MORTGAGE SALE.

By virtue of the power of sale in several mortgages executed by P. W. Donaldson, viz: to George H. Holmes, on 1st August, 1873; to M. E. Clark, on 1st August,

1873; and to J. J. Young, administrator, of the estate of J. J. Young, deceased, all of which mortgages are now held by the undersigned, we will sell at the Artisan

Bank in the city of Montgomery, on MONDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF MAY, 1874, the following real estate, to-wit: Lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, in Square 4 (four) in that part of the city formerly known as East Alabama, but now known as Montgomery, which was conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., will be received from said S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they do not, said one-third will be immediately paid. Also, Lots 5 and 7 in Square 18, in the city of Montgomery, which were conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they

do not, said one-third will be immediately

paid. Also, Lots 8 and 9 in Square 2, in the city of Montgomery, which were

conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they

do not, said one-third will be immediately

paid. Also, Lots 10 and 11 in Square 3, in the city of Montgomery, which were

conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they

do not, said one-third will be immediately

paid. Also, Lots 12 and 13 in Square 4, in the city of Montgomery, which were

conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they

do not, said one-third will be immediately

paid. Also, Lots 14 and 15 in Square 5, in the city of Montgomery, which were

conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

the remaining two-thirds pay the mortgage

debt to which the whole is liable; and if they

do not, said one-third will be immediately

paid. Also, Lots 16 and 17 in Square 6, in the city of Montgomery, which were

conveyed to S. D. Hubbard, Jr., and

We hereby announce our readiness to display to the Citizens of Montgomery and the surrounding Country, our

MAMMOTH STOCK OF DRY

GOODS AND SHOES,

Suitably Adapted to the SPRING AND SUMMER SEASONS.

The present Stringent Condition of the Money Market has been fully considered and carefully weighed by us, and we

STATE EMPHATICALLY

that during the entire season the prices on our goods will be placed at the VERY LOWEST. Our determination during the Season will be to

SELL OUR GOODS!

And in order to carry out this ultimatum, all the goods comprised in our Selections are to be offered at such confessedly low prices as

POSITIVELY TO DEFEAT ALL COMPETITION!

Further, our Assortments are the most extensive we have been in receipt of for many Seasons, and have been purchased with the sole view of offering to purchasers at

EXTRAORDINARILY LOW

FIGURES.

THIS WE ARE DETERMINED TO DO, AND MAKE THIS

ANNOUNCEMENT BOLDLY

AND FEARLESSLY, THAT

This is Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week, and the last week of Lent. Friday next is Good Friday, and Sunday next is Easter.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. I. T. Tichenor, D. D. will preach at this Church at 7 1/2 p. m. and the Pastor at 11 a. m.

The Rev. J. B. Jones has returned from the Maryland Conference, and will preach to-day in the Methodist Protestant Church at 11 a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m.

ADAMS STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. I. T. Tichenor, D. D. will preach at 11 a. m. and Rev. Samuel Henderson, D. D. at 7 1/2 p. m. Ordination of Deacons at this church at 3 p. m. these ministers officiating.

The Evergreen Star, after a week's out-of-town from the outside world, guarantees that "the Mobile and Montgomery Railroad will not receive any 'cussing' from us for the next half century to come."

From and after this day, and until further notice, mail trains on the Montgomery and Eufaula Railroad will leave this city at 3 p. m., and reach Eufaula at 10:30 p. m. Returning, they leave Eufaula at 11:50 p. m., and reach Montgomery at 6:52 a. m. The freight and accommodation train, which heretofore ran on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, has been discontinued.

The Hillsboro North Carolina Recorder says: "The Hon. W. A. Graham has in his possession a ring, engraved on the inner surface of which is engraved the names of the illustrious trio, Clay, Calhoun and Webster. The ring is the gift and the work of the venerable William Huntington, a former resident of this place, now living in Marion Ala., at an advanced age, but in good health. The remarkable feature is that Mr. Huntington made the ring and executed the engraving at the age of eighty-one years."

One of the editors of this paper has a ring, engraved by the same gentleman when he was 77 years of age. It contains 50 beautifully rounded and perfectly proportioned letters and figures, commemorative of the fact that it was presented on the 50th anniversary of his wedding day. On that day he celebrated his "golden wedding" and few who were so fortunate as to be present will ever forget the impressive occasion. He is a most excellent gentleman of spotless life and pure Christian character. If our memory is not at fault he has lived a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church for sixty years. And his amiable and noble wife is one with her lord—a pattern of all that is best and purest in human life and example.

A WORD TO THE BAR.—The Head Notes of the decisions rendered at the January term of the Supreme Court are ready for delivery, and as we know that complaints have been made respecting the price charged for them ($2) we deem some explanation necessary. In the first place, then, we never publish these head notes for profit, because there is no profit made upon them. It is rarely the case that we sell one hundred copies; last year we sold but forty. The object is to accommodate the legal profession, without losing more on it than our own labor.

