In the United States District Court at Mobile, Judge Woods, presiding, the case of Henry Clews & Co., plaintiffs, against the Counties of Lee and Chamberlain, was decided last week in favor of the plaintiffs. The suits are based on the bonds subscribed by those counties in aid of the East Alabama and Cincinnati Railroad.

In two cases against the same counties, which had been decided in favor of Henry Clews & Co., in the Middle District of Alabama, but transferred by act of Congress to this court, peremptory mandamus was issued to compel the solicitors to levy and assess a tax sufficient to cover the judgment rendered. These cases involve a large amount of money.

The Birmingham Independent says the downward train on the A. & C.
Railroad, when crossing the Tombigbee, on Wednesday morning, met with a serious accident, by the giving way of the second span of the bridge, thereby precipitating the engine, two box cars and the baggage car into the river, and killing Mr. Lindley, the engineer; Mr. Becker, the fireman; and seriously injuring Mr. Chestnut, a brakeman. The road is in such a poor condition, that the late heavy rains make it dangerous for travel.

The Courtland Reporter says: It affords us pleasure to announce to our readers that Maj. W. V. Chardavoyne was, at the election on Monday last, chosen Mayor of Courtland. Maj. C. will make an efficient officer and the municipal interest of our city will suffer no detriment under his administration. The colored troops fought manfully, but our gallant Major won the fight.

The Commonwealth says that Capt.
Pack, who was removed from the Postmastership of Marion, to make room for a negro appointee, is not and never was a Republican. He is a true Democrat and most excellent gentleman.

Sad Accident—Death of an Accom- plished Young Lady.

Last Saturday afternoon, Miss Kate, the eldest daughter of Dr. N. J. Bussey, President of the Eagle and Phoenix, Manufactory, was riding on horseback in company with Mr. Green, a young man of Savannah, who has an ability in the clerical force of the establishment. When on lower Broad street her hat blew off. This startled the animal on which she was mounted, and while trying to regain the hat she was unseated and fell. In the course of the fall, the horse's hind foot struck the back of her head, severely fracturing the skull. While insensible, she was carried into an adjoining house, and thence in a carriage conveyed to the home of her parents.
The first few days she could converse, but later her tongue and one side of the body became paralyzed. She breathed her last without a struggle, and seemingly without pain, at 8 p. m. on yesterday.

Miss Bussey was in her eighteenth year, and graduated with distinction last summer. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and noted for her piety. In the Sunday School, as pupil and teacher, she was admired for her Christian graces and faithful attention to duty. In the social world, she was one of the brightest ornaments.

In their affliction, the bereaved parents and family have the warmest sympathy of our citizens.—Columbus Enquirer.

A Suggestion.

Several communications, from leading citizens attached to the Democrat and Conservative party, have been received at the State Executive Committee, requesting the Committee to suggest through the Press that each county authorize its Delegates to the State Convention to unite, when assembled there, with the other delegates in their District, Circuit or Division, and make nominations for Congress, the Board of Education, Circuit Court Judge, and Chancellor. Moreover, on enquiry, it is discovered that some counties in the Chancery Division are not in the judicial Circuits, or Congressional Districts, and so vice versa. It is also ascertained that there are no Executive Committees for Chancery Divisions or Judicial Circuits.

From all of which it is manifest that two separate District Conventions, would have to be held, if Conventions were specifically called to nominate Judicial and Congressional candidates.
Now, under these circumstances, the State Executive Committee, while claiming no authority to require it as a matter of party rule or discipline, would respectfully counsel the people of the Circuits and Districts to choose delegates to the State Convention having reference to these nominees, and to authorize such delegates during the State Convention proceedings, to meet in their respective District Conventions for the purpose of making Judicial and Congressional nominations.

A New Way to Swindle the Clergy.

A week or two since, says the Decatur News, Rev. John A. Thompson, pastor of the Methodist church here, handed us the following letter received by him from the firm of Howard & Co., of Chicago:

OFFICE OF HOWARD & CO., Importers & Manufacturers of Watches, Jewelry and Silverware, Chicago, Ill., April 4, 1874.

Rev. Sir:—The watch received from you, Jan. 15th, is now ready for delivery. You were correct when you stated it could not be repaired outside of our house. We have had great difficulty with it, but it is now in thorough order, and we warrant it to keep correct time for 5 years. You have written the watch was found, and desired to know its worth. It is a very valuable time-piece, and must have cost at least $500 in gold. It is now worth $400, and for any one desiring a valuable time-keeper, is really cheap at first cost. Please remit amount of bill by Express and the watch will be immediately forwarded.
Respectfully, etc.,
HOWARD & CO.

(COPY OF BILL.)

For repairs on Hunting Stem-winding Gold Chronometer, made by Jurgen Ritz.
1 Bal. Watch and hair springs, $7 50 1 Main spring and cleaning, 1 25 1 Fine gold lever and regulating, 5 70 1 Gold cap (engraved) 6 50

Please remit by Express. $20 25

The above letter and bill were handed to us, and we immediately wrote to the Cashier of the 1st National Bank of Chicago, for information, stating that the Rev. Mr. Thompson had no such watch there, etc. This is his reply:

DEAR SIR:—There was such a firm.
The police department "battered them," and I think they have "moved on." Your surmises of their swindling character were no doubt correct.
Yours,
J. L. GRAY,
Cashier 1st Nat. Bank.

The West is Strange.—Our readers are familiar with the threat of secession made by the New York Herald, if inflating the currency should succeed. Commenting on this the Cincinnati Commercial thus complacently talks:

"The people of this valley, if they are called to march to the south, they as they did Southward, will not doubt their competency for the task."

The Mountain Eagle complains that the mail route from Jasper to Blount Springs is a complete swindle throughout. "This route was bid off by Hines, who sublet it to Mr. Atkins of Winston county. Whether Hines fails to pay Atkins or not we are unable to say, but we are certain that the riders, we say riders, because there has been no less than a half-dozen, do not pay their board, black-smith bills, dry goods bill, nor even their whiskey bill. The fact of the business is they "every body and pay no body." Often, this mail is stopped for days, and even weeks at a time, compelling our citizens to carry it at their own expense. We hear complaints from the citizens in every direction. They have sent petitions to the Post Office Department time and again, for the redress of their wrongs, but they avail nothing. There is but one thing that can be done to relieve us, and that is for every man in the county, to call at this office and sign a petition to Congress, to change this route from Blount Springs, to a tri-weekly to Warrior Station.