When we publish nothing more than the head notes one dollar from each subscriber pays the cost of the paper, press work and binding and that is about all. But the head notes now being delivered have cost more than twice as much time and four times as much money as those of any one term heretofore published. The proofs were read twice in this office by copy, and once by the Judges of the Court and three corrected before being sent to press. Ten days of unremitting and careful labor were spent in the preparation of the indexes, and three printers were engaged for four or five days in setting them up, and correcting the read and revised proofs. And all this in addition to the money actually paid out for printing, binding, paper, etc. The whole edition consists of but 200 copies so that if all could be sold at $2 each, we should not consider that any profit had been realized.

The feature of these Head Notes is the "labor-saving" index of principles. This is so arranged that whether a lawyer can remember the title of the case or not he can find the principle passed upon and at its foot the title of the case in which it arose. To any lawyer whose time is considered to be the equivalent of money this will soon yield a quid pro quo. It is, in fine, a comprehensive digest of the points of law decided by the Court and therefore of some value and much convenience to the profession.

In addition to this there is an index of cases so arranged that any man who remembers the name of either plaintiff or defendant may find the case sought for without difficulty. Thus the case of A. and G. vs. B. could be found under either the A's or the G's or the B's.

But the merit of the Notes is their freedom from error. In the whole one typographical error in the whole 60 pages and that is so obvious that it thought it unnecessary to note it. Now in view of all these facts and circumstances we submit that $2 is not an unreasonable charge, let who will say to the contrary.

Mr. W. T. Hatchett, gives notice of his appointment as Administrator of the estate of Miss F. A. Reed deceased, and Richard W. Dimon deceased.

Attorney for Montgomery Mutual City Building and Loan Association, J. W. Shepherd, Esq., advises some valuable property for sale.

We are glad to learn that the "Ar-lington," will hereafter vary the character of alternate "receptions," by introducing readings and lectures—free to all members and invited guests. Six or seven prominent gentlemen have signified their readiness to respond, when called upon, and as they are gentlemen of culture, and fine abilities, we predict that the addition of this feature will prove to be quite the thing. More of this hereafter.

We take great pleasure in calling attention to the card of Messrs. J. M. Davis & Co. These gentlemen are of our best-known and most highly esteemed citizens. Mr. Davis has had a life-time experience in the tobacco business in every phase, and knows as much about the weed as it is possible for one man to learn. They sell on commission for the best factories in the country, and guarantee satisfaction in quality and price. The wholesale trade is invited to confer with them, if they can purchase stocks from them at lowest wholesale prices.

M. Winter, at Benedict's old confectionery stand, on Perry street, has taken the agency for the new Vestal gas burners, which give a beautiful light, at less cost, than kerosene. They save the cost of chimneys, and are not so dangerous as the kerosene lamp, because the flame is too remote to affect the oil. The lamps may be seen in the windows at the store every night. An agent will call on our citizens in a day or two to exchange this gas burner for the burners of the common kerosene lamp with those who may desire it. They turn from four to sixteen jets.

Suppressing a sneeze appears to be dangerous, according to the following account of what happened to a woman recently in Westfield, Mass. Being in company, and attempting to suppress a sneeze, she felt a queer sensation in the left side of her face, which soon began swelling and drawing out of shape. A physician was called, but by the time he arrived her mouth and the left side of her face had become drawn up, disfiguring her so that her most intimate friends could scarcely recognize her features, while she found it impossible to close her left eye. The physicians say it is a kind of paralysis, caused by the great effort she made in suppressing the sneeze, and give but faint hopes that her features will ever resume their natural appearance.

The Electric for April contains a fine portrait of Jean Ingelow, taken from a recent photograph, and this the editor accompanies with a brief sketch of her life. The leading article summarizes the career of another woman, even more illustrious, "Mary Somerville," and a third paper deals in a highly interesting way with "Mrs. Gaskell and her Novels." Among the other articles which will repay perusal are: "The Shield of Achilles," a translation from Homer, by the Hon. Wm. Gladstone; "Visitation," "Egypt," a most entertaining record of a recent trip to Egypt, by M. E. Grant Duff, Mr. P. J.; "Recollections of Visits to Sir Walter Scott"; "Shakespeare and the Supernatural"; "Spanish Life and Character in the Interior"; "The Great Bourbon King"; "Scepticism and Modern Poetry"; "A Gold Coast Tragedy"; "Don Carlos, the Spanish Pretender"; and three more chapters of the striking novel, "Far from the Madding Crowd," which is now announced as by Thomas Hardy, author of "A Pair of Blue Eyes." The editorial departments are, as usual, full and entertaining, dealing with all the latest doings in Literature, Science and Art.

Published by E. B. Pelton, 108 Fulton street, New York. Terms, $5 a year; two copies, $9; single number, 45 cents.

Frank McEvoy's new Hibernicon will exhibit in this city Monday and Tuesday and will also give a matinee performance at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Of the exhibition in Mobile the Register says: "We have seldom seen as large an audience, or one so well pleased, as that assembled in that ruddy, robust but delicate jolly in Odd Fellows' Hall last night, to welcome the Hibernicon. The large hall was just comfortably full. A number of ladies braved the storm on this, the opening night, and of all the audience there are probably few who will not go a second time. The paintings are of the first order, each representing some historical scene in the glorious history of Ireland, and the evening as well in the character of a select company, interlarded, as it were between the scenes, is really excellent.
